

Local News In Brief

Spent the Weekend with Relatives.
George T. Cochran is leaving this evening on his way to Walla Walla on business.

To Show Scout Pictures.
Fulfilling a promise made last summer to Boy Scout Troop No. 14 of the Presbyterian church, T. W. Tucker, of Spokane, Wash., has brought his motion picture outfit with him to La Grande and will show pictures of the Idaho boy scout summer camp, Lindbergh and others tonight at the Salsburg Inn at 7 o'clock. All boys scouts of the city are invited by Troop 14 and no admission will be charged.

Dog Lost.
Trillian Ashby has reported to the police that her Alsatian dog was lost between Union and Telephone streets yesterday morning. Harry Harrison also reports the loss of his black and white English pointer, which disappeared last week.

Durse Stolen.
Pauline Hudson, of Walla Walla, reported to the police last night that her purse, containing $10, was stolen from her room during her absence.

To Baker.
Commissioner Charles Playle and Police Chief Clint Hayes drove to Baker today.

Pulse Alarm.
The fire department was called out at 8 o'clock last night to box 24 on a false alarm.

Wedding Monday.
The Supreme Forest Woodman circle will hold its regular meeting Monday evening in the Moore hall at 7:30. All members are urged to be present.

Visiting From Glenns Ferry.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bullock, of Glenns Ferry, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Briggs. Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Bullock are sisters.

Filed $25.
R. P. Mattson pleaded guilty in municipal court last night to a charge of gambling and was fined $25.

Club to Meet.
A. W. Nelson has called a meeting of the La Grande Presidents club to be held Monday afternoon during a luncheon at the La Grande hotel. Mr. Nelson is chairman of the club.

At the Hotels.
Recently registered at the hotels were the following persons: A. L. Young, Walla Walla; Clifton H. Mudd, Salem; J. Priest, Walla Walla; R. S. Sheets, St. Wayne; Lind R. Roberts, Boring; Col. L. G. Esbworth, Salt Lake City; L. H. Campbell, Salem; Mrs. A. L. Ward, Baker; J. A. Harsh, Deary; J. H. A. Denny, Spokane, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Sizmore, Eden, Ida.; and J. S. Rudeberg, Spokane.

Jim Houx has regained consciousness in the Grande Ronde hospital. Yesterday he was injured when the car he was driving went off the grade in the Wallawa canyon. His elbow is reported to be seriously injured and his arm may never completely recover from the accident.

Men's Club Meets.
The Men's club of the Presbyterian church met at the home of H. A. Willerson, 1282 M. avenue, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The retiring president, C. M. Humphreys, presided until the election of new officers, who follow: H. N. Stoneking, president; A. J. Cook, vice president; and Eldridge Huffman, secretary-treasurer. George A. Cochran, the speaker of the evening, gave a most interesting and instructive talk on "Legal Responsibility." Howard Hanson gave several plans numbers. Mrs. Willerson, assisted by Mrs. John Bennett, Mrs. Jennie Thompson and Mrs. George Hill, served a lunch just before dismissal. Twenty-three members were present.

Classrooms Cheerful.
"Aren't they beautiful?" "I just love it in here," and "Isn't it cheerful?" are some of the exclamations made about the new curtains in the Home Economics building of the La Grande High school. In connection with their home decoration work, the girls in the advanced clothing class had the practical problem of making curtains for their classroom. The yellow background of the curtains echoes the color in the walls. In a very pleasing manner, the conventionalized floral design creates a rhythmic feeling and a harmony of color that is very intriguing. The atmosphere produced is one of warmth and cheerfulness.

Here From Portland.
O. L. Stone, of Portland, where he is manager of the Stone division of the MacMurray stores is in La Grande for a few days on business. While here he is at the home of his sister Mrs. M. M. Christensen. Mr. Stone was formerly manager of the Stone stores in La Grande.

He was a member of the St. Louis stock exchange.

TIGERS DEFEAT COVE TEAM, 25-0

A forward pass and rived 30 yards to a touchdown. The attempt for extra point failed.
First Team Scores.
In the second quarter, the first team was sent in and scored in a straight march up the field, Paus going through for the touchdown from the six yard line. Again the attempt for extra point failed, and the half ended 12 to 0.
The game was over in the third period, but in the last quarter the Tigers on a wild, with Oesterling finally carrying the ball over the line in a five-yard dash. A completed pass made the score 19 to 0.
The first team, which went in immediately after this score, got going in a couple of minutes, led by Paus, who seemed to be able to make yardage at will. A pass to Torrence put the ball within the 30-yard line and then Patten cut through the Cove defense for a 25-yard dash to a touchdown. Torrence leaped high into the air for the pass for extra point but failed to catch it.
The La Grande backfield members all chalked up considerable yardage from scrimmage. Paus only played for a short time but made two or three fairly long runs.
The Cove backfield and line showed up well in the first and third quarters on the offensive, and the Cove hunting was excellent.
The game yesterday brought the Tigers scoring for the year to 120 compared with opponents' 23.

BUSINESS IS PROCEEDING

Money is under way and a record year for Christmas buying is seen by the big stores.
To Raise Figure.
There is more than $100,000,000 of building under construction along Broadway alone and the figure will be raised to $120,000,000 in six months.
The New York Telephone company will spend $30,000,000 a year for the next five years on an expansion program based on expectation of continued prosperity.
The New York Central railroad's wide improvement calls for an expenditure of $150,000,000 and the commercial development certain to follow in its wake will call for many more millions.
Mayor Walker's announced program calls for the spending of $100,000,000 a year for ten years.

Money Plentiful

"Money—released from market speculation—is so plentiful for legitimate business," says the newspaper, "that some of the larger banks actually have been 'peddling' it to their clients."
The important jewelry trade—considered by the luxury class and therefore the first to be affected by hard times—is moving ahead of business of the past ten years.
"The theatrical business dependently entirely upon ready cash, is enjoying the greatest prosperity. Retail merchants find business good—much better than the market break had led them to anticipate."

Society News

Central P.-T. A. Hears Talk By Mr. Longfellow
With the new president, Mrs. H. E. Dixon, presiding, the Central P.-T. A. met yesterday afternoon in Miss Schilder's room in the school building.
Boys of the third and fourth grades sang two songs, "Thanksgiving Turkey" and "Billy Boy." Mrs. Bess Cook's fifth grade boys gave a dialogue, "When Willie Careless Became Willie Careful."
J. T. Longfellow spoke to the association of the necessity of having an educational representative in the president's cabinet. Mrs. Lela H. Aves spoke of the religious education of children—its necessity and far-reaching influence in their lives.
Miss Nell Mahaffey's room was first in the attendance contest with 50 per cent of the mothers present. An attractive picture, "The Covered Wagon," will be the property of the fourth grade room for this month.
Exhibits were made in each room of work done by the children and parents visited the school all day. Junior Red Cross correspondence with three countries, Czechoslovakia, Japan and the Theona school in Australia, was displayed. Thirty-two boxes are being filled with Christmas gifts to schools in Gunn, a U. S. possession in the Pacific, by the Central school, 100 per cent members in Junior Red Cross.

Past Noble Grand Club Pieces Quilt

The Past Noble Grand club of the Crystal Rebekah lodge met at the home of Mrs. Flossie Engle Thursday for an all-day meeting, with 11 members attending. A picnic luncheon was served at 10 o'clock. The day was spent socially and in piecing blocks for a quilt to be sent to the Odd Fellows home in Portland.
At 3 o'clock the business session convened, with Mrs. Lucy Graham presiding. Mrs. Adelaide Kitchey was a guest at the luncheon. Members present were: Mrs. Flossie Engle, Estella Holden, Lucy Graham, Mattie Golden, Martha Moss, Olive Chadwick, Lotta McGoldrick, Mrs. Bunch, Mrs. DeKolb, and Mrs. Gaither, Laura Oliver and Alma Carroll.

Birthday Dinner Honors Mrs. Grady

A delightful dinner was given with covers for twelve by Mrs. Emma Grady at the home of Mrs. M. J. Donohue on First street Wednesday evening, which surprised the hostess by developing into an affair in honor of the former's birthday anniversary.
Clusters of yellow chrysanthemums formed the decoration which was in a color scheme of yellow and white. Yellow candles glistened softly on a white birthday cake. Several lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Grady.
The diversion of the evening was bridge, with three tables at play. Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe and P. S. Robinson won honors for high score.

Tea Given Friday To Honor Mothers

A charming tea was given yesterday afternoon by the girls of Mrs. Hattie Williamson's second grade in honor of their mothers at the Greenwood school. Two little girls poured at a time at the long tea table. Those pouring were: Lola Holman, Helen Roush, Rosie Zupan and Vernadine Hungerford.
A program in the theme of "Thanksgiving" was presented, and the afternoon was spent in pleasant social hours.

Tennysen To Speak At Club Meeting

An excellent program has been arranged for the next meeting of the La Grande Neighborhood club, Tuesday afternoon, November 26, at the La Grande hotel. The Rev. M. G. Tennysen will have as his subject "Sacred Music." He will trace the history of sacred music from the early tribal themes down through the various steps of civilization to the present day, and will contrast the fine hymn form with the popular song type of music. It was announced today.
