WANTS BIG 3 ON PENN SCHEDULE

Lud Wray, New Coach, Plans to Build a Colorful, Offensive Team.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 31 (AP)—Lud Wray, new head football coach at the University of Pennsylvania, would like to see Yale, Harvard and Princeton on the red and blue gridiron schedule.

He so declared last night in an address before local sports writers at the Penn A. C., in which he told of his aims, hopes and plans for the next three years. His chief aim, he said, would be to build up an offensive team, in which effectiveness and color would be blended.

"We shall play offensive football," said Wray. "We shall play football that gives color to the game. We want to blend effectiveness in coaching with showmanship and to fashion our style of play and develop our eleven on these lines, exactly as Knute Rockne does at Notre Dame.

"I shall use kicking not as a matter of defense, but as a part of the offense. We shall kick into our opponents' territory whenever we can and then start our offense."

"My plan is for one ball carrier to be really behind ten interceptors. Everybody will be expected to knock down a man in order that the man carrying the ball may be able to gain.

"I expect 52 men to report for spring practice if they all get through the recent mid-year exams. If these report and I can carry them through into the football season, I will have as fine material as any coach could ask.

"I don't want just a good football team. I want a winning eleven. I want to play Yale, Harvard and Princeton and lick them all. I want to be able to go out to California and beat California right at home."

DID YOU KNOW THAT—
Port Koyas, a great lightweight more than 15 years ago, is in the talk now. Willie Hoppe has challenged Johnny Lester to a 15-day three-cushion match.

Walter Hoyt thinks you would have your old pitchers' battles back again if you let the stadium meet on the union. For real fighting, soccer is ahead of any other sport, even hockey.

Officials of the clubs take a hand in the free-for-all riots staged at soccer games.

The true fact that Stanislaw Bokkiewicz beat Paavo Nurmi, but everybody seems to be forgetting that it was a handicap race.

In their second meeting, Nurmi gave Stanislaw the go-by. Kid Chocchato will get a crack at Bat Battalino in March, according to the plans of Matchmaker Tom McArdle.

Big Miller was boxing champion of his division in France. Milburn Shoffner, one of the new Indian pitchers, struck out Ruth, Lazzari and Meusel in that order during one of the late games in the fall.

Amesison of the Cleveland team never is a holdout, but his contract always is the last one to be returned.

Lou Gehrig struck out 17 batters in a game he pitched for Columbia against Williams, losing the game 5 to 1.

Al Singer says Tony Carnera hit him the hardest back he ever took.

When Tom Spears was coaching at West Virginia, he ordered secret practice one day.

There were four or five people on the sidelines and he asked who they were. It turned out to be the governor and a couple of high state officials.

But they went.

CARNERA WINS IN OPENING MINUTE

Chicago Boxing Commission Withholds Money, However, Pending Quiz.

By William Weekes
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
CHICAGO, Feb. 1 (AP)—Primo Carnera, Italy's big muscle man, today is the tentative holder of a 47-second knockout over Blaise Rioux, French-Canadian heavy-weight—a conquest which will not become official, nor will the boxer receive any money for their effort, until the Illinois state boxing commission is convinced the contest was "genuine."

The unveiling of Primo before Chicago eyes, and the attendant ceremony, was quickly accomplished at the Chicago stadium last night. During the 47 seconds of action in the first round, Carnera knocked the French-Canadian to the floor six times, the last time leaving him there, apparently thoroughly chilled with his chin in the canvas.

No Definite Charges
While no definite charges of anything wrong were made, Fredrick Gardner, a member of the athletic commission, announced the purses of both fighters would be held up pending an investigation into the match.

After Referee Harry had tolled off the count of ten following the sixth knockdown, the spectators, 17,249, who left $25,625 at the stadium, looked bored and hurried folded newspapers and programs into the ring to express their disapproval. Rioux was guaranteed $2000 for his share of the entertainment, while Carnera's cut amounted to about $17,000.

65 Pounds
Rioux spotted the Italian goliath 62 1/4 pounds, and appeared to be extremely nervous as he entered the ring. Primo opened up with a left hook which shook Rioux. Then followed a series of smashes, each of which was good for a knockdown. Rioux took a count of one on a right to the head and the next blow, a left to the back of Carnera's head, sent him sprawling between Carnera's legs. Three vicious-looking rights accounted for three more bounces by Rioux before a final right finished him.

Rioux did not land a punch during the brief encounter—in fact he did not even attempt to throw a glove at Primo. His defense appeared to be based on the premise that he was safest while on the canvas.

Carnera Indignant
Both Carnera and his manager, Leon Cio, were vehemently indignant at the action of Commissioner Gardner.

Cio declared that the connection of Abe Attell, former world champion, with Carnera's victory, had no significance except that he was a boxing instructor. Attell's association with the party previously had been questioned.

The semi-final bout between King Tim of Minneapolis, and Frank Flowers, New Rochelle, N. Y., negro light-weight, went the limit and resulted in a decision for the rugged Minnesota puncher. He knocked Flowers down in seventh round of nine in the tenth round, but Flowers rallied gamely in the last two rounds to outbox Tim. It was the second meeting, the last one ending in a great draw.

At the University of Richmond, an argument about how far they could drive. A box of cigars was snatched on the result and they went to the first tee at Clearwater to settle the debate. The hole measured 376 yards. Drury took one shot and over-drove the green.

"Go and collect the cigars," roared the Babe as he refused, even to take his turn.

Evidence has crept up in many parts of the country to show that the whistle blown by the Carnegie Foundation's famous report on college athletics has been heard and heeded. In connection with the proposal for an All-Virginia college conference, Dr. H. B. Bondy of the University of Richmond makes these suggestions, as published by the Richmond News-Leader:

1. Football season to be shortened to six games.
2. Football practice not to begin until one week after matriculation of students.

3. No games to be scheduled after Thanksgiving.
4. Freshman competition to be abolished; class and intra-mural football to be emphasized.

5. All substitution of athletes to be stopped—voluntarily by alumni, coaches and college officials.
6. Football coaches and athletic directors not to be allowed on the playing field. All direction of team by captain or his representative.

STOVER AHEAD END OF FIRST LAP AT TAHOE

TAHOE, Cal., Feb. 1 (AP)—Entrants in the 44,000 Tahoe Sierra dog derby lined up for the second 38-mile lap of the race here today with the three leaders, one a woman, rather noisily crumpled for the initial honors.

Boy Stover of Ashton, Idaho, representing the Sacramento chamber of commerce, finished first in the 38-mile lap yesterday, negotiating the distance in 2 hours, 31 minutes 4 seconds.

Crowding Stover closely was Delbert Green, youthful Rigby, Idaho entry, who sent his hunkies across the finish line in 2 hours, 26 minutes.

The woman contestant, Mrs. Thula Geelan, of McCall, Idaho, with elapsed time of 2:41:13, finished third.

The winner of first place will receive $200. The race will end tomorrow.

Three Unsigned On Chicago Team

CHICAGO, Feb. 1 (AP)—Prospect for "holdout" yanks from the offices of the National league champion Chicago Cubs appears slim with only Percy Jay Malone, the lone pitcher in the league to win 20 or more games last season, without a contract, still out of the loop.

Virtually every other Cub has signed or is on a holdover contract, and President William L. Veeck, anticipates no trouble in bringing Malone, Wilson and Heathcote into the fold.

Three Big Time Outfits Facing Salary Demands

NEW YORK, Feb. 1 (AP)—"Hold out fever" has struck the three metropolitan major league baseball clubs.

Babe Ruth thinks the Yankees should pay him $45,000 annually for the next three years. The Yankees have countered with an offer of $35,000 annually for two years.

The Yankees are having difficulty also with Tony Lazzari, second baseman, and Walter Hoyt, the one-time boy wonder right handed pitcher.

Giants who dislike terms offered are Bill Walker, left handed pitcher who led the league in effectiveness last season; Third baseman Freddie Lindstrom; First baseman Bill Terry and outfielder Ed J. Roush.

The Chicago Cubs would like to buy Lindstrom, but the Giants would not sell him, as he might secure the Cubs another pennant. This makes Lindstrom anxious to do as well as he can, with the Giant pay-masters.

Reports have it that Roush is the victim of one of the biggest cuts in salary in the history of the game. Roush, a veteran, finished a three-year contract with the Giants last season at $21,500 a year. It is understood that the Giants offered him a one year contract for 1929 at $7,500.

It has been whispered that a number of the world champion Athletics are dissatisfied with the terms offered them. Dazzy Vance probably will not be anxious to take a cut in salary and Burleigh Grimes, according to reports, will give Pittsburgh lots of trouble before he consents to take up spilt-balls.

Primo Carnera To Fight Rioux In Chicago Ring

By William Weekes
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
CHICAGO, Jan. 31 (AP)—The formal unveiling of Primo Carnera before a Chicago assemblage will occur tonight in the stadium, with Blaise Rioux, French-Canadian heavy-weight, acting as the other party in the ceremony.

Hallyhoed as the biggest fighter since Jess Willard, the mountain from Italy has created tremendous interest among Chicago boxing enthusiasts, and arrangements today were being made to accommodate 15,000 spectators, or about 140,000 worth, for the 10- and 15-round engagement.

Of the approximately 450 pounds of bone and muscle heaped into the ring tonight, Primo will furnish 250, giving him an edge of about 60 pounds over the French-Canadian. He also will have an advantage of three inches in height, four inches in reach, and several sizes in shoes. Beyond the physical advantages, Carnera will be the popular favorite to no outside of Rioux himself, believes the latter has a chance of remaining upright any longer than did Big Boy Peterson, whom Primo flattened in less than a round.

Rioux Confident
Rioux was confident he not only would be on his feet at the end of the tenth round, but believed he had a chance of outpointing the huge Italian. He claims to have knocked a bear silly with his right hand, and does not think Primo is tougher than a bear. However, he took a licking from Hein Mueller, clever German heavyweight, in his last Chicago appearance, showing little capability to absorb punishment.

If Carnera does as the trade expects and quickly stops Rioux, the spectators still will have the King Tut-Bruce Flowers semi-final, the rounder to look at. That rugged Minnesota puncher, and the New Rochelle negro lightweight fought a great draw here several weeks ago, and were rematched by request.

Singer belted out an easy decision victory over Stanislaus Loayza, rugged Chilean, in a stam-bling battle in Madison Square Garden last night.

Eighteen thousand fans gave Loayza a tremendous ovation as he left the ring after an exhibition of gameness seldom equaled here before. There was no question, however, as to the decision. Singer was eight of the ten rounds, Loayza one, the tenth, and the second was even.

Singer gave the Chilean a terrific licking and nearly knocked him out in the third and sixth rounds. In the third the Bronx youngster thumped Loayza for a count of nine with a hard smash to the jaw. Another Harry of right hand jabs had the Chilean staggering in the sixth but Singer could not floor him again. Loayza rallied in brilliant fashion in the tenth round and had Singer worried with a half dozen left hooks and right crosses to the chin but the New Yorker boxed his way out of the difficulty.

Singer weighed 134 1/2; Loayza, 126 1/2.

SINGER BELTS LOAYZA FOR AN EASY VICTORY

NEW YORK, Feb. 1 (AP)—One more victory had been added today to the already imposing record of Al Singer, Bronx kid, who some experts believe will be the next lightweight champion of the world.
