Legion Auxiliary Hostess at Cards And Kensington

A successful and delightful afternoon of cards and Kensington was enjoyed Saturday when the American Legion auxiliary entertained with a benefit at the Seaside Inn. Funds will go to the scholarship fund. Mrs. Hugh Brady was general chairman.

Thirty tables of cards were at play. Fourteen of which were bridge. Mrs. Melvin Larson won first prize at bridge. Mrs. Dale Cox second and Mrs. Andrew Loney third.

High tally at pinocle was made by Mrs. Minnie Bragg. The award for Kensington was won by Mrs. Robert Olson with about ten women participating. Mrs. J. T. Richardson was in charge.

Delicious refreshments were served later in the afternoon. Those assisting were Mrs. Brady, Mrs. Olin Palmer, Mrs. Merlyn Bailey, Mrs. Norman Deslet and Mrs. O. H. Maxian.

Burma Visitor Is Guest Of Honor

Mrs. J. J. Pearson received the guest prize. Rosebuds furnished a pretty decoration for the tables when a two course luncheon was served following cards. The club will meet again March 14 with Mrs. Blanch Gries.

Miss Hagana of Burma, was a guest at the meeting of the Mission Study class of the Women's society of the Baptist church, Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sydney Happersett. She told of her work as a missionary in India, relating some of her experiences. Miss Hagana is on her way to Mrs. W. P. McAdory on her recent trip around the world, and while here was Mrs. McAdory's house guest. Mrs. Fox and Mrs. Moore had charge of the program due to illness in Mrs. Colford's home.

Delicious refreshments were served later in the afternoon.

P-T. Association Hears Mr. Eakin

The parent-teacher association met Friday afternoon at Central school. The feature of the meeting was a lecture given by Robert Eakin, attorney, who formerly was a member of the school board. The theme of his speech was "Americanization and citizenship." Mr. Eakin is a man who has a broad vision of what education should really mean to the people, and through his close contact with the field of education and school needs, he has a human understanding of this important problem. He discussed generally the contribution of pioneer leaders to the basis of present education. Quoting a phrase from one of the state constitutions, he said, "Intelligence, morality and knowledge are necessary to any state, and school and education shall forever be encouraged." Mr. Eakin exhorted the Oregonians high standard and popularity as an information newspaper to the fact it sponsored many educational policies and published the right type of subject matter to be placed before the public, thus helping mold public opinion in the right direction.

"People seem to have a losing sense of values," Mr. Eakin commented. The question is do we place proper emphasis on the important things in life and education? The modern youth's hero is "Habe" Ruth. He is the great "hero" of the present day world. The speaker wondered whether the position of a college athletic coach was not being over emphasized, to the diminishing credit of the college president. He raised this question, also, "Are we turning out any better citizens than our pioneers did, considering the many educational facilities we possess now? Is our nation progressing, or has it reached its zenith and retrograding?" With all the lack of respect for law and other people's rights, we pause, and find the question is debatable, he added.

The last part of the speech consisted of a description of Lord Shaftesbury who was the outstanding man in England during the nineteenth century.

W. R. C. Observes 37th Anniversary

The thirty-seventh birthday anniversary of the Women's Relief Corps of La Grande was observed Saturday at their regular noon luncheon. This corps was organized March 1, 1893 with 29 charter members.

The Daughters of Union Veterans presented the organization with a large cake, beautifully decorated with pink flowers and pink candles, a candle for each member of the original group. Mrs. Jessie Nelson gave a brief history of the W. R. C. and as she called the roll of the charter members, Mrs. Laura Braden lighted a candle for each member. Mrs. Ray Baill, patriotic instructor of the daughters, made the cake.

Mrs. Anna Henry, Mrs. Mary C. McClelland, Mrs. Kittle Gray, Mrs. Anna Johnson, Mrs. Hanna Rogers, Mrs. Mary E. Reeves, Mrs. Susan Zuber, Mrs. Ada L. Erickson, Mrs. Ella Kitchon, Mrs. Jennie C. Hooper, Mrs. Mary D. Burke, Mrs. Aron Prescott, Mrs. Stella P. Keefe, Mrs. Elizabeth Deak, Mrs. Lydia Grandy, Mrs. Laura Cleaver, Mrs. Clara G. Brown, Mrs. Doris B. Scott, Mrs. Ida E. D. apply and Mrs. Elizabeth Bailey are the charter members, only five of whom are living, and Mrs. Lydia Grandy is the only one who is still a member of the corps.

A delightful program was presented, begun with the group singing of the "Star Spangled Banner." Frances Haggerson gave a reading, Vivian and Madeline Boyles presented a musical reading, "Angelina," accompanied by Mrs. Claude Wilcock at the piano, responding with an encore "Just Try Smiling." The flag salute was given.

Mrs. Minnie Nelson, Mrs. Della Lyons, Mrs. Jessie Peterson, Mrs. Mae Noyes, Mrs. K. E. Nye, Mrs. Frances Plank and Mrs. Ella Haggerson served the luncheon.

The business meeting following the luncheon was presided over by Mrs. Braden.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

Many housewives regard the artichoke which really is a flower quite beyond the average pocket-book and the ordinary skill to prepare.

There are two common varieties, the globe or French and the Jerusalem. The Jerusalem is a tuber and very different from the French artichoke, which really is a flower bud.

French artichokes are usually most plentiful in market when other fresh vegetables are scarce and high. They offer a delicious variety at a most opportune time, for they are very simple to prepare and serve, and often take the place of a green salad.

One artichoke is usually calculated as a "serving," although the globe may be halved or even quartered. They should be cooked whole and divided just before serving.

The center or "choke" is always removed before serving but is usually left in while cooking, for after it is cooked it pulls out easily. If removed before cooking, cut away with a sharp knife and the artichoke with a cord to keep its shape.

Choose fresh green globes from which a leaf will pull easily when marketing for artichokes, for they will be more tender and delicately flavored.

To prepare for cooking, wash through several waters and cut stem close to leaves. Pull off hard outer leaves and cut off top about 3-4 inch down. Let stand in cold water to cover after vinegar in the proportion of one tablespoon vinegar to one quart water has been added. Let stand one hour. Drain and cook in boiling salted water for 20 to 40 minutes. Drain and serve with Hollandaise sauce, melted butter or a hot mayonnaise.

Each leaf is pulled off with the fingers and dipped into the sauce and the soft part is eaten. The sauce is served in a separate individual dish or a thick sauce can be served on the side of the plate. The Italians cook artichokes with cheese and olive oil.

Italian Style Artichokes

Four small globes, 4 tablespoons grated cheese, 4 tablespoons oiled butter or olive oil.

Prepare artichokes by the rule given today and parboil fifteen minutes. Drain and arrange in a single layer in a buttered baking dish. Four over the oil and sprinkle with cheese. Cover and bake in a moderate oven for fifteen minutes. Serve with baking dish with segments of lemon.

Cold Weather Is Preventing Too Early Budding

By Mrs. L. E. Hill (Observer-Contributor)

ELGIN, Ore. (Special)—A snow storm began Tuesday evening and continued during the night and practically all day Wednesday. There has been no wind and it has not been unusually cold so it has caused but little inconvenience and may help by retarding the too early development of fruit buds.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brosius, of Sully, were guests at the Elgin Hill home on Wednesday evening. Dr. Brosius practiced in Elgin for several years, leaving here for Sandy about three years ago. They drove from there to La Grande last Monday and Mrs. Brosius will remain at Hot Lake for two weeks or more where she will take a course of treatments.

Mrs. L. E. Weber is spending a week at her home here. Mrs. Z. V. Witty is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scott, on Mount Pleasant, while Mrs. Weiss is at home.

The Women's club's next meeting will be held Thursday at Mrs. C. I. Hazen's home. This will be an especially interesting meeting since it is to be an afternoon affair when everyone is expected to bring an heirloom and give its history.

A large number of Elgin relatives attended the funeral of Mrs. Julia Tenbrook at North Powder Sunday. Among those who went from here were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haggard, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Long, Mrs. Pamela Long, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gawith, of Cricklet Flat, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fisher, of Indian creek, Mrs. Herbert Daron and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hallgarth.

Elgin has had two automobile accidents in the last week. Last Wednesday Ralph Miller had a head-on collision with another car on the highway east of the Jap Center farm. Both the cars were demolished. On Saturday morning in the very early hours a coupe containing young people returning from a dance in Wallawa county ran into a culvert at the Andrew Knight road turning off the highway west of Highland school house. The coupe was damaged beyond possibility of repair but the occupants were fortunate in escaping serious injury.

Paul Sadler has accepted a position at the local MacMure store. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Foster have returned from a trip to Southeastern Oregon and Caldwell and Webster, Idaho. The Fosters plan
