Stomach Ulcers Helped by Bi-Rex— Scientific Stomach Treatment Goes to Source of Trouble—Removes Cause.

Bi-Rex, a closely guarded, secret scientific formula, performs a valuable duty in the treatment of ulcers by neutralizing excessive acids, removing toxic congestions, supplying a healing antiseptic for ulcerated parts in the stomach and intestines. It purifies the blood, which in turn builds the body in tone, vigor and vitality.

The pleasant, mild action of Bi-Rex will astonish you. You can feel its soothing effects in 15 minutes or less after you have taken a teaspoonful in a little water.

No matter what your condition—whether it is incipient stomach trouble, or a chronic case of long standing, you owe it to yourself to see what wonderful relief you can gain by using Bi-Rex.

Bi-Rex is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Sold by the Moon Drug Co.—Adv.

not only does not lead to intoxication, but promotes temperance by preventing hard drinking and the use of narcotics.

Discussing the preliminary utterances of the law enforcement commission, the Pennsylvania said that "if the prohibition leaders had caught his full significance they would have sent their argument by themselves down in sack cloth and ashes, or possibly have had resort to the wine which on high seriptural authority 'gladdens the troubled heart of man'."

Beck said that even in Russia where "there has never been anything more ruthless, despotic, and cruel than the Russia of the soviet regime," prohibition was not made effective.

SEEKS ADDITIONAL POWER— WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Continuing his plea before a house judiciary sub-committee for legislation to give United States commissioners the power to try minor prohibition cases, Dean Roscoe Pound of the law enforcement commission said today there was nothing unusual in the proposal.

Chairman Wickersham of the commission appeared with Pound again today but as was the case yesterday he did not testify. He listened intently as committee members questioned his colleague.

RENOUNCES SALEM MAYOR— EUGENE, Ore., Feb. 7 (AP)—Denouncing Boston news dispatches which recently quoted J. A. Livesley, mayor of Salem, as favoring the return of beer, the central union W. O. T. U. News issued a statement today through its secretary, Mrs. R. L. Fordew.

Wiltman Glee Club Coming— In addition, the Wiltman college glee club is to appear at the high school on the evening of Mar. 31.

The Associated Girl Students are at present planning on a matinee carnival to be given after school in the near future.

The pep contest, with the four classes participating, is occupying considerable attention, also. Both boys and girls basketball teams final rankings count in the pep contest, and in addition, each class is to have charge of an assembly soon, with points to be awarded.

For the student body as a whole, one of the important spring events is the annual election of officers, probably about the last Tuesday in April.

Spring Vacation— The spring vacation begins at the close of school Friday, April 4 and will continue until the opening of school Monday morning, April 14. Graduation is already occupying the thoughts of many of the seniors. The present enrollment in the class is 107 or 108. The graduation roll will not be made up until in May. Baccalaureate will be held on Sunday evening, May 25, followed by commencement exercises on Wednesday evening, May 28. School will be closed on Friday, May 30.
