

SOCIETY NEWS

SOCIETY "DEADLINE"
Social news, in order to appear in the society columns, must be in the hands of the society editor each morning by 9:30 o'clock. In order to allow for preparation so that it may reach the composing room by 10 o'clock. It is requested that people call as soon after 8 o'clock as possible. The society page is "made up" in the morning, and in order to go to press in time to carry the papers to nearby towns, it is necessary to avoid any delays.

Polack, who is leaving soon to make her home in California, Mrs. Charles Boshin entertained at a charming bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with covers laid for sixteen. Decorations were in a rose color scheme.

Helomalo Bridge Club Entertained
Members of the Helomalo Bridge club were delightfully entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ari Wengle with three tables at play. Decorations were arranged in a lovely color scheme of yellow and white.

Past Matrons Club Elects Officers For Coming Year
Election of officers took place at the meeting of the Past Matrons club last evening in the Masonic parlors, with Mrs. Robert Baklin, elected president; Mrs. Colon Eberhard, vice president; and Mrs. J. P. Morslock, secretary-treasurer.

Girls Missionary Society At Dinner
A large representation of the Girls' Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a delightful dinner last evening at the home of Miss Lanore.

Party Compliments Mrs. Anna Polack
In compliment of Mrs. Anna Polack, who is leaving soon to make her home in California, Mrs. Charles Boshin entertained at a charming bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with covers laid for sixteen. Decorations were in a rose color scheme.

Helomalo Bridge Club Entertained
Members of the Helomalo Bridge club were delightfully entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ari Wengle with three tables at play. Decorations were arranged in a lovely color scheme of yellow and white.

Past Matrons Club Elects Officers For Coming Year
Election of officers took place at the meeting of the Past Matrons club last evening in the Masonic parlors, with Mrs. Robert Baklin, elected president; Mrs. Colon Eberhard, vice president; and Mrs. J. P. Morslock, secretary-treasurer.

Girls Missionary Society At Dinner
A large representation of the Girls' Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a delightful dinner last evening at the home of Miss Lanore.

Party Compliments Mrs. Anna Polack
In compliment of Mrs. Anna Polack, who is leaving soon to make her home in California, Mrs. Charles Boshin entertained at a charming bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with covers laid for sixteen. Decorations were in a rose color scheme.

Headley, it was served at 6:30 o'clock by Mrs. Headley. Miss Bernita Pierson was elected president at the business meeting, with Anna Gauthier chosen vice president. All the members of this society correspond with a Chinese girl in Hwa Nan college. Last evening letters were read, pictures and gifts from China were shown. Miss Pierson had charge of the lesson study, on the subject: "The One Who Went and the One She Found," chapter: India, Isabella Thoburn, founder of colleges at Lucknow and Lihavathi Singh.

Mrs. Fitzgerald Entertains Club
At a pleasant afternoon Mrs. W. M. Fitzgerald was hostess to the members of the So-Ne-He club Tuesday with 15 members and two guests present. Mrs. Jim Fitzgerald and Mrs. Muri Berry were visitors.

Helomalo Bridge Club Entertained
Members of the Helomalo Bridge club were delightfully entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ari Wengle with three tables at play. Decorations were arranged in a lovely color scheme of yellow and white.

Past Matrons Club Elects Officers For Coming Year
Election of officers took place at the meeting of the Past Matrons club last evening in the Masonic parlors, with Mrs. Robert Baklin, elected president; Mrs. Colon Eberhard, vice president; and Mrs. J. P. Morslock, secretary-treasurer.

Girls Missionary Society At Dinner
A large representation of the Girls' Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a delightful dinner last evening at the home of Miss Lanore.

Party Compliments Mrs. Anna Polack
In compliment of Mrs. Anna Polack, who is leaving soon to make her home in California, Mrs. Charles Boshin entertained at a charming bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with covers laid for sixteen. Decorations were in a rose color scheme.

Helomalo Bridge Club Entertained
Members of the Helomalo Bridge club were delightfully entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ari Wengle with three tables at play. Decorations were arranged in a lovely color scheme of yellow and white.

Past Matrons Club Elects Officers For Coming Year
Election of officers took place at the meeting of the Past Matrons club last evening in the Masonic parlors, with Mrs. Robert Baklin, elected president; Mrs. Colon Eberhard, vice president; and Mrs. J. P. Morslock, secretary-treasurer.

Girls Missionary Society At Dinner
A large representation of the Girls' Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a delightful dinner last evening at the home of Miss Lanore.

Party Compliments Mrs. Anna Polack
In compliment of Mrs. Anna Polack, who is leaving soon to make her home in California, Mrs. Charles Boshin entertained at a charming bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with covers laid for sixteen. Decorations were in a rose color scheme.

World," by J. Patterson Smythe, was begun and proved to be interesting. Mrs. Harriet Macdonald presided, leading in the study.

Install Officers At Lodge Meeting

At an impressive ceremony officers of Iris Camp No. 2580 Royal Neighbors of America were installed at its regular meeting Monday night in the Odd Fellows temple. The ceremony following a short business session, Mrs. Corle Walker, installing officer was assisted by Mrs. Mabel Thompson, ceremonial marshal, and an escort team consisting of Verna Stoelting, Velma Vedder, Jean Carnes, Elva Pierson, Stella Weeks, and Mayme Johnson.

Helomalo Bridge Club Entertained
Members of the Helomalo Bridge club were delightfully entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ari Wengle with three tables at play. Decorations were arranged in a lovely color scheme of yellow and white.

Past Matrons Club Elects Officers For Coming Year
Election of officers took place at the meeting of the Past Matrons club last evening in the Masonic parlors, with Mrs. Robert Baklin, elected president; Mrs. Colon Eberhard, vice president; and Mrs. J. P. Morslock, secretary-treasurer.

Girls Missionary Society At Dinner
A large representation of the Girls' Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a delightful dinner last evening at the home of Miss Lanore.

Party Compliments Mrs. Anna Polack
In compliment of Mrs. Anna Polack, who is leaving soon to make her home in California, Mrs. Charles Boshin entertained at a charming bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with covers laid for sixteen. Decorations were in a rose color scheme.

Helomalo Bridge Club Entertained
Members of the Helomalo Bridge club were delightfully entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ari Wengle with three tables at play. Decorations were arranged in a lovely color scheme of yellow and white.

Past Matrons Club Elects Officers For Coming Year
Election of officers took place at the meeting of the Past Matrons club last evening in the Masonic parlors, with Mrs. Robert Baklin, elected president; Mrs. Colon Eberhard, vice president; and Mrs. J. P. Morslock, secretary-treasurer.

Girls Missionary Society At Dinner
A large representation of the Girls' Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a delightful dinner last evening at the home of Miss Lanore.

Party Compliments Mrs. Anna Polack
In compliment of Mrs. Anna Polack, who is leaving soon to make her home in California, Mrs. Charles Boshin entertained at a charming bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with covers laid for sixteen. Decorations were in a rose color scheme.

who used "Happiness for the New Year," as his subject, reading the 33rd and 10th psalms.

Announcements

Announcements must be in the hands of the society editor not later than 10 a. m. in order to appear on the society page.

Helomalo Bridge Club Entertained
Members of the Helomalo Bridge club were delightfully entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ari Wengle with three tables at play. Decorations were arranged in a lovely color scheme of yellow and white.

Past Matrons Club Elects Officers For Coming Year
Election of officers took place at the meeting of the Past Matrons club last evening in the Masonic parlors, with Mrs. Robert Baklin, elected president; Mrs. Colon Eberhard, vice president; and Mrs. J. P. Morslock, secretary-treasurer.

Girls Missionary Society At Dinner
A large representation of the Girls' Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a delightful dinner last evening at the home of Miss Lanore.

Party Compliments Mrs. Anna Polack
In compliment of Mrs. Anna Polack, who is leaving soon to make her home in California, Mrs. Charles Boshin entertained at a charming bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with covers laid for sixteen. Decorations were in a rose color scheme.

Helomalo Bridge Club Entertained
Members of the Helomalo Bridge club were delightfully entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ari Wengle with three tables at play. Decorations were arranged in a lovely color scheme of yellow and white.

Past Matrons Club Elects Officers For Coming Year
Election of officers took place at the meeting of the Past Matrons club last evening in the Masonic parlors, with Mrs. Robert Baklin, elected president; Mrs. Colon Eberhard, vice president; and Mrs. J. P. Morslock, secretary-treasurer.

Girls Missionary Society At Dinner
A large representation of the Girls' Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a delightful dinner last evening at the home of Miss Lanore.

Party Compliments Mrs. Anna Polack
In compliment of Mrs. Anna Polack, who is leaving soon to make her home in California, Mrs. Charles Boshin entertained at a charming bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with covers laid for sixteen. Decorations were in a rose color scheme.

society will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the parsonage. A missionary play will be presented. Mrs. Minnie Bynum is hostess for the afternoon.

FOR MUSEUM GETS DEVICE WHICH AIDED EDISON SUIT

NEW YORK (AP)—The "hydraulic analog," an apparatus of test tubes filled with water, has been presented Henry Ford's museum by Columbia university. It was made famous by Edison, who devised it to illustrate to a jury one of his electrical ideas which he claimed was new. He won the suit.

Helomalo Bridge Club Entertained
Members of the Helomalo Bridge club were delightfully entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ari Wengle with three tables at play. Decorations were arranged in a lovely color scheme of yellow and white.

Past Matrons Club Elects Officers For Coming Year
Election of officers took place at the meeting of the Past Matrons club last evening in the Masonic parlors, with Mrs. Robert Baklin, elected president; Mrs. Colon Eberhard, vice president; and Mrs. J. P. Morslock, secretary-treasurer.

Girls Missionary Society At Dinner
A large representation of the Girls' Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a delightful dinner last evening at the home of Miss Lanore.

Party Compliments Mrs. Anna Polack
In compliment of Mrs. Anna Polack, who is leaving soon to make her home in California, Mrs. Charles Boshin entertained at a charming bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with covers laid for sixteen. Decorations were in a rose color scheme.

Helomalo Bridge Club Entertained
Members of the Helomalo Bridge club were delightfully entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Ari Wengle with three tables at play. Decorations were arranged in a lovely color scheme of yellow and white.

Past Matrons Club Elects Officers For Coming Year
Election of officers took place at the meeting of the Past Matrons club last evening in the Masonic parlors, with Mrs. Robert Baklin, elected president; Mrs. Colon Eberhard, vice president; and Mrs. J. P. Morslock, secretary-treasurer.

Girls Missionary Society At Dinner
A large representation of the Girls' Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church enjoyed a delightful dinner last evening at the home of Miss Lanore.

Party Compliments Mrs. Anna Polack
In compliment of Mrs. Anna Polack, who is leaving soon to make her home in California, Mrs. Charles Boshin entertained at a charming bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on O avenue. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with covers laid for sixteen. Decorations were in a rose color scheme.

PUTMAN'S
La Grande's Exclusive Ready-to-Wear and Millinery

The radius of this area varies with the height of the rod and the ratio of the height of the cloud to the rod.

THEATERS
Cacophony Of Circus Heard In Comic at State

Uncle Bill bought Junior a Boy Scout knife for Christmas. Next year, the family wishes he would send them a piano, dining room set and a couple of new doors and replace the wooden furniture.

Baby's Colds
Best treated without dosing—Just rub on VICKS VAPORUB
OVER 12 MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

CLEARANCE SALE
Blooming Plants
Friday & Saturday
Clarks Florists
1115 1/2 Adams Ave. Phone M-11

Mrs. James Oneal Hostess at Bridge
Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. James Oneal was hostess to the Wakelita Bridge club when it spent a delightful afternoon at her home. Honors for the play at three tables of bridge were won by Mrs. Joel Richardson, Mrs. W. E. McClure winning second honors. A guest prize was presented to Mrs. Wesley McDonald.

Loyal Sisters Aid Installs Officers
About 40 members were present yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Loyal Sisters Aid of the Central Church of Christ at the home of Mrs. R. I. Putnam, when installation of officers took place. Mrs. Harry Sandos was installed as president; Mrs. C. E. Gollon, first vice president; Mrs. J. B. Rhoads, second vice president; Mrs. Nolan Skiff, who was re-elected secretary; and Mrs. J. D. Smith, re-elected treasurer. Mrs. Harper was appointed as devotional leader.

STEVENSON ENGELEN CO STORES

THE QUALITY OF OUR GOODS IS THE KIND THAT GIVES THE MOST FOR THE DOLLAR

Advance Showing of Spring Dresses!

To be able to obtain at this early date, dresses in the new Spring fabrics and new Spring fashions is nothing less than remarkable. Here are the new prints and high colors... the smart silks and light weight woolsens... at $4.95 $9.75 $14.50

Dresses for afternoon, sports and about town. New princess lines... ensembles... flares... bows, tailored types. High colors and black. Sizes and styles suitable for women or misses.

Light weight woolen sports frocks
Tailored flat crepe dresses
Chiffon afternoon dresses
Jacket dresses of prints

The six dresses sketched give an excellent idea of the new styles in this unusual event.

M • J • B
HI-TEST VACUUM COFFEE

GIVES EXTRA FLAVOR IN THE CUP

The M-J-B way saves all the pungent elusive coffee elements. Twelve-cylindere vacuum machines owned, patented and used exclusively by M-J-B guarantee the constant flavory freshness of M-J-B Coffee.

$1 BLANKET SALE
Only 2 More Days
Friday and Saturday
Trotter's
QUALITY CLOTHES SHOP

A 12-Cylindere Vacuumizer