Churches To Pay Tribute To The First President

Washington's Birthday Anniversary to be Remembered in Many Services Sunday.

The name of Washington, adding new lustre to humanity, responds to the remotest regions of the earth. Magnanimous in youth, glorious through life, great in death, his highest ambition was the happiness of mankind. He has bequeathed to posterity the responsibility of citizenship, love for and obedience to law," declares the Rev. J. George Walls, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The minister will speak on "Christian Citizenship" at the Sunday morning 11:00 o'clock hour. The Ladies Triad choir, Mrs. A. L. Richardson directing, and Mrs. Harley Richardson at the organ, will sing a special anthem. Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp Jr., will sing the contra-tenor solo "The Living God" by O'Hara.

The evening sermon at 7:30 o'clock will deal with "The Adventure of Epaphroditus," carrying deep meaning to young life. The Junior choir, directed by E. E. Hurley, will sing the anthem "Rejoice, The Lord is King," by Shackley.

The Sunday Bible school meets each Sunday morning at 9:45, and Christian Endeavor at 6:30 in the evening.

First M. E. Church
The general theme of our Sunday morning services is Preparation for Pentecost. The subject for next Sunday's worship hour

(11 a. m.) is "Earnest Expectation." Immediately following the regular Epworth devotional meeting the pastor gives the second study on Ince Relationships at 7:30 p. m. "Everybody is welcome."

Baptist Church
At the Baptist church Sunday morning the theme will be "The Bible That Jesus Used." For the evening service, the theme will be "The First Commandment." The topic for the young people's meeting will be "The Value of the Bible for Non-Christian Nations." Leader, Edworth Stewart. The meeting of the Ladies' society will be at the home of Mrs. Sidney Happersett, 1503 Seventh St., Friday afternoon at 2:00. Mrs. H. R. Colford will be the leader of the lesson study. The W. W. G. will meet Monday evening at the parsonage at 6:00 for a potluck supper following which the regular missionary program will be given. Miss Grace Hodden, leader. Next Thursday evening is the time for the regular monthly business meeting of the church. Hours for services: Bible school, 9:45; morning worship, 11:00; B. Y. P. U., 6:30; evening worship, 7:30; prayer meeting, 7:30.

Episcopal Church
Services Sunday open at St. Peter's Episcopal church at 9:45 with church school. Morning prayer is at 11 o'clock with Mrs. H. N. Ashby at the organ. An anthem will be sung by the choir and Mrs. Leo Miller will present a solo. The rector's sermon subject will be "Being Driven Away." The meditation is a Lenten preparation. All are welcome. "Our own people are urged to begin their preparations for Lent and attend these devotions," the rector says.

English Lutheran Church
The Sunday morning worship at the English Lutheran church is at 11 o'clock, when the pastor will deliver the sermon "Wisdomness of Obedience." The choir will sing the anthem "My Lord Thy Will Be Done." Church school is at 9:45 with a period of worship followed by graded instruction. A final report will be made on the membership contest.

M. E. Church, South
The Rev. H. S. Shangle of Milton, Ore., will preach at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday night. Mr. Shangle will come as representative of the board of missions and the joint board of finances of the church.

Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock the pastor will read and expound the "General Rules" of the church. Everybody of Methodism throughout the whole world have the same general rules without exception. The church law requires that these rules be read in every congregation at least once each year. The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m. and the League (young people) at 6:30 p. m. The league will give a program in honor of Washington's and Lincoln's birthday at the church Friday night this week, to which all young people, and all others, are invited. The prayer meeting will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The church invites all who will to attend all its services.

First Church of Christ, Scientist
Services will be held Sunday at 11 a. m. and 4 p. m. in First Church of Christ, Scientist, at First and Washington streets.

"Mind" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on February 24. The Golden Text will be, "Who hath known the mind of the Lord that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ." (I Cor., 2:15).

Among the citations which will comprise the Lesson-Sermon will be the following from the Bible: "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." (Phil. 2:5). The Lesson-Sermon will also include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Let us accept Science, relinquish all theories based on senses—testimony, give up imperfect models and illusive ideals; and so let us have one God, one Mind, and that one perfect, producing His own models of excellence." (p. 245).

Sunday school is held at 9:45 for children up to the age of twenty years.

The Wednesday evening meeting which includes testimonies of healing is at 8 o'clock. The reading room in the West-Jacobson building is open every day except Sundays and legal holidays from one to 4:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend the church services and visit and use the reading room.

Church of God
Sunday school will begin at 10 a. m. and will be followed by the morning service at 11 o'clock at the Church of God on Sunday. The sermon subject will be "A Pure Heart." The evening service will begin at 7:30, and will include a Bible reading on the subject of "Courage." Members are urged to bring their Bibles. All are welcome to attend.

Gospel Mission
Evening services of Evangelism at the Gospel Mission on Sunday at 7:30 p. m. will find the pastor speaking on "Startling Revelations of the Prophecies of God's Word Being Fulfilled Before Our Very Eyes." Sunday school, with classes for all, is at 9:45 a. m. and morning worship at 11 o'clock. Weekday services will be held Friday at 7:45 p. m.

WILL FOLLOW OPERA CO.
NEW YORK (AP)—Having inherited $1,000,000, Joseph Horowitz, court interpreter, intends to take a month's vacation and follow a German opera company from Indianapolis to California. Long a lover of opera, he has walked miles in order to save carfare and buy seats in the gallery of the Metropolitan opera house.

Meat products turned out by California packers in 1929 were valued at $125,000,000.

WINNOWINGS

The Rev. H. S. Shangle, of Milton, representative of the board of missions and the joint board of finance of the church, will speak at the South M. E. church here Sunday night.

Churches and church societies in general are observing the birthday anniversary of George Washington, first president, this weekend.

The Church of the Air program, from KNX, from 4 to 5 p. m. Sunday, may be heard at 1023 B avenue. John Matthews is minister of this radio program.

Next Thursday evening is the time for the regular monthly business meeting of the First Baptist church.

E. G. Cameron Is Laid To Rest In Union Cemetery

By Mrs. L. Z. Terral
UNION (Special)—Funeral services for Ephraim G. Cameron were conducted from the Cook undertaking parlors Wednesday afternoon with the Rev. R. C. Lee officiating. Mr. Cameron was born near DeWitt, Iowa, January 5, 1852 and at the age of nine made the trek across the plains and mountains to California with his parents. For sometime they lived in the southern part of Oregon but were harassed by attacks from the Modoc Indians and finally moved northward to Vancouver, Wash. He was married January 7, 1892 to Catherine Reeves and in 1899 they moved to Union. For a few years he conducted a harness shop, later buying a farm on Little creek, where he lived until last fall. His health had been failing for some time and death came from an acute heart attack. He leaves his widow, three brothers and one sister and several nephews and nieces. For several years he was a member of the Woodmen of the World but his policy had lapsed. He had been a member of the Christian church for a good many years. One brother, A. E. Cameron, of Eugene, and a nephew, Clinton Cameron, of Portland, came up for the funeral.

Mrs. Caroline Neff, of Salt Lake City, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Atkinson, for sometime is very ill and has been taken to Hot Lake for treatment.

Jim Nelson is reported very ill at his home north of Union, and relatives have been summoned to his bedside. Mrs. Nelson who was ill a couple of weeks ago is slowly improving.

The Commercial club held its annual community dinner and program Tuesday evening with a large crowd in attendance. The Union hotel served one of its excellent meals after which the crowd adjourned to the assembly room for the program. The girls' quartet composed of Vallie and Nell Geertz, Miss Eula Clark and Leona Spray, accompanied by Miss Hulha gave two selections. Mrs. Helene Stearns sang a solo and Louene Hutchinson entertained with some graceful dancing. The Rev. R. C. Lee gave a fine talk on the value of community spirit. The music for the dance that followed was furnished by Miss Eula Clark, Nellie Geertz and Ed Caster.

Charles Miller, who went to Portland before Christmas returned Saturday evening accompanied by his daughter, Grace Miller and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tudor, who will visit here for a time. Mrs. Tudor is also a daughter.

Louis Conley underwent an adenoid operation at La Grande yesterday.

Only two members of the K. P. lodge attended the convention in La Grande Tuesday evening: Ben Stundahl and L. C. Deby.

Bill Cooper returned this week from a six months sojourn in his native land, Scotland. As yet there are no details of the trip excepting that he has in his possession a new derby that is the envy of some of his good friends.

John Green went to Baker the first of the week to attend a meeting of the agents of the insurance company that he represents.

After a spending two years in South Union Mr. and Mrs. Alva Dodson are moving to a farm near Tolocant.

The small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cille Green hurt her face in a fall last week and a painful abscess developed. She was taken to La Grande for treatment, and has to take daily trips to have it dressed.

WOMAN'S DESERT FLORA WINS HONORS IN ENGLAND

PASADENA, CAL. (AP)—The Royal Horticultural society of England has expressed its official appreciation to Mrs. A. Sherman Hoyt of her gift of a collection of California cacti and desert plants to Kew Gardens, London.

Regarded as one of the world's foremost authorities on desert flora, Mrs. Hoyt exhibited the collection at the society's Chelsea show last spring and was awarded a gold medal and an honorary life membership. This was the first time the Royal Horticultural society ever bestowed such honors on a woman.

Most of her collection, which numbers more than 150 plants, was gathered in Death Valley, with some coming from various California arid areas and deserts.

Spain "Goes Skyscraper"
BARCELONA, Spain (AP)—There has been a boom in skyscraper building in Spain. To the Spanish mind, a tall building is one that rears 10 or 12 stories, reports Everett D. Hester, U. S. trade commissioner.

EXPLORE TIN'S USES
WASHINGTON (AP)—Establishing further uses for tin to stimulate the industry's output is the purpose of research to be conducted this year by the American manufacturers in cooperation with British industry.

Italy exported 12,182 motor vehicles, of a total valuation of $14,743,320 during the first nine months of 1929.

Would you be willing to use, "As is," this recipe for Rhubarb Pie?

Cut rhubarb into inch lengths to make a quart, and place in the lower crust in the pie tin. Sprinkle a mixture of 2 tablespoonsful cornstarch and pinch of salt over the rhubarb. Cover with a top crust and bake at 450° for about 15 minutes. Finish at 350°.

Rhubarb pie without sugar! Imagine it. Yet you would have such a pie, in all its sourness, if you used this recipe. Two cups of sugar are needed.

Many meals served today in countless homes are unpalatable and lacking in enjoyment because sugar has been left out. Vegetables are flat, fruits are sour and cereals tasteless. Try a dash of sugar on these most essential foods and see how much better they taste.

Sugar on protective foods makes them a pleasing carrier of the roughage, mineral salts and vitamins they contain. It does not change in any way their delicate, valuable elements.

Think of this as you plan your meals. Make meals not only nourishing, but pleasant, with sugar. The Sugar Institute.
