

Club Makes $50 On Dance Given At U. H. S. Gym

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrill (Observer Correspondent)

UNION (Special)—The Women's club gave one of the nicest dances of the season at the gymnasium on Thursday evening. A large crowd attended with a very good representation from La Grande. The music was furnished by the Star Novelty orchestra. After all expenses were paid the Women's club found they had netted about $50 from the dance.

MRS. Dorothy Cashman came over from Pendleton to spend her vacation at the home of Mrs. L. Z. Terrill.

A meeting of dairymen from the Union district was held at the high school Wednesday afternoon to discuss the establishment of a branch creamery in this section. This meeting was one of a series of similar meetings held here, at Cove and Pleasant Valley to formulate plans for the building of a Farmers Cooperative creamery in Union county. About 20 dairymen attended the meeting and farmers are rapidly signing up for their share of interest in such a creamery. In order to establish a branch creamery it will be necessary to have a guaranteed number of dairy cows to supply the creamery. Already there have been 1500 signed for and the promoters hope to secure 4000 through the valley. The selection of the site will be left to an impartial party who has had experience in the location and establishment of creameries. W. B. Wagner who is the manager of the Payette Cooperative creamery and J. A. Kogard, representing the Challenge Cream and Butter association of Los Angeles, were present at the meeting. Also four directors of the E. O. Dairymen's

Union Business Men Honor Two O. S. C. Players

By W. V. Connor (Observer Correspondent)

UNION (Special)—Jack Cox and Carl Gilmore, two Union boys who are students at O. S. C. and participated in the football game at Detroit, stopped off on their way back to Corvallis to enjoy Thanksgiving with relatives and friends here. They were guests of honor at a banquet given by the Union Commercial club. Gilmore went on to Corvallis Friday morning last. Cox spent the remainder of the week in Union.

Harold Currier came over from Meacham Wednesday to visit for a few days with his mother, Mrs. David Stills. She went to La Grande Friday evening and expected to return to her home by Monday. She attends the Meacham school.

Local schools closed Wednesday for the remainder of the week, a few of the teachers going to other places to enjoy their "Thanksgiving" vacation. Miss Virginia Key left at noon Wednesday for Milton-Preswater to be with her parents. Miss Susan Chadwick is visiting in Portland and Salem, her mother, Mrs. John Chadwick having accompanied her as far as Portland. Miss Pauline Hood and Miss Helen Schaper also visited in Portland, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Hingerty. Most of the other teachers remained in Union for the vacation.
