FLORIDA-OREGON GAME TOPS LIST

Georgia Tech Will Play Georgia—Three Other Contests in South.

By Dillon L. Graham (Associated Press Staff Writer) ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 6 (AP)—The Florida and Oregon football machines clash tomorrow in the Madison Square Garden Bowl at Miami.

The Oregon Webfoots engaged in a light workout in Jacksonville yesterday before heading southward. The Alligators pulled out of their Gainesville training camp last night and joined the Oregon squad at Atlanta, to complete the trip on a special train. Dale Van Sickle, veteran Florida end, injured in the South Carolina game several weeks ago, will not play tomorrow.

"Monkey" Dorsett, the sophomore who flashed brilliantly against Washington and Lee Thanksgiving day, will take Goodbread's half-back post on the first eleven, with Sauls as his running mate. Captain Cawthon and Crabtree will round out the backfield quartet.

Georgia Team to Play
The Georgia Tech Yellowjackets topped off their training program with a hard session yesterday in Atlanta in preparation for their annual tilt with Georgia at Athens. Trainers announced that "Stumpy" Thomason, Tech's great half-back, who was hurt in scrimmage earlier in the week, would be in shape for the final game.

At Athens the Bulldog coaches worked overtime perfecting a defense to halt the aerial attack that Tech is expected to offer. In the last scrimmage the freshman squad, running Tech formations, scored twice on passes and threw a real scare into the varsity ranks.

Other Games
North Carolina and Duke meet at Durham.

Although two valuable reserves, Paul Heydrick, halfback, and Eugene Mayer, guard, have been ruled ineligible, the Tennessee Volunteers are set for their final brush of the year with South Carolina at Knoxville.

The Old Liners of Maryland expect to stain Western Maryland's perfect record when the two divisions meet at Baltimore. Western Maryland leads the nation's teams now with 10 victories and no defeats or tie games.

EXTENSION FOR JAIL

GRANTS PASS, Ore., (AP)—Too many hoboes and sleepers have caused the city to build an extension on the present jail. George Lewis, police chief, said calls for bunks range from ten to twenty calls each night. The new addition will be completed January 1 and will have 10 cells.

Leo Diegel And Hagen Clash In The Semi-Finals

By Paul B. Zimmerman (Associated Press Staff Writer) LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6 (AP)—Meeting for the fourth time in the history of the Professional Golfers' association championships, Leo Diegel, defender of the title, and Walter Hagen, who for five occasions has claimed the honor, today will clash in the semi-finals of the 12th annual renewal of the event, aware that somewhere on the Huisson course lurks for one of them inevitable defeat.

The Hag will be seeking revenge, for it was this same "Lar-ruping Leo," with all of his golfing idiosyncrasies, who turned Sir Walter back in the third round of the test at Baltimore a year ago, after four successive championships.

The Agax Caliente professional, on the other hand, has a cherished title at stake and the possibility of evening the P. G. A. series honors with the great Hag. Should Diegel win today he will have halted the professional from Detroit twice in their four meetings. The first two matches went to Hagen, but in the second of these remained unsettled until the 40th green.

Diegel's has been the better golf during the tourney. He finished second in the medal play with a 140 card, while the Hag dallied around at the tail end, barely getting under the wire with a 145.

O. S. C. Tossers To Play Eight Games In South

CORVALLIS, Ore., Dec. 6 (AP)—A stiff eight game schedule played with California teams is announced here as the opening feature of the 1929 basketball season at Oregon State college. Coach A. T. (Stas) Gill will take his men to San Francisco during the Christmas holidays for the pre-season conditioning program.

The Staters who have been in light training for about a month will work out regularly now until December 18 when they leave for the south. Their opening game will be the following night with the Olympic club.

There will follow games with the Young Men's institute, Santa Clara, Stanford, St. Mary's, College of the Pacific and possibly the

Is Your Whole Appearance Ruined By Ugly Leg Veins?

Of course, it is because nothing detracts so much from a woman's beauty as big, blue Varicose Veins bulging out in her stockings.

Is there anything you can do to get rid of this distressing condition? You just bet there is—go to the Red Cross Drug Store, or any drug store, and get a bottle of Moon's Emerald Oil, a simple, economical yet such a wonderfully efficient home treatment which quickly stops the pain and soreness and reduces the most enlarged veins back to normal in so short a time you can scarcely believe it.

Untreated Varicose Veins have a tendency to grow worse until only operations can relieve them—so why not start right in today and banish not only any operation fears, but your only cure as well—the great penetrating and anti-sclerotic power of Moon's Emerald Oil will do it for you. —Adv.

"HONEY" TOO RUNNY

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5 (AP)—A leaking package from Germany labeled "honey" led customs officers to investigate. Inspection revealed the package was divided into two partitions, one of which contained honey and the other brands.

EUGENE, Ore., (AP)—College husbands outnumber college wives almost two to one at the University of Oregon, according to Richard Collins, statistician at the university. Married students number 122, officers or about 5 per cent of the student body. Out of 125 graduate students two partitions, one of which contained honey and the other brands.
