PUSSYWILLOWS FOUND AT COVE

First Indication of Spring — Several Cove People Observe Anniversaries.

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin
(Observer Correspondent)

COVE, Ore. (Special)—The first indication of spring is in the air when the pussy willows begin to show their faces. Sunday Miss Frankie Pulp, of La Grande was visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bell and with Miss Roberta Bell went out in search of catkins, coming back an hour later with great bunches of the little gray, fuzzy things. This is the very first to be seen in this vicinity.

Some of the Cove sick people are on the mend while there are still some very sick cases.

Miss Bess Kelley who was taken to La Grande hospital last week is so far recovered that she has left the hospital and is staying with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee McClain are out again after an attack of flu.

Delmar Richards, small son of John Richards, is quite ill at his home here.

Mrs. Clarence Richards was taken to the hospital in La Grande early Sunday morning for a mastoid operation.

Mrs. C. W. Clark was taken to the hospital Saturday where she received theatment for both sinus and mastoid trouble.

Mrs. Al Puckett is quite ill at her home here.

Cal Underwood, a brother of Mrs. T. C. Hefty, came over from La Grande to visit at the Hefty home Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Underwood left here a few weeks ago to go to Pendleton where he expected to do some construction work for the railroad, but due to the cold weather this work was delayed and he is now working in La Grande for the Jones and DeGreeve company.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Puckett and two children and Mrs. Puckett's mother, Mrs. Mary H. Geer were in Cove Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Puckett visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Puckett and Mrs. Geer was a guest at the home of Mrs. A. G. Conklin.

It will be of interest to Cove people to know that a baby son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Landers at the family home in La Grande Tuesday Feb. 4. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Many birthdays have been celebrated here within the last few days. Two boys, Vernon Goodell and Leiley Wilson claim their nativity on Lindbergh's birthday anniversary, Feb. 4. Two birthdays were celebrated last Sunday at the Stackland home with a family party. K. J. Stackland Sr.'s birthday anniversary came the last of January and Karl Jr.'s fell on Feb. 5. Guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Anderson, Thelma, Logan and Conrad Anderson, G. G. Stackland, E. E. Miller, Rodney Miller and Miss Bernice Via. Mrs. George McDaniel observes Feb. 9 but this year is quite ill and failed to really celebrate. Tuesday Feb. 11 is the birthday of Mrs. Nellie Grace whose birthday is most worthy of all to be mentioned as this year she reaches the 86th milestone. Most of these years she has spent in serving the public as school teacher, newspaper woman and librarian. In connection with her library work now she still does newspaper work but her most important wok now is getting in shape and ready for publication the poems of her late sister, Miss Ida Roberts. She is working early and late at this and she says that it will be ready by fall. This is to her a labor of love but she very conscientiously spends her allotted two days each week at the library. Despite her 86 summers and quite as many winters, she walks to the library, builds a little fire and on days when a little snow has fallen, sweeps the walk and then gets ready for business. Mrs. Grace has won a warm place in the hearts of the entire community of Cove and it is hoped that each added year will bring her greater joy and continue her years of usefulness.

A meeting of the library board was held at the library Tuesday afternoon.

The Sewing club girls met with Miss Jessie Mrs. Charles Hancock Tuesday afternoon. They are taking greater interest in the work this year than the club has ever before done.

The Camp Fire girls met Wednesday evening with Mrs. K. LaViolette. One new member, Velma Mae Richards, has been added to the roll. The girls have chosen sides and are staging a contest as to who will win the most honors in the next three months. Miss Dorothy Barker and Miss Lois Conley are leaders.

The basketball teams have three games scheduled for this week. Monday the boys played Elgin, Wednesday the girls play the Sacred Heart academy and Friday both boys and girls play North Powder teams.

The Mt. Fannie grange held its monthly meeting at the hall Saturday evening. During the business meeting there was a discussion of pending legislation bearing on farm problems. This was led by Ray Duncan as a member of the legislative committee. R. S. Comstock as a member of the agricultural committee gave an interesting report, touching on the recent economic conference and the significance of the present low prices of dairy products. As business agent, Mr. Comstock gave a report on grange insurance and said that there was $51,000 invested in grange insurance in this community, and he also explained why there was an extra assessment in the grange fire insurance this year. The forest fire during the autumn season hit a farm community in Clackamas county wiping out several thousands of dollars worth of good farm buildings. This was a grange community with farmers well insured. A letter expressing the approval by Mt. Fannie grange of the national grange's support of the debenture plan was sent to Representative R. R. Butler. The next meeting will be held on the evening of Mar. 1. All grangers are urged to be present as business of importance is to come up.

Wallace Simmons, Lester Boerkgren and Raymond Breshears, three boys who took the eighth grade examinations a few weeks ago, have all received their diplomas.

The Dorcas society met with Mrs. Clarence Richards Thursday, Feb. 5. This was an all day meeting with a pot luck dinner. The following women were present, Mrs. Alice Allen, Mrs. Cummins, Mrs. Joseph Fisher, Mrs. Ben DeForde, Mrs. Edna Hartley, Ms. J. W. Hoatson, Mrs. Jim Hoatson, Mrs. M. Lorce, Mrs. Ted McClain, Mrs. B. W. Peterman, Mrs. Clarence Richards, Mrs. Ralph Puckett, Ms. C. A. Smith, Mrs. Claire Smith, Mrs. Helen Smith, Mrs. Margery Seagraves, Mrs. B. M. VanDonge and Mrs. R. D. White. Mrs. Lee Childers will be hostess at her home in Lower Cove in two weeks.

Mrs. C. E. Bertsch and Mrs. R. S. Comstock entertained the Ladies Guild Saturday afternoon, Feb. 8 at the home of Mrs. Bertsch. Bridge was planed at three tables, Mrs. Mills winning the high score and Mrs. Laird the low. A dainty lunch was served. The following ladies were present, Mrs. L. E. Anderson, Miss Thelma Anderson, Mrs. Lillian Allen, Mrs. T. C. Hefty, Mrs. C. B. Lawson, Mrs. L. M. Laird, Mrs. H. Lincoln, Mrs. J. E. Mills, Mrs. K. LaViolette, Mrs. J. B. Fletcher, Mrs. Louis Presto and Miss Bernice Via.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Laird, of La Grande, were Sunday visitors at the L. M. Laird home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Daniel entertained at a family dinner Sunday. The guests were Mrs. Bertha Proctor, Kenneth and Richard Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lay and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Miller.

AT FORTY MOST WOMEN

should be on the lookout for signs of gallstones

Doctors say women at forty who are inclined to be fleshy should watch out for Gallstones, Gall Bladder, Liver and Stomach Trouble. If you have pains in your side, around your liver, stomach or back, that is nature's warning. Give FRUITOLA a trial—don't wait. One dose often gives complete relief. For over twenty years FRUITOLA has been used by thousands of people, who praise its merit because it acts so quickly. For sale, recommended and guaranteed by Moon Drug Co., and other leading druggists. —Adv.
