The Brooklyn situation has been a sore spot in the league for some years. Robinson's three-year contract as manager expired at the end of the 1929 season and McKeever opposed its renewal while the Athletics have, holding 50 per cent of the club's stock, stood solidly behind "Uncle Robbie." Strictly speaking the club has been without a manager since Robinson's contract expired.

The league also adopted the schedule proposed by Harry Dreyfuss of Pittsburgh as vice president, and referred to the rules committee a suggestion by Emil Fuchs of the Boston Braves that the rules be amended to permit umpires to eject players from games for a specified number of innings instead of for the duration of the contest.

The umpire slate for 1930 was approved as follows: William J. Klein, Charles Rigler, Ernest C. Quigley, Charles H. Moran, Charles Pfirman, John E. Heardon, Louis I. Jordan, Albert J. Stark, George Makorkarth, all ball-boys; and Mike H. Donohue, St. Louis; Robert M. Clark, Washington, D. C.; and Ted McGrew, of Indianapolis, new men. This trio will succeed Bob Hart, Eddie McLaughlin and Harry McCordick. Clark is from the International league; Donohue from the Texas league and McGrew from the American association.

Reference was made in these columns recently to the popularity of ring cloths, such as Jack (W. W.) Murphy, the California Irishman, and Art (The Great) Shires, clothing first baseman. The successful debut of the biggest flannel cloth of all time, 270-pound, 6 feet-6 inch Primo Carnera, clinches the case without necessity of waiting to hear from the jury.

Carnera, for the time being, is 50 per cent novelty and 50 per cent showman. Some here, a percentage of fighting ability may develop, for this Gargantuan with the features of a Gargoyl and the build of a Neolithic caveman, unquestionably has possibilities in his speed and power. Meanwhile no competitive whatever will be involved in barnstorming him as a flannel freak in the principal centers of boxing ballyhoo. His opponents will be hand-picked so long as the customers manifest the same enthusiasm as the 18,000 who sold nearly $2,000,000 to watch the Italian giant perform at Madison Square Garden. Later on, some scientific tests may be made of the durability of Carnera's chin but not until he has been led around the circuit to put on his act.

In European capitals, where the fight customers apparently are much more skeptical than the American variety, the reports of the financial, social and artistic success of Carnera's debut must have created no little surprise around to know that Poudousov Prima's board of directors collected in the neighborhood of $200,000 for the 70 seconds of entertainment with Big Boy Peterson. Moreover, following the quaint custom in such business, the pay-off of Big Boy was out of Carnera's end. This made it strictly a sociable affair with Peterson bouncing up.

DOVE OF PEACE VISITS DODGERS

Battle Between Robinson and McKeever Ended at National Meeting.

By Herbert W. Barker (Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Feb. 3 (AP)—The dove of peace finally hovered over the warring Brooklyn club of the National league. The long battle between Wilbert Robinson, president-manager-director of the club, and S. W. McKeever, a director heading an opposition faction, was ended yesterday by official action of the National league, holding its spring meeting here.

Under the somewhat complicated terms of the agreement, Robinson resigned as president and director and was re-nominated as manager for two years. Frank H. York, attorney for McKeever, and member of the board, was elected president for two years. Robinson's successor as a director will be named by Joseph A. Gillette, secretary and member of the board who represents the heirs of the late Charles H. Ebbets. Still another member of the board will be named by John A. Heydler, president of the National league. The directors when the slate is completed, thus will consist of McKeever, York, Gillette and the two appointees, one by Gillette and the other by Heydler.

Willamette Team Wins Close Game

LINCOLN HIGH WINS

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 3 (AP)—Scoring three baskets in the last minute of play, Sped Kowalski-Willamette Bearmats scored out Multnomah club, 41-40, here last night to even the score with the Cardinals. The clubmen led through a large part of the game, but were unable to overcome a five-point Willamette rally in the last few minutes of play. The score at the half was 25 to 17. George Skales, ex-Franklin high star, sank the winning basket for the visitors.

The freshmen preliminary ended in a 20-16-10 tie, Willamette and the club intermingled battling on even terms.

Wrigley's Cubs All Signed Up For The Season

CHICAGO, Feb. 3 (AP)—Wrigley's Cubs, who were expected to sign a number of players, have today announced that they have signed all their players for the 1930 season.

Instead of signing seven players, President William Wrigley and Manager Joe McCarthy several times and managed to sign only six. The team's only new acquisition is the pitcher, Ray Caldwell, who was signed by the Cubs.

Wrigley, who regularly turns down directors' meetings of his various business enterprises, to watch the team play, has his heart set on only for another National league flag but for another chance to win the world's championship preferably at the expense of the well-known Athletics. His spirit is shown in the players, too, and all business they do not want to lose any time waiting ready for that chance by hoisting a pennant.

Announced at Speed News-tribune, Bob Lewis, manager.

Wrigley's Cubs All Signed Up For The Season

It is known the big reason for the lack of holdouts among the Cubs is due to substantial increases in pay for the more important members of the National league championship cast. Wilson is believed to have received a contract calling for $25,000, a good increase over 1929, while Charlie Root, Guy Bush and Pat Malone, none of the pitcher-staff, also will draw fat pay envelopes.

... in a magician it's SKILL!

... in a cigarette it's TASTE!

It takes more than cleverness to make a good cigarette. Taste is either there, or it isn't; deception plays no part.

We put taste first, in making Chesterfield. Tobaccos are chosen and blended for mildness, for aroma, for tobacco flavor; taste is always what counts.

And Chesterfield's huge popularity seems to prove that the same thing counts with smokers as with us—
