

LOCAL BRIEFS

Mr. Silk Passes On—Word was received here by Mrs. O. E. Rutherford Saturday of the death of Frank A. Silk, of Baker, the news coming as a shock to his many relatives and friends. He was well known in La Grande, having made his home here for a number of years, none from here to Baker. He was a son-in-law of C. J. Eaton and a brother-in-law of Mrs. Entler. Mrs. Tom Mullerburg, and Claude and Albert Eaton. Mr. Silk leaves his widow, Mrs. Abner Silk, three daughters, Leona Locken, of Port Angeles, Wash.; Ethel and Marie, of Baker; three sisters, and a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held at Baker Tuesday afternoon.

Idaho Governor Here—Idaho's popular governor, H. C. Haldrup, accompanied by seven other state officials, paid a short visit to our city late Saturday evening, choosing La Grande as their overnight stop while on a motor trip to Northern Idaho. The governor stated to several local friends that he was greatly impressed with the business activity shown here and asked regarding business conditions here and other Eastern Oregon cities.

Meet Tomorrow—Y. W. C. A. will meet at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening at the M. E. church with Alaska as the subject of the program. Miss Iona Harriman is chairman for the evening with Mrs. Beatrice Young, Miss Mabel Morton, Miss Alice Klippel, Mrs. L. W. Whealy, Miss Catherine Moran and Miss Norma Steger assisting her.

To Meet Friday—The Everday class of the Christian Sunday school will meet Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the parsonage, where they will be for the I. D. Stutz farm for a business and social meeting. The happy teachers will meet for their business and social meeting at the church, Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Annual Parish Meet—The annual parish meeting of the St. Peter's Episcopal church will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock, followed by the feast of candles (candle mass). Election of officers will be held during the meeting and the year's program considered. A large attendance is anticipated.

$6,000,000 FUND DISTRIBUTED BY THREE LEADERS

selected by a committee of three prominent citizens. Mr. Coolidge, Mr. Smith and Mr. Rosenwald, chosen by trustees of the estate, began their investigations last summer with Mr. Coolidge as chairman. After investigating more than 500 organizations they chose the 34 beneficiaries, divided into three classes, 15 to share in cash immediately available from the estate, eight to share in the first $1,000,000 of unliquidated assets and eleven to share in the remaining unliquidated assets. The plan under which the money is to be distributed contemplates that more than $9,000,000 additional be raised by beneficiary organizations. The distribution of $4,000,000 in available cash is as follows: St. Vincent's hospital, New York, $500,000. Boy Scouts of America, $500,000. Girl Scouts, Inc., $500,000. Provident hospital, Chicago, $500,000. The Children's aid society, New York, $500,000. The American National Red Cross, for a New York building, $375,000. The Young Men's Christian association, Jersey City, N. J., $250,000. The New York Foundling hospital, $250,000. International Migration Service, Inc., American branch, $250,000. Jewish Mental Health Society, New York, $250,000. National committee for mental hygiene, $250,000. The Jewish Theological Seminary of America, $250,000. The Young Men's Hebrew association, New York, $175,000. New York university, $250,000. Many other institutions will share in the remaining assets. In a statement the committee said they selected institutions and organizations planning capital expenditures rather than those requiring funds for operation and had considered the number of persons benefited as a guide to the selections.

Mrs. Fitzgerald Passes On After Short Illness
Mrs. Isabel Fitzgerald, wife of Milo Fitzgerald, passed away Saturday night after a short illness, death occurring at the Grande Ronde hospital. Funeral services are to be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Snodgrass and Zimmerman mortuary, with the Rev. B. Marcus Godwin in charge. Burial will be in the family plot of the Masonic cemetery. She was born in Ohio Aug. 21, 1859, coming to La Grande about three years ago. She was 69 years three months and 14 days of age. Mrs. Fitzgerald leaves besides her husband, a sister Mrs. Sam Evans, and the following nieces and nephews: Louise and Bill Evans, of La Grande; Mamie Grievos; Alfred and Isabel Lamborn, of Walla Walla; O. W. Melton, of Spokane, and a niece in Kansas City, Mo.

URGES TILLAMOOK CHANNEL
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6 (AP)—Secretary Hurley today recommended to congress the creation of an 18 foot entrance channel at Tillamook bay, Oregon at an estimated cost of $472,000, with $45,000 annually for maintenance.

Wedding Performed Sunday Evening
Among other weddings this weekend was the ceremony last night when Miss Blanche Fleishman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O.

C. Fleishman, became the bride of Rutherford H. Rhoadland, with the Rev. R. L. Putnam officiating. It was performed at the home of the newlyweds at 2011 Second street. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Fleishman, daughter, Bethel, Dwight Fleishman, and Lois Johnson of Walla Walla. Mrs. Rhoadland is a graduate of La Grande High school, where she was active in school events.

Greatness
I count him a great man who inhabits a higher sphere of thought, into which other men rise with labor and difficulty; he has but to open his eyes to see things in a true light, and in large relations; whilst they must make painful corrections, and keep a vigilant eye on many sources of error. He is great who is what he is from nature, and who never reminds us of others.—Emerson.
