MENUS

By Sister Mary

The woman who must feed a family and closely count the cost must spend lavishly of her time. Much thought and planning will be required if the meals are not monotonous. Meats, particularly, present a difficult problem and much ingenuity is needed to maintain a well-balanced and nourishing diet. The glandular organs are of much food value and in most instances are quite cheap in price. Even liver, which has soared in price since it has gained its widespread reputation, is not prohibitive, since it contains no waste material and offers such excellent food values. Heart and kidney are very cheap and when properly cooked, make delicious meals. The heart and kidneys as well as the liver are much richer in vitamins than the steaks and roasts and for this reason are very desirable foods. Their mineral content is noteworthy, also. All in Tapajoz River are now in radio communication with the Ford of Brazil here at the state capital through the granting of a permit.

Lamb and veal are, of course, the most delicate. But if beef heart is parboiled before using, as suggested in the recipe, it will be found very satisfactory. If an entire oven dinner is planned whenever the meat is to be baked or roasted, an appreciable saving in fuel is effected.

Baked Veal Heart
One calf's heart, 1-2 pound lean veal, 3 slices bacon, 1-2 cup stale bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon minced parsley, 1-2 teaspoon minced onion, 1 egg, salt and pepper. Wash heart through several waters and remove veins and arteries. Let stand in cold water for one hour. Drain and dry. Put veal and bacon through the fine knife of the food chopper two or three times. Add crumbs and seasoning. Mix well and add egg slightly beaten. Mix thoroughly. Fill heart with forcemeat and sew or bind firmly with cord. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and roll in flour. Brown quickly in a hot frying pan. Put into a deep casserole.

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*
By refraining from over-indulgence, if you would maintain the modern figure of fashion

Women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—men who would keep that trim, proper figure, eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain the lithe, youthful, modern figure.

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette a man ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

*Be Moderate! . . . Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.
