SARAZEN LEADS IN GOLF AWARDS

Horton Smith, However, Really Tops Winter Golfing Troupe.

By Herbert W. Barker Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, Jan. 27 (AP)—(Gene Sarazen, stocky New Yorker, may have won the most money by the real leader of the winter golfing troupe is young Horton Smith of Joplin, Mo.

Thanks to his victory in the rich Agua Caliente open, Sarazen, former open title-holder, has enjoyed the most profitable winter of all in golfing brotherhood with one exception—Sarazen's close rival, Horton Smith, however, has given a national display of consistently brilliant play ever since the troupe left for the west late last fall.

Wine Three in Light In the eight major winter tournaments in which he has played, the Joplin professional has won three, placed second once and tied for second twice. And in compiling this imposing record Smith has earned nearly $500.

Sarazen did not follow the same trail as the majority of the pros. He won $200 by finishing fourth in the Hawaiian open; runner-up in Florida to win the Miami open and $750, and then secured the big prize of $10,000 in the Agua Caliente open.

Smith, on the other hand, played in practically all of the traditional tournaments and nearly always with conspicuous success. He won the Pasadena, Berkeley and Portland Opens; placed second to Craig Wood in the Hawaiian open; tied for second at Agua Caliente and in the Los Angeles open.

Expenses $1400 These two were the big money winners but some of the others did not do badly at all. Al Espinosa, of Chicago, won about $4100 by tying Smith for second at Agua Caliente and finishing fourth in the Los Angeles open.

Gene Sarazen, young Columbus, O., won $2000 by finishing sixth in the Pasadena open and then added $2200 to his bankroll by capturing the Los Angeles open, placed second in the Catalina Island open and tied for fourth in the Agua Caliente event, for prizes of about $2000.

Other earnings approximated the following: Earl Wood, Bloomfield, N. J., $2000; Billy Burke, New York, $1500; Mortie Duffin, Toronto, $1000.

11259; Tommy Armour, Detroit, $1000; Tony Manero, New York, $1000; Joe Rickwood, Philadelphia, $750; Bobby Chickensack, New York, $700; Ed Bradley, Wilmington, Del., $1100. Leo Dopot and Walter Hagen have had no luck at all.

ANOTHER HOLIDAY

EARLY BY LIGHTS, Ill. Jan. 27 (AP)—Bill Walker, who led the National league in the efficiency contest last season with an earned run average of 2.25, failed to attract his southern signature to a New York Giant contract, and returned the document to Gotham, he said yesterday. The salary terms are not what he wants, Walker asserted.
