Cove M. E. Aid Celebrates Its 32nd Birthday

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent)

LA GRANDE, Ore. (Special)—The 32nd anniversary of the organization of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church was celebrated at the church parlors, Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 28. This society was organized Feb. 27, 1898, but this year was celebrated Feb. 28, because of so much illness here there were only a few women present. A delightful lunch was served, a business meeting held and the afternoon was spent at games and visiting. The women present were Mrs. Harlan Koger, Mrs. Eleanor Towle, Mrs. Roy Baker, Mrs. A. E. Hartley, Mrs. Kenneth LaViolette, Mrs. M. Dierker, Mrs. K. J. Blackland, Mrs. Wesley Smith, Mrs. L. M. Lantz, Mrs. J. P. Doan, Mrs. George McDonald, Mrs. A. Sills and Mrs. D. Brothers.

A baby son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Barret Pulp at the Wonderlick hospital Wednesday, Feb. 26. The infant lived but six hours. A Caesarian operation was necessary and the babe seemed to be getting along nicely but was apparently too frail. It is reported that Mrs. Pulp was reported to be doing well, according to the latest information.

M. R. Conklin and his mother, Mrs. A. G. Conklin and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Antles were in Baker Wednesday where they visited Mrs. T. M. Conklin and her baby daughter, Charles Gale at the St. Elizabeth hospital.

The five highest in each of the seventh and eighth grades in the last examinations were: eighth grade, Charles Fisher, Lloyd Mills, Orville Richards, Robert Duncan, Conrad Anderson and in the seventh, Lloyd Murehison, Maxine Towle, Bessie Gohy, Robert Clark and Willie Neiger.

M. A. Sayre, county school superintendent, presented certificates of honor to the Cove pupils for their 100 days. The 24th and 25th grade pupils who received the awards were Kathleen Constock, Phyllis Hancock, Velma Mae Richards, Helen Lloyd, Van Robinson and Lewis Holmback.

A. E. Hartley, who was severely injured by his Holstein bull a few weeks ago, is able to be about again although he is still feeling the effects of the injury. He has now sold the animal to the butcher.

Mrs. W. A. Winters was called to La Grande by the illness of her daughter.

One of the most prominent dairymen in this vicinity is Joe Fisher who has 75 milk cows and is now milking 95. He uses five milking machines and it takes just one hour and 10 minutes to do the work. He has a barn 175 feet long where he houses his 65 cows. He owns about 300 acres about a mile west of town where he has splendid pasturage and puts up many tons of hay. He does not use alfalfa as many dairymen in this section do.

EXPLOSIVE SERVICES

THOMPSON, Feb. 28 (AP)—All churches in Rome today held explosive services because of accidents committed during the night at the church of St. Mary major. Some one broke open the tabernacle, stole the gold chalice and threw the sacred particles of it into the street.

Weak Undertone In Egg, Butter Market Today

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 28 (AP)—Egg and butter quotations were unchanged today, but the undertone was weaker. Receipts have become larger, especially in eggs, and as a result storage of surplus is said to be under way. Many believe the bottom has been reached in eggs, while others expect still lower prices.

Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the United States department of agriculture says: "Roseburg cauliflower shipments are being delayed by cold weather, and carlot movement will not start in appreciable quantity until about March 3 or 10. Early cauliflower was mostly winter-killed in January, consequently, the entire Roseburg movement will be later than usual, with shipments probably continuing until April. Quality of next week's offerings is expected to be better than present shipments.

"Supplies of lettuce, celery, cauliflower, onions, and bunched vegetables are liberal, wide local distribution is being secured, and prices are within the reach of everyone. Apples, oranges, cabbage and potatoes are in only moderate supply, and markets are firm, for these commodities."

SPORT SLANTS

by ALAN J. GOULD

Lloyd Walter has just bought himself an airplane, which brings up the subject of the air-minded athlete. Perhaps the young Pirate outfielder got the idea from his pitching teammate, Joe Dawson, who is as much interested in the flying business as he is in baseball.

John McGraw, far from being reactionary on the subject, once remarked he believed that would develop use of planes in moving big league ball clubs around the circuit. This eventually seems a long way off. Should it materialize, the oft-discussed entry of some Pacific coast cities into the major leagues could be realized.

The Southeastern league, with Havana as a prospective member, went so far as to request authority for a compulsory flying class to be inserted in the player contracts. The magnates explained this was necessary in order to make the schedule connections in the Cuban capital. The idea was that a player who refused to fly would be subject to suspension but the national board of arbitration in minor league affairs promptly vetoed this proposal. As a result Havana failed to join the league.

Young Stripling is a licensed pilot, the most air-minded of all the boxers. Which recalls that the late Tex Rickard nearly collapsed in the Bellevue-Stratford hotel at Philadelphia the afternoon of the first Dempsey-Tunney fight when he learned Tunney was flying down from his St. Louis home, training camp. The idea of one-half of the main act in his $2,000,000 show being up in the air was too much for Richard, who never looked with favor on flying at any time. Richard, in fact, refused to believe it when I called him that day to break the news about Tunney.

"That's wrong, Tunney can't do that," yelled Tex.

Gene, incidentally, after a lumpy ride, felt almost as ill as Richard when he arrived at the Navy Yard field in South Philadelphia in a "ship" piloted by Casey Jones.

Tommy Hitchcock, America's polo ace, was in the flying service during the war. He was shot down behind the German lines. "It was a natural jump for Eddie Hickenbacker, leading American ace, to exchange auto-driving for flying during the big fracas. Harry Wilson, one of West Point's greatest football stars, has his wings now and flew over to Danville, Ill. last fall for a reunion with the Army team before its game with Illinois. Al Williams, speed ace of the U. S. Navy flying corps, was once a pitcher for the New York Giants.

Walled Arabian City

Suzra, a town in the desert of southwest Arabia, is surrounded by a thick wall of rubble and mud, some four miles about, with four principal gates and many towers, mostly in ruins. Within this storied Arabian city are 48 mosques. In the neighborhood of the Grand mosque, are the hipodromes who cut the beautiful Yemen stones of quartz and chlorophane known to the outside world.

Return Of Snow Fails To Daunt Ground Squirrel

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrall

UNION (Special)—The return of winter has given Union a sudden awakening from our pleasant dreams of springtime. While the sheepmen frown on this weather as a handicap to their work the farmers are rejoicing over the much needed even distribution of moisture over the country. The squirrels have not been daunted by the flurry of snow and with the white background they can be seen in great numbers over the fields and along the highway. If sportsmen care for small game they might derive much pleasure for themselves and materially aid the farmer by disposing of many of these rodents, local farmers say.

L. A. Wright was the only representative of the Commercial club at the meeting of the Lion's club Monday, during which Governor Stenbol was the honored guest. Mr. Wright was much impressed with the new governor, speaking especially of his progressive spirit and enthusiasm. On Tuesday night G. L. Hess, president of the commercial club, Merton Davis and C. L. Cadwell drove to Baker to attend the banquet and program arranged by the chamber of commerce to welcome Governor Nordblad.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Goldard of Portland have been visiting this week with Mrs. Anna Barber in North Union.

Charlie Record and his mother left Wednesday evening for Denver where he will demonstrate his new patent to be used in mining operations.

Dr. and Mrs. George Hoffman drove to Pendleton through a snow storm last Saturday. They said it was a beautiful drive though it was rather a hazardous trip requiring cautious driving.

Miss Lutha Hyder, Mrs. Seigle Chino and Merade Ballard attended the noon banquet at the La Grande hotel Tuesday and the conference following. This was the first of a series of conferences to be held by the West Coast Telephone company and its employees.

Nova recently appeared in the Cove items of the death of Edwin Vincent at La Pine, Oregon from heart trouble. Many Union people will remember him as the adopted son of his aunt, Mrs. James Hennings. He went to school in Union for several years. He leaves his widow and three children.

A small but enthusiastic group of Camp Fire girls met at the home of their leader, Mrs. George Hoffmann, Monday evening for their first ceremonial council. They were given their awards and Loda Cox won the most honors. The different parts of the candle lighting ceremony were given by Kathleen Conklin, Eileen Hess and Marion Boyles. After the business session some lively games were indulged in and refreshments served at an early hour.

Mrs. W. E. Green is visiting this week with her daughter, Mrs. Nichols in La Grande.

At the regular meeting of the Eastern Star Wednesday evening initiation services were held with Leonard (Tex) Knight as candidate. About forty members were present and the meeting proved one of the pleasant evenings of the year. The men who made up the service committee proved themselves masters of the situation and served a fine lunch cafeteria style. They forgot nothing in the way of service and were dressed as befitted their station. C. E. Lasson received many compliments for the cake that he baked for the occasion. Others on the committee were P. M. Little, L. Z. Terrall and Worth Halley.

The Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters had a social gathering at the hall last night. A fine luncheon was given at seven o'clock followed by roll call and a good program.

The county wide meeting of the Masonic lodges is to be held in Union tonight and local Masons are making plans to have the meeting a big success. The banquet is to be given at the Union hotel.

J. W. Lay and Wesley Adkins have just been awarded their contracts for another four years as mail carriers, beginning on July 1. Mr. Lay has the star route between Union and Telocast by way of The Park and Mr. Adkins carries the mail from Union Junction to Cove through Union.

Mrs. E. P. Colburn is recovering nicely after having an abscess lanced at the Grande Bend hospital last week. She is still unable to receive visitors.

The Rev. H. L. Patnam of the Christian church in La Grande is conducting evening services in the old Centennial hotel in Union.

WOOL REPORT

BOSTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin of Boston will say tomorrow:

"While the demand for fine wools has been somewhat less keen this week, prices are steadily maintained and are possibly a shade against the buyer, with the selection very much reduced. There has been some demand for half-blood and three-eighths qualities which are fairly steady while quarter-bloods are in light supply and firm on late demand.

"Foreign markets are hardly changed. Bradford is quiet, but there is fairly steady buying in Australia, with the best wools steady.

"In the west, the contest between the dealers and the national wool marketing corporation continues steadily with the latter signing up some of the cooperatives which previously have operated on their own account. Others have not elected as yet to join the national pool.

"There is some business in mohair at approximately 47-48 cents for original bag Texas and good type."

The Commercial Bulletin will print the following quotations: scored basis: Oregon: Fine and f. m. staple 78-77; fine and f. m. Fr. combing 70-75; fine and f. m. clothing 69-70; valley No. 1, 73-75.
