Weather Fails To Boost Value Of Eggs, Butter

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 21 (AP).—Cold weather so far has failed to bring any further advances in egg and butter quotations. Eggs have been at their present figure for more than a week and butter has not advanced since the middle of last week. Prices were steady today and without change.

Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the United States department of agriculture says:

"Cash trading continued light on the wholesale market, but delivery business to retailers, restaurants, etc., still flourishes, as a result of Saturday's additional snowfall.

"Several carlots of southern produce are on track, unopened, on account of being inaccessible, due to drifted streets and trackages. Southern fruits and vegetables remain about unchanged in price.

"Potato loadings from Yakima valley points were greatly lessened on Saturday, because of low temperatures there; and many cars of Yakima stock on track at Portland were diverted south, as a result of active demand from California points. The potato market shows a stronger undertone, but Portland prices are unchanged.

"Local cabbage advanced again, to 3 1/2c per lb. to retailers, for best stock. Cauliflower is moving slowly at present rather high prices; green peas from Mexico were lowered slightly to stimulate con-

Market Is Moving In Narrow Range

NEW YORK, Jan. 21 (AP).—The stock market was still moving within a narrow trading range today, and showing little indication of a pronounced trend in prices.

Trade news was rather colorless in character. A received was reported for the Kolster Radio company, shares of which were heavily bought last year on the prospect of the manufacture of home television sets.

Call money again dropped from 4 1/2 to 4 per cent.

More varied buying appeared in the afternoon, when it became evident that professional offering of popular industrials had ceased.

The close was strong, sales approximated 2,200,000 shares.

Wheat Firm And Higher at Close

CHICAGO, Jan. 21 (AP).—Reports from Argentina in beginning to wane helped to bring about a decided upturn in wheat prices here late today. There were also late estimates that about 550,000 bushels of United States hard winter wheat had been bought today for export by way of the Gulf of Mexico.

Wheat closed firm, 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 a bushel higher than yesterday's finish; corn closed 1/4 to 1/2 up, oats unchanged to a shade higher and provisions unchanged to a setback of five cents.

Making Ice At Cove; Store It In City Bastile

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent)

COVE, Ore. (Special)—Several people are taking advantage of the cold weather to harvest a supply of ice. C. A. Smith, of the local meat market, is using the city bastille to store his ice. It is convenient to his shop in the rear and will make an excellent store house.

The snow storm Sunday morning kept people shut in their homes. There were few brave enough to venture forth.

Methodist church had a congregation of 42 and Baptist church had 16. Captain Lewis, a church army man who is stationed at Baker, was scheduled for a service Sunday afternoon at the Ascension Episcopal church but telephoned to cancel his engagement.

L. E. Anderson, the postmaster, went to Union Sunday afternoon to get the mail, thinking that the roads might be so drifted by Monday that the mail truck could not get through and on his way home not far from Lawson's he broke down and after much difficulty succeeded in getting Mr. Volmer with a tractor, to bring him home, arriving about 10 o'clock at night.

Conrad and Logan Anderson are both back in school again after being ill of flu and tonsillitis. Monte Davis, who has had trouble with his car, is also in school again.

K. J. Stackland, who has been in Portland for nearly three weeks, returned home Friday of last week.

Frances Kelley, who has been in California for the last two months, is at home again.

Mrs. E. P. Conley, Grant, Merrill and Maxine Conley, who left the day following Christmas for California, returned home Sunday evening. They report a wonderful trip. They visited all the principal cities in Southern California and went into Mexico. They spent New Year's day in Pasadena where they attended the big football game. Mrs. Conley and Maxine spent a week in San Jose with

Who Makes Your Fire Insurance Rate?

Insured experts compute it; but property—individually and collectively—the conditions which determine the cost of their fire insurance.

Several major factors enter into the determination of fire insurance rates, such as structure, occupancy, the quality of private and public fire protection, exposure from other property and general loss experience.

Surveys Available

The agent who writes your insurance—or your broker—or you, yourself—can obtain an itemized explanation of how your insurance rate is computed. There is nothing secret about it.

The Stock Fire Insurance companies solicit your interest, and offer free of charge the advice of rate-making bureaus to assist in eliminating hazards or correcting defects which may result in lowering your rate.

Seek Counsel

Do not attempt unsound fire prevention measures, but seek the counsel of the accredited experts of rating bureaus who are anxious to tell you the proper way to make improvements.

Insurance companies generally prefer risks eligible to a low rate to those which carry higher ones. A low rate indicates better conditions, better maintenance and less chance of fire.

While the National Board of Fire Underwriters has nothing to do with rates or rate-making, as a bureau of standards it does publish information which rate-makers use to measure the comparative strength and usefulness of materials and devices.

Fire Insurance Rates in Oregon are computed by the Oregon Insurance Rating Bureau, established by law in the interest of uniformity. The Bureau has offices in Portland.
