Bible Searchers Give Xmas Party

The Bible Searchers class of the Presbyterian Sunday school, Mrs. Harry Turner, president, Mrs. H. S. Eakin, teacher, and Mrs. J. K. Wright, assistant teacher, met in the parlor of the church, Wednesday afternoon, with about 45 present, and enjoyed their annual Christmas party. A lighted Christmas tree, with other seasonable decorations adorned the room. A gift box was in evidence into which each one upon arriving placed a gift, and later in the afternoon each received a gift from the box.

The program was of a most delightful nature, with two piano selections by Miss Katharyne Wisler, "Forest Voices" by James Francis Cook, "From an Indian Lodge" by Edward McDowell, with an encore "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell.

The devotionals were led by Mrs. Walter Carpenter, Mrs. John Miller read "Gaius's Victory," and the encore number "School Girls." Mrs. Chris Miller, in quaint old-fashioned pioneer dress, piano accompaniment by Mrs. Harry Turner, sang, "I Cannot Sing the Old Song," and as an encore "Happy as a Bird in its Nest." The Rev. J. George Walz was invited to make the presentation speech and give to the teachers each a lovely piece of Postoria glassware, from the members of the class. Mrs. Walter Carpenter presented a box of handkerchiefs from the class to their president.

Dainty refreshments were served following the program and gifts.

The next meeting will be January 15 at the home of Mrs. Walter Carpenter on Main avenue. Mrs. Miles Fallow will be an assistant hostess.

Girls Give Tea In D. S. Rooms

A delightful tea took place yesterday in the dining room of the domestic science department with students of the Central & B class participating. The table was attractively centered with red tapers. An interesting program was presented.

followed and was closed with the singing of A. G. S. songs.

At noon the girls from Union were guests at luncheon served in the small dining room of the domestic science department. The luncheon was served in three dainty courses by Ruth Gellen and Lena Looch, assisted by Helen Spain, Dorothy Solder, Frances Daniels, Clara Winburn, and Evelyn Bruce, all students in an advanced domestic science class.

The annual A. G. S. Christmas party was held in the gymnasium. Mildred Hokland had charge of a novel program consisting of a parody entitled "The Night Before Christmas," which was written and read by Florence Houston, and dramatized by a group of girls representing toys. The French doll, Marian Webb played a piano solo, Eleanor Hall, the clown doll, Iria Hughes, the rag doll, Nora Sitter and Naomi Tidwell, Santa Claus doll, each gave a dance typical of her part. Mildred Thompson, colored doll, sang a Christmas song.

After the program the girls all joined in folk games led by Miss Glass. The games were interrupted by the entrance of a real Santa Claus impersonated by Mildred Cade, who gave popcorn balls to each girl. The girls then danced until four-thirty. A large Christmas tree, garlands, and wreaths decorated the gymnasium. Carolyn Gray and Jacqueline Gillen had charge of the decorations.

Real and Personal

The difference between "real" and "personal" estate is that the former consists of freehold houses and land; the latter consists of leasehold property, money, furniture, and so on.

Dismissing Worries

An excellent way to dismiss worries, or to reduce them to their proper proportions, is to concentrate mentally on the things you have to be thankful for. Try it.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS WHICH MEN APPRECIATE

Smart Things to Wear

For Christmas nothing is more acceptable to most men than something to wear—smart things to wear. You'll find them here. May we suggest, for instance, a fashionable Tuxedo

CREATED BY

Hart Schaffner & Marx

SHIRTS

A plain white broadcloth, silk or oswave shirt is sure to please. For some men, color, stripes and patterns may be more desirable.

LOUNGING ROBES

The man who takes pleasure in lolling leisurely at home will be elated with a luxurious silk lounging robe, or a bathrobe or house coat.

HOSIERY

Almost every man is playing golf, so a pair of all-wool golf stockings is first thought. Then there are silk socks, of course.

PAJAMAS

In the selection of pajamas, this sophisticated age permits taste to run riot in colors. Many bright colors and attractive patterns from which to choose.

NECKWEAR

You can buy a tie here, without any fear of its being considered a joke. Beautiful colorful ties of genuine quality.

HANDKERCHIEFS

A box of handkerchiefs is always most acceptable. We show boxes of three, six and twelve. Monogrammed, bordered and plain.

SLIPPERS

House slippers and bed-room slippers of fine leather and less expensive and more pliable materials are most welcome by any man.

MUFFLERS

There are mufflers for every-day wear in bright colors and mufflers of knitted silk with fringed ends for dress wear in white and tones of gray.

The men enjoy buying their needs at this store. Isn't it, then, the logical place to shop for the gifts to place under the Christmas tree for them? We shall be delighted to assist any woman in her selection of gifts for the men folk.
