WHEAT HIGHER, UNSETTLED AT CLOSE TODAY

CHICAGO, Nov. 27 (AP)—Unsettled returns in Liverpool quotations, together with larger export demands for North American wheat, led to higher prices early today on wheat futures. Deliveries here. Cash premiums for United States wheat shipments by way of the Gulf of Mexico were stiffer. Opening at 1/4c off to 3/8c up. Chicago wheat afterward continued to average higher. Corn, oats and provisions were also firmer, with corn starting at 1/4c decline to 1/2c advance and subsequently gaining in strength.
Wheat closed unsettled 3/8c to 1c per bushel above yesterday's finish. Corn closed unchanged to 3/8c up, oats at 3/8c to 1/2c decline to an equal advance, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 10c.

Extend Period For Grain Shipments

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—The treasury department announced today that an extension of time beyond the usual 30-day period would be granted to relieve the congestion of Canadian grain in New York harbor for export.
Assistant Secretary Lowman said the Canadian grain was piled up in the harbor because of an inability to obtain boats. The law, he said, provided the grain must be cleared within 30 days, but this time would be extended because of the ship situation.

Stocks Marked Up In Exchange Today

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Sharp rallying tendencies developed in today's stock market after an opening flurry of selling had carried many issues down 1 to 5 points, most of these early drains were made up, and a wide assortment of active stocks were marked up 1 to 10 points, with larger gains in a few specialties.

Portland Supply Of Turkey Drops

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 27 (AP)—Portland's turkey supply for Thanksgiving was pretty well cleaned this morning. With the halting of further country shipments Saturday, jobbers and wholesalers were able not only to maintain stable prices, but to advance values a little bit as the supply began to be eliminated Tuesday.
Egg and butter prices were steady. Further reductions were not expected immediately.

Sawmill Shuts Down at Ponderosa; All Logs Sawed

By Mrs. M. P. Raymond (Observer Correspondent)
PONDOSA, Ore. (Special)—The last of the logs in the mill pond have been sawed and the mill shut down temporarily. The planer will run for a while and possibly all winter.
A delightful surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Raymond at their home Sunday evening, the occasion being their 15th wedding anniversary. The Raymonds had been away during the evening and when they returned found the house in darkness but upon entering were greeted by their friends who were hidden inside. Five hundred and six tables were at play. Mrs. C. C. Bloom won first prize for ladies and M. P. Raymond won gentlemen's prize. Consolation prizes were won by Mrs. J. P. Hogensen and C. O. Bloom. Many beautiful gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond. At a late hour a delicious tray supper was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hogensen and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maxfield of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bloom of Baker, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Redbell and Mrs. Clarence Moore of The Park, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Duncan and T. H. Williams of Medical Springs, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gray, L. G. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Robinson, Mrs. F. E. Whitten and Miss Marie Colongue.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hamilton who moved here from Wallowa a year ago returned to their former home last week.
An enjoyable party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bonham Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Robinson entertained a society of friends. Dancing in the large dining room was the diversion of the evening and at midnight the guests were seated around a large table laden with a delicious supper. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bonham, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lark, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hansen, and Mrs. M. P. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Sullivan, and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McKinney, and Mr. and Mrs. Adelia Wellman, who has spent the last two months at Medical Springs, in leaving Tuesday to spend a day or two in Baker before going to Pomona, Cal., to spend the winter.

C. V. McKinney came from Baker Sunday evening and spent the night and Monday with his son, Virgil, and family.

Mrs. Margaret Hatts, of Pendleton, has been taking mineral baths at Medical Springs for the treatment of rheumatism for the past ten days and expects to be there that much longer.
Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Smith and Floyd McConnell, of Yakima, Wash., stopped Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McKinney. They continued on their way to Fruitland, Ida., Sunday. Mrs. McKinney, who is a sister of Mrs. Smith and Mr. McConnell, accompanied them to the Idaho city and returned Wednesday.

Mrs. N. E. Fallow, Mrs. Al Rhinehart and Mrs. John Peffley entertained at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Thomas O'Neil at the home of Mrs. Peffley Wednesday afternoon. Many pretty and useful gifts were received by the guest of honor, among them being one from the relief society of the I. O. O. F. church and one from the Medical Springs Woman's club. After playing games for a couple of hours refreshments, consisting of individual chicken pies and coffee, were served.

Among those who were guests at Medical Springs for Sunday dinner were several groups from Baker. One party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick and

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schol. In another group were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steiger and daughter, Miss Ava Steiger, Mrs. Robinson and daughter, Hazel.
Warren Lemon entertained a party of nine relatives and friends recently.
Lee Warnick, insurance man of La Grande, was a business visitor at Medical Springs Monday.
