

Planning Trip To Old Mexico To Visit Home

By Mrs. M. F. Raymond (Observer Correspondent) PONDOSA (Special)—Mrs. Clara Johanson and her son, Herman are planning a trip to their former home in Old Mexico. They expect to start within a few days and will make the trip by automobile. An enjoyable Christmas party took place Christmas eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Powers at Medical Springs. Besides several local friends and neighbors present, the following came from Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson, and Mrs. Jackson's sister, Mrs. Mary E. Hart, who has charge of the Harvey eating house at Grand Canyon, Arizona, who is visiting in Baker, W. C. Calder and sister, Mrs. Belle Mosak and son, John, who is visiting here from Camas, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howell. T. H. Williams of Medical Springs sang at the performance at the Clark theater in Baker Sunday. J. G. Murray, his mother, Mrs. Mary Murray and sister, Mrs. Harry Wilson returned from Wellsville, Utah Thursday where they had gone a week ago to attend the funeral of Mrs. Murray's sister. Henry Wankler, who has a large ranch here, is spending the winter at Medical Springs and taking mineral baths. Two Christmas programs have been given this week, one by the teachers Thursday evening and another by the grade, Sunday school and Women's club Tuesday evening. The teachers presented nearly every child in the school and gave an excellent program of readings, dialogues and songs. At the close of the program the children danced for about an hour. Mrs. H. Robinson and S. A. Robinson furnished the music. Santa Claus appeared at the end of the program Tuesday evening with candy and nuts for each child. Grow-ups as well as children took part in this program. The committee in charge being Mrs. D. E. Nelson and Mrs. T. E. Hansen. Miss Clara Johanson, Harry Johanson, Harold Hansen, Vernon Lark, Miss Vivian Lark, students who attend high school and normal school in La Grande were here with their parents over the holidays. Miss Merle Smith who attends high school at the academy in Baker also spent the holidays with her parents. J. P. Hogenson, civil engineer for the Standard Lumber company, drove with his family to Logan, Utah to be with his mother and other relatives over the holidays. Mrs. James Fuller and little son Dennis, of Bend are spending the holidays with her father, J. C. Parker and family. I. W. Van Fleet, principal of the school, left Saturday for his home in Albany. Miss Marie Congrove left for her home at Eugene Friday and Miss Amanda McQueen left Monday to spend Christmas with her mother and sister-in-law at Milton-Freewater. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gabel (Lottie Leatherman) returned this week from a wedding trip to Washington. Mrs. Gabel has the measles but is reported to be improving. John and George Hart, Murray went to La Grande Friday to spend the holidays with their mother Mrs. Kate Knoff. M. E. Raymond, who is employed by the Bowman-Hicks at Maxwell came home for the holidays. The buzzer and minstrel given by the Relief society and Women's club Tuesday evening was a suc-

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL... Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)
