Just the cleanest, most attractive and most pleasant places to shop that you have ever seen and the unalterable determination to permit no concern — chain or otherwise — to ever materially undersell us. We believe you are more interested in what we can do for you than in who we are or where we came from — in deeds rather than in words. Therefore — without any more ado — we invite you to compare closely the values offered below and come to this new store where you will find even greater bargains. Remember — we handle quality merchandise first, last and all the time and absolutely guarantee every item we sell — both as to quality and price.
