WAR COLLEGE - SLOW MUSIC.

By Williams LIQUOR FATAL TO FOUR-YEAR CHICAGO BOY

CHICAGO, Dec. 13 (AP)—The lake tragedy of October 20 when William Rogers, a sailor, was saved from the sinking steamer Wisconsin off Kenosha, recurred funnery in his home today. His son James, four years old, was dead.

Ever since Rogers was saved, with other members of the crew, from one of the worst storms that has swept Lake Michigan in years, there have been celebrations at his home. Mrs. Rogers said today that friends of her husband had expressed their jubilation by calling often, bringing bottles of liquor.

Their son was alone in the house yesterday except for an uncle, Philip O'Donnell. While his uncle was in another room, the boy climbed on a chair and got a bottle half filled with moonshine whiskey. He drank nearly all of it.

Physicians worked over him several hours, but he died late last night.

Grain Elevator And Contents Destroyed

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 12 (AP)—Fire following an explosion of undetermined cause, destroyed a large grain elevator and approximately 300,000 bushels of wheat owned by the Sterling Grain company last night. Nearly all of the city's fire apparatus was called to prevent spread of the flames to adjoining grain bins.

The loss may total $50,000, firemen estimated.

SEATTLE, Dec. 12 (AP)—Many Puget Sound logging camps have been forced to shut down earlier than usual because of the heavy snow in the foothills this year.

Wisconsin Orphan Wants a New Nose

SPARTA, Wis., Dec. 12 (AP)—Eight-year-old Doris Graw, whose mother is dead and father missing, wants Santa Claus to bring her a new nose.

She wrote a letter to Santa which appeared in the Sparta Herald and which asked for only one gift—a nose. Doris lost her nose several months ago when a cupboard tipped over on her.

County Judge H. A. Richards is playing Santa before Christmas eve. He has arranged for Doris to

Did you? Did you ever stumble around in the dark to look for a match and find that—

Doors stand nine feet out from the wall?

The table reaches entirely across the room?

The electric light switch has disappeared?

That each chair has twenty-seven legs, and the bureau, on which you left the matches has vanished?

Heard at the talking movies, just after the male star had finished singing: "That baritone reminds me of Henry Ford."

Is not a singer. "Neither is that baritone."

A magazine article, praising exercise, says boxing increases the reach. So does boxing, and it's much less strenuous.

The commandment, "Thou shalt not bear false witness," has been painted in letters two feet high in the Dawson county, Texas, court room.

Long dresses are again the fashion. The ladies had to do something about all those stockings with runners in them.
