

ODDS FIVE TO ONE ON SHARKEY

Preliminaries in Miami Bout Attract Most of Crowd Promoters Say.

By Alvin Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor) MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 26 (AP)—The sixty-six-ton whale that has been on exhibition since yesterday as an attraction to a mere ton of heavyweight. With not a great deal more to be said about the proceedings, even by the ubiquitous manager of Phil Scott, ten assorted big fellows of the ring, collected from five countries but representing eight nationalities altogether, will be tossed into the arena tomorrow evening in the second annual Battle of the Island. They will be put on view by the Madison Square Garden corporation, in winter headquarters here, for the edification of the social aristocrats of the Florida winter colonies and others who may have been persuaded by the blamy air of the region to pay from $5.49 to $25 for a peek at the fat-

Most of those who motor out to the wooden arena on the outskirts of town expect to see the American, Jack Sharkey, flatten the British heavyweight hope, pale and gauntling Phil Scott, in a main event that is billed for 15 rounds and not expected to go beyond three or four by a substantial number of experts. If the show is a financial and athletic success, it probably will be in spite of the main event, which has developed insufficient interest or rivalry to promote much publicity.

Other Bouts Attractive

On the other hand, an extraordinarily attractive card of five international bouts has drawn a big influx of the faithful. The semi-final bout between the 230 pound Argentine, Victorio Campolo, and rubbery John Risko of Cleveland, has aroused keen speculation, with the South American, rating a slight favorite. Other uncertainty is expected from the bouts pitting Tommy Longman, former light heavyweight champion, against the hard hitting Belgian, Pierre Charles, and Jimmy Maloney, the Boston veteran, against free swinging Mike Bonquillon of France.

There are at least a half dozen present and former contenders for high heavyweight honors on the card, though the principal significance is attached to the main bout. The Sharkey-Scott match is one of the best of the long-dead-out series of heavyweight eliminations, the winner of which is slated to box Max Schmeling of Germany for the world's championship at New York in June.

The prospects today were that a crowd of between 25,000 and 35,000 will pay upwards of $200,

000 to witness the show. Frank J. Bruen, general manager of Madison Square Garden, and his box office experts were optimistic that the gate would pass $200,000. This would insure a substantial profit. There was no chance whatever of a sell-out, which would mean an attendance of 52,000 and receipts of more than $500,000. Last year's show drew 30,000 fans and a gate of $407,000.

THOMPSON RENOMINATED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—Included in the list of postmaster nominations transmitted to the senate today by President Hoover was Thomas Thompson, Pendleton, Ore.

Only One Rookie Southpaw With The Athletics

PORT MYERS, Fla., Feb. 26 (AP)—Despite Connie Mack's liking for left handed pitchers, there is only one rookie southpaw in the year's squad of boxmen working out with the champion Athletics.

Alfred Mahon, a semi-pro from Nebraska. Available literature on Mahon states that he is 29 years old, stands 5 feet 11 inches, weighs 175 and in one of his final high school games struck out 25 opponents in 15 innings.

Photographed for the Athletics beside Ehmanke and Rommel while they unwound easy pitches to Mickey Cochrane, Mack said:

"On my right is Ehmanke, the pitcher who won the first game of the world series with Chicago. Besides myself apparently only one other man in the country picked Ehmanke to pitch the first game and moreover win it. That was a man in Texas who bet $400 to $4000 that Ehmanke would pitch and win the first game. That fellow collected as everybody knows. The other pitcher is Eddie Rommel, the boy wonder, who pitched in the seventh inning of the fourth game and received credit for the victory. He tells me he will pitch more than one time in the next series."

Giants Should Finish One-Two McGraw Thinks

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 26 (AP)—John McGraw thinks his New York Giants should finish one-two in the 1930 National League pennant race.

The "Little Napoleon," on his first day in the Giants' spring training camp, prefaced his prediction with the statement that his club "should have won the pennant in 1929."

"The man power was there," he explained. "Circumstances over which no one has control were responsible for the Giants not being in the series. This year's club looks better than ever. It is further advanced than I expected."

Take No Action Against Motorist

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 26 (AP)—Police announced today no action probably would be taken against C. L. Wright, Portland motorist, whose automobile struck and killed A. P. Fulkerson, 55, Portland, last night on the outskirts of the city.

Wright told officers he was shifting from intermediate into high when Fulkerson stepped out on the highway from another machine.

SEED LOAN APPROPRIATION PASSED BY THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—The $7,000,000 seed loan appropriation for farmers in storm stricken areas, was passed by the senate today and sent to President Hoover. Chairman McNary of the senate agriculture committee in discussing the wheat situation outside of the senate chamber expressed a personal belief today that congress, if asked, would aid the farmers National Grain corporation in the present wheat situation.

Correct

A teacher in one of the fashionable Westchester schools in ordinary routine requested that the child be put on a card certain information which included the occupation of the father. This particular thirteen-year-old boy put down "Expression," which caused a question on the part of the mentor because of the general type of children who went to the school. Taking it up further it was found that this particular lad was the son of the president of the American Express company.—Forbes Magazine.

Ancient Civilizations

Recent excavations in Mexico and other parts of Central America have led scientists to believe that possibly there were extinct in that part of the world civilizations older than those of China and similar nations. At Calumet, Mexico, excavations revealed a temple and some skeletons which indicate that it was probably constructed nearly 8,000 years ago.

Conservatism

Men are conservative, when they are least vigorous, or when they are most luxurious. They are conservative after dinner, or before taking their rest; when they are sick or aged; in the morning, or when their intellect or their conscience have been aroused, when they hunt music, or when they read poetry, they are radicals.—Barnson.

Hard to Receive Balls From Plane

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 25 (AP)—The New York Yankee catching staff has one consolation—none of the tons of the 1930 season will be as hard to snare as are baseballs dropped from an airplane.

All of the club's receivers, Bonough, Dickey, Hargrave, Jorgens and Karlow, tried their hand at this interesting pastime yesterday. An airplane flew 350 feet above camp and its passenger tossed out baseballs while the catchers took turns trying to catch them, not one was caught.

MANDELL SLIGHT FAVORITE

CHICAGO, Feb. 26 (AP)—Although defeated in his last fight with Jimmy McLarnin, Vancouver, B. C., welterweight, Sammy Mandell today was a mild favorite to win their third encounter Saturday night at the Chicago stadium.

The boys who supported Mandell when he was outboxed by the baby-faced Irishman at the stadium last fall, still think Mandell, when "right" can beat McLarnin as he did in New York a year ago last summer.
