DID YOU KNOW THAT—
Michigan beat Stanford 49 to 0 in the first Tournament of Roses game, in 1901. . . . If that's any cheer for Pitt, there it is. . . . The University of Iowa News Service issued a list of the dozen athletes ranked as Iowa's all-time stars . . . and didn't mention Duke Slater . . . a week later, however, the same service issued a story about Iowa's great negro athletes . . . four tackles, all colored, Alexander, Slater, Galloway and Benjamin. When the late Ray Campbell, the Cleveland boxing writer, fell fatally ill, Gene Tunney called Ed Bang, sports editor of the News, and told him to get five or more of the best specialists he could find. . . . "Spare no expense and send the bills to me." . . . The wrestlers who walked out on Mr. Jacques Curley a couple of months ago, are trying to put their feet under his table again.

Man's origin is put back 50,000,000 years by Dr. Henry Fairfield Osborn. And doubtless there are times when all of us feel that old.

Jane Cowl says she believes the theater is on its "last beloved legs." There seem to be quite a lot of them, however.

Organization-Wide STORE MANAGERS' contest

More Customers
Bigger Sales
Greater Savings

This week, all Safeway Store Managers are engaged in a contest to demonstrate their intense interest in their customers and their stores. Each of them will put forth extraordinary effort to give better service. Greater values will be found all over the store. The success of each man's efforts will be judged by the percentage of increase in number of customers served plus the percentage of increase in total sales. Each manager is engaged in this contest and hopes to win. Here are some of the inducements your local manager offers you to visit his store.
