to get her feet wet, she pulled them up and this movement thrust her head down, and she was dragged through the water for about 20 feet. The first words she said upon reaching shore were: "I always wanted to ride one of those cork-eyed things. Now I'm satisfied."

Watched Sails. While on the ship the passengers were amused part of the time watching some seals chasing salmon. The ship took a lot of pounding. Mr. Currey said, adding that it was beginning to show the results of the rough treatment at the time he was taken off. The boat was solid in the sand but the stern was free and was taking some heavy blows.

NAPHTHA BLAST IS FATAL TO 11; SCORES INJURED

both was called upon to augment the hospital staff. Priests, nuns and many Protestant clergymen went to the hospitals to help attend the victims.

Word of the accident rapidly reached the homes of the workmen and crowds of relatives rushed to the hospitals seeking husbands, fathers and sons. Difficulty was experienced learning the names of the victims and much confusion resulted as weeping women sought fratrically for their men folk.

Dr. Edward J. Rayne, who attended many of the injured at Elizabeth General hospital, said: "The condition of most of the men is critical," he said.

William Slaven, a mechanic, who came out of the alcohol plant unscathed said:

"It seemed as if flames were shooting out in long tongues all around me. Many of the tongues of flames acted freakishly as they followed the path of the alcohol fumes. The flames were on all sides of me. One sheet of flame was only ten feet from me. It left me untouched, but I saw it strike some other men."

James Capetincchio, a laborer employed on the new building, said he was wheeling a barrow of mortar when the explosion occurred. He said although he was 150 feet from the alcohol plant, he was hurled to the ground by the blast and found himself afire.

"I leaped up," he said, "and everybody around me looked as if they were dead. They were all on the ground. Then they began getting up. Most of them were on fire. They started running. There is a heavy wire fence around the building just there. Most of the men seemed unable to see. They couldn't find the gate to get out and they became panicky, bending at the fence and screaming like mad."

In addition to the burns suffered from the sheets of flame, many of the workmen on the new building suffered fractures and other injuries in falling from the scaffolds.

"FLAVOR THE FOOD!" URGE DOCTORS

No Need for Wholesome Foods to be Unpalatable

Doctors are not as severe regarding diet as they are often charged with being. To be sure they insist that wholesome foods be eaten and emphatically advocate a balanced diet. But they do not oppose making foods palatable.

In flavoring vegetables, or modifying the sharpness of certain fruits, doctors and dietitians recommend the use of sugar. A dash of sugar on cereal is also permitted. Such use of sugar increases the value of the wholesome, body-building nutrients in the food thus flavored.

A dash of sugar to a pinch of salt is a popular rule to follow in seasoning peas, carrots, spinach, and string beans. It is surprising how the sugar in this mixture maintains the delicious flavor these vegetables have when fresh-picked.

These suggestions regarding sugar apply to children's diet as well as adults'. Good food promotes health. Most foods are more delicious and nourishing with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

Trading Quieter Today In Fruit And Vegetables

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 19 (AP)—Although supplies continue in excess of demand, butter and egg prices were unchanged in the Portland market Wednesday. However, values were barely steady.

Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the United States department of agriculture says: "After the active fruit and vegetable movement characterizing the first half of February, the present trading in these commodities is considerably quieter."

"Cauliflower, lettuce and spinach are weaker, with larger supplies available. Movement of rhubarb and cantaloupe continues dull."

"California asparagus, which sold last week as high as 80c per lb., down to 20c per lb. by retailers, and further declines are expected soon."

"The potato market remains unchanged at Portland. Yakima growers are having difficulty in loading on account of muddy roads, resulting in lighter movement from that district; and cold weather and blizzards in central and eastern U. S. producing difficulties are making for lighter total loadings. These factors are not affecting the market at Portland, however."

Ramon Novarro Proves His Voice is Success

People who have been wondering what Ramon Novarro's speaking voice is like may now satisfy their curiosity with the showing of Novarro's first all-talking musical romance, "Devil-May-Care," at the State theater with a cast

DOROTHY JORDAN and RAMON NOVARRA in 'DEVIL MAY CARE' containing Dorothy Jordan, Marion Harris John Miljan and others.

Novarro, who gave everyone a pleasant little shock in his recent picture "The Pagan," when he sang "The Pagan Love Song" is a trained tenor voice; offers moviegoers a second surprise in his speaking voice which is admirably suited to megaphone requirements.
