MARKET NEWS OF THE DAY

Table with market news for Chicago Wheat, Portland Wheat, and Chicago Livestock.

Wheat Strong At Day's Top Level

CHICAGO, Nov. 29 (AP)—Wheat scored sharp early returns in price here today, helped by a brisk advance at Liverpool and by liberal export demand for North American shipments.

Foreign connections were buyers of Chicago futures deliveries, and for the first time May went to a premium over July.

Opening 1 1/2 to 2 1/2c higher, Chicago wheat afterward continued to show strength.

Corn and oats were also firmer, corn starting unchanged to 1/2c higher and subsequently advancing.

Provisions were easy. Wheat closed strong at virtually the day's top level, 2 1/2 to 3 1/4c per bushel above Wednesday's finish.

Markets Listless In Portland Today

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 29 (AP)—All markets were listless today following the activities preceding the Thanksgiving holiday.

First Half Punting Duct

The first half was largely a series of punts, preceded either by three plays that fell short of a first down, or else a momentary gain with the offensive crumbling a play or two later.

The "athletes" in spite of their age and lack of practice, played an excellent game, looking smart, neat and prone to fumble. They made up for it with an exhibition of hard, low tackling, and strength in the pinches. Several combinations played in both backfield and line, with Garly leading in total yardage.

For the high school, Captain Roe, halfback, and Willie Torrence, end, set the pace for the others, with Paus, Patten and Nelson making a fair amount of yardage. McClure furnished plenty of resistance to "atum" thrusts at the line.

Moments of Comedy

There were moments of comedy as well as football in the game. Just before the "athletes" scored, the "atum" rushed in on many replacements that it took several minutes to re-organize the team and narrow the numbers down to eleven.

Woodell, Peare introduced between the second and third period. Dr. Ingle introduced Jim Woodell, who made the first touchdown in Union county back in 1894, and Jack Peare, who refereed the first game. The high school band furnished music.

Unfortunate Song Writer

Stephen Collins Foster, who wrote "My Old Kentucky Home," composed a total of 164 songs. Among them were "Massa's in de Cold, Cold Ground," "Old Black Joe," "Old Dog Tray," "Uncle Ned," "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming" and "Old Folks at Home." Despite the fact that some of these have become known the world over, Foster died in 1864, at the age of thirty-eight, poverty-stricken and debt-ridden.

Cemetery Care

When perpetual care of a cemetery lot is provided for, it means that headstones or monuments are kept straight, fences or rails are prevented from sagging and grass is mowed and replanted as necessary. One pays a lump sum to the cemetery association, the interest on which is sufficient to provide for these services.

Hair in Our Early Army

That long whiskers and unkempt hair were not in favor with the commanding officers of the early United States army is shown by a letter signed by Anthony Wayne. The letter states that, as a barber has been supplied for members of the company, none would be excused for appearing "with a long beard or slovenly hair."

"Safe as a Church"

It is, we maintain, an excellent idea to go to church on Sunday. Quite aside from the benefit to your own morals, and the duty which you owe your Maker, and such considerations, we state confidently that a church has hardly been known to hit a telegraph pole and turn turtle.—Farm Journal.

Avoiding War

I have a little superstition in me as any man living, but my secret opinion has ever been and still is, that God Almighty will not give up a people to military destruction, or leave them unprotected to perish, who have so generously and patriotically sought to avert the calamities of war, by every decent method which wisdom could invent.—Thomas Payne.

Better to Wash Dishes

A seventeen-year-old girl is writing a novel. "Most everybody now is writing one. And they sell because the writers feel obliged to read what the other writers are writing. Thought to tell the truth it would be better if they washed dishes."—San Jose Mercury-Herald.

Biblical Quotation

The saying that there is nothing new under the sun is found in the Bible. Ecclesiastes 1:9 says: "The thing that hath been it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done; and there is no new thing under the sun."—Pathfinder Magazine.

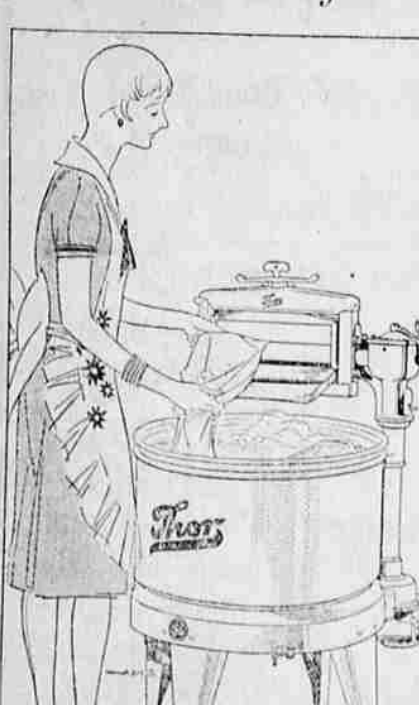

Formal Adjournment

"Sine die" literally means "without day." It is used in the legal sense to mean "without a day appointed on which to meet again." When congress adjourns sine die it means that no date has been set on which to convene, the session being ended. The phrase is pronounced "sign day."
