

Christmas Suggestions!

For Useful Gift Seekers

Gift Kerchiefs

People often buy handkerchiefs because they hope to receive just such gifts as these. Fine linen handkerchiefs are offered in many designs. These are $1.00.

$1.00

Gloves

Smooth white gloves with some stripes and the new designs make a very thoughtful gift at low and expensive prices.

$2.25 up

Lunch Sets Pillows Towels

A dinner napkin "family" for mother or daughter—fine in woven cotton, small in design.

$1 to $5

Piqueau all silk crepe, with bright color combinations in wavy. A lovely gift for a lovely lady and very much in the "must" class.

$12

We all like to receive gifts of unusual variety.

The item itself may not be so difficult, but just the style and the way it's made is enough to make you say, "Oh where did you find this?"

And it's that kind of gift that we especially suggest—a cunning handiwork of fine linen made in Switzerland, a silk hose with novel and lovely designs, a fine gown of silk crepe, hand-painted. Whatever your gift need, you'll find a happy, inexpensive solution here.

Out-of-the-Ordinary Fine Silk Hosiery

Just look over the stunning assortment of gift hosiery and see how delightfully you can fill a dozen items on your Christmas list. From your own experience you know that nothing is appreciated more. All the newest studies in Bedding, Wigwam Knit and Society Maid—

$2.25 to $2.50

Costume Jewelry

It used to be usual for anyone to appear with imitation gems—but now it's all the rage. Bright necklaces and beads and pendants are needed for each dress. They are dressed—and save gifts—

$25 up

Blankets

Woolens and wools deserve the best—and a Pendleton blanket is the best. Fine virgin wool, distinctive patterns—priced as—

$12.50 to $15

Dress Silks Sweaters Purses

Silk and linens are new gowns of silk crepe, hand-painted and other-mixed.

$12

House robes are most useful and these silken ones are equally sumptuous. Comes of course, washable silk. A gift that would add—

$6 to $15

AND AT THE FOOT OF THE TREE—

You should plan, by all means, a smart and comfortable gift for feminine feet. Most stylish are slippers in red, green, black leather. Good leather, too, and the slippers carefully made. A very nice gift—and one that is always needed sooner or later—$2.25 and $3.25.

HILL'S

DON'T FORGET THIS INDIVIDUAL—

While you are shopping so diligently for others don't forget that there will be Christmas parties and festivities of various kinds with demands on yourself—and that really means a new frock, in the silhouette style, of course. New reds and black are very, very good.

$29.75 up

STORE

ITALY FIGHTING IMPORTED WHEAT

European Country is Winning Out in Her Annual "Battle of Grain."

By Andrew Berding

Associated Press Staff Writer

ROME (AP)—Italy is winning "The Battle of Grain." According to the latest figures, and with a year she decides who has won the struggle.

"The Battle of Grain," as Mussolini calls it, is the struggle of wheat growers in Italy against foreign producers of wheat. The foreigners are in a position to sell wheat at lower prices than the Italian wheat, which is sold at a higher price. The result is that the foreign wheat is being imported into Italy at a loss.

Another law says that excess of wheat imports are to be taxed at 10 percent. This tax is to be imposed on foreign wheat imports.

Another law says that excess of wheat imports are to be taxed at 10 percent. This tax is to be imposed on foreign wheat imports.

Another law says that excess of wheat imports are to be taxed at 10 percent. This tax is to be imposed on foreign wheat imports.

Another law says that excess of wheat imports are to be taxed at 10 percent. This tax is to be imposed on foreign wheat imports.

Another law says that excess of wheat imports are to be taxed at 10 percent. This tax is to be imposed on foreign wheat imports.

Another law says that excess of wheat imports are to be taxed at 10 percent. This tax is to be imposed on foreign wheat imports.

Another law says that excess of wheat imports are to be taxed at 10 percent. This tax is to be imposed on foreign wheat imports.

Another law says that excess of wheat imports are to be taxed at 10 percent. This tax is to be imposed on foreign wheat imports.

Another law says that excess of wheat imports are to be taxed at 10 percent. This tax is to be imposed on foreign wheat imports.

Another law says that excess of

COLORFUL DISPLAYS OFFER GREAT FIELD FOR XMAS SHOPPING

"What shall I get him for Christmas?"

This question has been off the minds of practically every woman in America during the last few weeks and in many cases is still unanswered.

But, after all, there are so many things to select from.

In La Grande, we well understand what our duty is to do into the business section and look to practicality and direction to see many colorful displays of gift suggestions ranging from the more costly gifts to the more novelty than novelty pieces to the more unique gifts, which may be somewhat "hot" but have been learning for those many months.

This year, in particular, the "business" displays presented by the merchants of this city are of metropolitan character—with quality and quantity on every hand.

Coloring is one answer to the familiar question that always arises—if one uncertain before about what he buys, runs to the color color but prefers a more muted color, or socks that are not likely to attract attention, remember there are other things—that the crowd cannot see.

Bright underthings (since most are wearing silk) that word isn't out of place) may be just the thing to please him. Or, small bright suspenders. Or handkerchiefs. Or socks. Or pajamas. Plenty to select from, and they are displayed in such a variety of decorative designs, color combinations and styles that anyone's taste can be pleased with perfection.

Colorful creations, that rival the designs featured in the ladies' ready-to-wear, are awaiting you—and him.

HOOVERS PLAN HAPPY YULETIDE

Old-Fashioned Christmas to be Celebrated in The White House.

By Sue McNamara

(AP Feature Service Writer)

WASHINGTON (AP)—An old-fashioned Christmas such as has not been celebrated in the White House in many administrations will make the holidays this year really gay.

Children for the first time in years will gather round the brightly-lighted tree and pull presents out of stockings in the early Christmas dawn.

Little Herbert Hoover III will clutch his woolly dog with the same glee as other youngsters in millions of homes all over the land. A doll in a pink or blue bonnet will bring smiles to the face of little Peggy Ann Hoover, aged 3, who is her grandfather's pride.

For the White House "children" will be home for the holidays—Herbert Hoover Jr., his wife, and two children from California; Allan Hoover from Harvard business school and the two children of Mrs. J. H. Large, sister of Mrs. Hoover, both are in their teens.

Some of the old neighbors from the former S-street home of the Hoovers may be invited to wish their children for Christmas eve or at some time during Christmas day.

The homing spirit which draws wanderers from far corners of the earth will be symbolized in the lights shining from the White House windows the night before Christmas. President and Mrs. Hoover have always made much of the day, no matter in what distant land they have been.

For the President, especially, the sentiment of the day holds powerful appeal.

This, coupled with the presence of children in rooms which have heretofore been holiday-free, but lacking the shouts and laughter, will make Christmas this year a real one. The favorite White House dogs—Pats, a big Irish wolfhound belonging to Mrs. Hoover, and Yukon, a white husky with blue eyes, will add their own graft Christmas greetings to the merry-making.

There probably will be two trees in the east room for general visitors to see and the other in the private quarters of the President and his family on the floor above.

Church on Christmas morning, a noon dinner and a quiet afternoon with a few old friends will complete the day.

The Coolidges always had a small tree decorated with stars and angels in the east room. There was no need of a special family tree. There was only John to come home from college and he was a little beyond the family age.

These bridges were built in Prairie du Chien, Wis., in 1870. They could be no better place than the vicinity of Prairie du Chien for dry bridges to make their last stand.

Here above the old Wisconsin bridge, with memories of Marquette, Black Hawk, Zachary Taylor, young Jefferson Davis, and the pioneer John Jacob Astor, is an atmosphere of other times and other manners.

These bridges were built in Prairie du Chien's day and their first span was lifted to permit the passage of boats and logs down the river.

It was 40 years ago at Bridgeport that the old bridge has remained its character seared into the sleepiness of a town which used to be hard and tough.

Next spring a modern concrete bridge will take its place, at a cost of $200,000.

Revolutionary!

An Indian man who invented a device by which salt can be taken from a salt shaker. This is one of those revolutionary inventions that really revolutionize—Los Angeles Times.