Kamela Water Supply Is Very Low, Is Report
By Mrs. C. E. Thornburg (Observer Correspondent)
KAMELA, Ore. (Special).—Water is so scarce in Kamela now that it has become quite usual to borrow some from one's neighbors in order to have any. Dishwashing and other household duties where water is necessary has been done only at times when water is available.
On Wednesday night the thermometer registered zero at Kamela and 6 degrees below at Meacham which is only six miles distant. Wednesday and Thursday were very cold all day, but on Thursday night it turned much warmer and on Friday it seemed almost ready to snow.
Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hudson have gone to visit relatives in Buhl, Idaho, for a few days. He is the night operator in Kamela. Mr. Thomas of North Powder is here during his absence.

S. A. Ingerson went to La Grande on Thursday to spend the day with his family there.
Mrs. C. O. Schubert was in La Grande shopping on Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burton and little son Karlee have gone to Nyssa, Ore., to visit both their parents. Mr. Burton is the afternoon operator here and during his absence Mr. Crawford, of La Grande, is taking his place.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas went to La Grande on Thursday to spend the day.
Kamela people are planning a card party and dance for Friday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. W. Evans who are leaving soon to make their home in Arkansas.
Mrs. Muriel Brooks was in Kamela on Wednesday on business.
Engineer U. G. Stover, of La Grande, is working in Kamela at present.
On Wednesday Roy Hawes took his little daughter Louise to La Grande to have a tooth pulled.
Little Iona Brooks has gone to stay in La Grande with Mrs. Walter Ingerson until her grandmother, Mrs. P. P. Brooks, with whom she makes her home, returns from Portland.

Several outfit cars have left Kamela recently.
Mrs. Roy Hawes and children, Frances and Robert, drove to Meacham on Thursday to visit Mrs. Claude Estes.
Mrs. C. Nordeen, of Pendleton, has been in Kamela all week working on one of her houses here. Mr. Evans and Mr. Horstman have helped her paper, paint and renew floors.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burton purchased some furniture in La Grande recently and before it becomes too cold, hope to move it to Kamela and move from the furnished rooms they have been living in into a house.
Ten Above Zero At Lower Cove; Plowing Stops
By Mrs. Neil Kight (Observer Correspondent)
LOWER COVE, Ore. (Special).—The thermometer has registered 10 degrees above zero for the last two nights. Plowing will now have to cease.
Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Koger and Mrs. Dena Towle and children were business visitors to La Grande on Wednesday.
Mrs. Lillian Allen and pupils of Frosty school will give a program and basket social on Friday evening, the proceeds to go for a piano for the school.
Neil Kight delivered 10 fat hogs to the Grande Ronde Meat Co. on Thursday.
Several women from this neighborhood attended the Ladies Aid meeting at Cove on Wednesday afternoon.
Mrs. C. E. Clark and Mrs. Kenneth La Violette entertained at silver tea. The afternoon was spent working for the bazaar which will be held at the community hall, formerly the L. D. S. church, with dinner which will be served at the church parlors on Dec. 4.
Mr. and Mrs. John Chadwick, of Union Junction, attended Nip County's sale on Wednesday.
A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Daron, of Quincy, Ore. Mr. Daron teaches there but was formerly a Cove boy.
Word has been received here by Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Johnson that their granddaughter, Gladith Johnson, of Townsend, Mont., underwent an appendix operation at St. Johns hospital at Helena, Mont., and was recovering rapidly.
T. B. Johnson purchased two fine Jersey cows at the Conley sale.

E. O. L. P. Meet Held At Union On Wednesday
By Mrs. L. Z. Terrall (Observer Correspondent)
The regular monthly meeting of the employees of the Eastern Oregon Light & Power Company was held at the Woman's club building in Union on Wednesday evening. Between 50 and 60 people were present from Baker, La Grande, Elgin, North Powder and Union. A short program occupied the early part of the evening, with a talk by Miss Hoot of the East Oregon Normal faculty on the subject of "Power." Two small La Grande girls, Margie Elliott and Miss Mosier, entertained with songs. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, with music furnished by the Union orchestra.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stevens entertained the Bridge club and a few other guests on Wednesday evening. Free tables were at play with the following guests: Dr. and Mrs. George Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cook, S. L. Benson, Miss Alice Patterson and Miss Erika Clark. At the close of a most pleasant evening refreshments were served and prizes awarded to Mrs. George Hoffman, Walter Cook and W. H. Vogel.
The chair of the L. D. S. church gave a social at the church Thursday night. The evening was spent in games, after which refreshments were served.
An interested audience was present to enjoy the talk given by Harley Richardson at the Woman's club on Thursday. He gave an enlightening talk on the development of different types of art, bringing it up to the modernistic type that has made rapid strides since the World war. His influence has entered strongly into American art, architecture and music since 1925, and Mr. Richardson says modernistic art has come to stay.
Mrs. Mark Crocker, with her three children, is planning to leave soon for Malden, Mass., to be with her mother until her husband returns in July from his two and a half years' absence in the navy. Lieutenant Crocker is with the Asiatic fleet on the U. S. destroyer Balmer, with headquarters at Manila. His cruise was to have terminated in January, but because of the internal disturbances in China it has been extended six months.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walker and baby are leaving next week for Corvallis, where Mr. Walker will assume his new duties as superintendent of the agronomy department of O. E. C. They will reside at the experimental farm near Corvallis. Their many Union friends regret to see them leave, but are happy to know of his election to this fine position. They will spend Thanksgiving with her people at Washougal.

The Sunday morning church services of the M. E. church will have as speaker the Rev. A. B. Weaver of Baker, while the Rev. H. C. Lee will hold services in the La Grande M. E. church.
Several families have moved to Union this week to be nearer to school. Mr. and Mrs. John Klein and children moved from the Park to the W. D. Miller house, opposite the high school; the Cedric Gale family moved to the house recently vacated by the De Laps, and Mr. and Mrs. Giles Van Housen and family moved from the Leon Levy ranch to the Moncrief place.
L. Z. Terrall and Harry Prather made a business trip to Baker on Thursday.
Mrs. Forrest Scroggins, who has been very ill at the Grande Ronde hospital for the past month, was brought to her home on Friday. She is slowly improving and has many friends hoping for her complete recovery soon.
Mrs. Charles Tobin was taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital at Baker this week for medical attention.
Several couples attended the dinner dance given by the Commercial club at the Union hotel Friday evening. The music was furnished by the local orchestra.
D. H. Crocker of the Union flour mill reports a record run at the mill since September 30. They have been working day and night shifts and turning out 150 barrels of flour daily to supply orders.
Mrs. R. H. Bonney has been confined to her bed this week with a severe case of tonsillitis.
The Woman's club at Cove is having a free tables for bridge at the L. D. S. meeting house this evening and are anxious to have the Union Woman's club participate. Some of the women are planning to go over.
A beauty expert recommends yawning exercise. To be lovely, go to grand open.

Ketchell Stops Georgie Dixon
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22 (AP).—Wesley Ketchell, 158-pound southpaw of Salt Lake City, stopped Georgie Dixon, 159 1/2, Portland negro, in the first round of their 10-round bout here last night. It was a big surprise ring upset, as Dixon was a strong favorite to win. A looping left to the jaw drove Dixon across the ring, where, badly stunned, he was unable to protect himself. Hanging on the ropes, Dixon took a steady stream of lefts and rights to the jaw. He was on his feet when his handlers threw in the towel.
Russell Wayne, Portland midweight, knocked out Mike Donovan, Cleveland, in the fourth round of the six-round semi-final.
