Superintendent Roy Conklin of the local public schools is nursing an injured wrist as the result of an accident which occurred at the high school building during play rehearsal Monday evening. He was standing on a stool to regulate the electric lights and the stool slipped from under him. In falling he struck his right arm in such a manner as to break one of the bones just above the wrist. He went to a hospital and had the injured arm X-rayed and bandaged and is able to be about his usual work at the school.

Franklin Tree Located After 140-Year Hunt

DARHEN, Ga. (AP)—The lost Gordon, the famous Benjamin Franklin tree missing to botanists 140 years, has been found.

This is the first written to an old botanical mystery and the dream of 20 years came true for G. A. Schulze, government botanist.

The "lost" Gordon is a species of bay—a beautiful, flowering tree-shrub, of which several domestic specimens are in existence in the United States and Great Britain.

But the domesticated tree has been infertile, and could be propagated only from cuttings. So another wild specimen has been

Dairymen Meet Wednesday For Annual Session

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrill
(Observer Correspondent)

UNION, Ore. (Special)—The annual business meeting of the Eastern Oregon Dairymen's association was held in Union at the P. hall yesterday with a rounding delegation of farmers in attendance. More than 250 people packed the hall to overflowing and most of them remained throughout the day. Tom Johnson, of Cove, presided over the meeting and introduced T. W. Tipp, field man, as the first speaker of the morning program. He spoke on the use of silos, proper feeding of the dairy herd and cooperation of the farmers in the marketing of cream.

Mrs. Tom Wallinger of Albee gave an original reading which was followed by music played by Chester Baum on the harmonica and guitar. Mrs. Grant Wilde favored the audience with some pleasing vocal selections. The directors were re-elected for the term expiring at the time of the next meeting, which was changed from the afternoon meeting to sometime in June.

A beautiful lunch was spread in the dining room by the farmers' wives and the large crowd was handled quite efficiently. The meeting was resumed at 1:30 o'clock when Miss Eria Clark, of the high school, played two clarinet solos and Ethel Conklin gave a reading entitled "Red Heads". Jas. Kessard, manager of the Payette creamery, spoke on "Cooperative Marketing." Ex-Governor Walter Pierce summed up the talks of the day, pointing out that the era of the chain store and co-operative markets were inevitable and it was safer to get in line with them than to fight against them.

Mrs. Agnes Padlock gave a reading entitled "Ignorance Versus Education." The meeting adjourned to be called at sometime in June instead of the usual December date.

Mrs. Cecil Grigg gave her sewing class a party at the home of Mrs. Ellis Hess last night. The chief diversion of the evening was a taffy pull.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Conklin and Roy Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Connor attended the normal school play "Arms and the Man" last night and report a very fine production.

Majors Cut Price For Younger Fans

CHICAGO, Dec. 12 (AP)—School children may be admitted for 25 cents each to all major league baseball games. In 1920 excepting those played on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

At the suggestion of Kenesaw M. Landie, commissioner of baseball, Alderman Thomas J. Bowler, of Chicago, was bound for the joint meeting of the majors at New York today with the plan of cut rate for youngsters.

"The youngsters are losing interest in baseball because they can't pay high prices for tickets," Bowler said. "If the rate is cut to 25 cents for them, they will become interested in the game again."
