Elgin Receiving First Shipments Of Poison Grain

By Mrs. Hill
(Ore. Cor. Correspondent)
ELGIN (Special)—Spring shipments of poison grain prepared by the county agent are being received at the Hill hardware. It is estimated that by the use of this poison, thousands of bushels of grain have been saved. One estimate places the cash valuation as high as $4000.

Miss Margaret Hill, who teaches the Elgin Creek school, north of Summerville spent the weekend with her parents in Elgin.

Sheriff and Mrs. Jesse Hershers and family, of La Grande, were busy visiting with old friends here as well as attending to some official business.

Mrs. Katherine Zweifel, better known in Elgin as Grandina Zweifel, returned Saturday from a visit of several months duration with her daughter in New Meadows, Idaho. She made the trip from New Meadows to Weiser on last Monday came to La Grande Tuesday and spent the rest of the week with her son in La Grande coming to Elgin Saturday. She has not entirely recovered from her illness of the first part of the winter but shows a great improvement.

Miss Anna Cason who teaches the Willow Creek school spent the weekend at her home here. This is Miss Cason's second year at Willow Creek.

Mrs. Flora Elliot is having extensive alterations and improvements made in her new home recently purchased from J. W. Brown. New windows, new porch and a complete built-in kitchen are some of the changes being made. Tony Junkergow, a cabinet maker who years ago came to Elgin from Holland, has been away in other parts of Oregon. He is doing the work.

Harry McNabb, of Fish Twp. hill, drove to Portland last Tuesday. He plans to stay there for several days.

Mrs. Arch DeBole is again able to be down town following a very severe case of pneumonia.

George Fox, carpenter and decorator of La Grande, has been in Elgin for several days working at the home of his brother, Heber, who lives in the north part of town.

A carload of hand plaster has been recently sold to Elgin farmers during the last week. Several who tried it last season are so well pleased with the results that they are making more extensive applications this year.

Miss Evelyn Fisher who has been conducting a beauty shop in the Hing building, has left for a short stay at Harper, Ore. From there she plans to return to Elgin, her former home.

In a letter recently received from John Schmittle now in Alameda, Cal., he stated his intention to return to Oregon at the first opportunity. The family moved from Elgin several years ago, but are not satisfied with the eastern country and are anxious to return to the west.

George Harris, a resident of Elgin for many years, returned the first of this week, having spent the winter with relatives in Oklahoma.

Hoover Speaks To Boy Scouts

Jim Howard Tall, with a lifelong, open hearted devotion to boys, the first honorary president of the boy scouts would, had he known of it, insisted that your work should go forward.

"This occasion commemorates the twentieth anniversary of the boy scouts, and it is indeed in keeping with the true tribute of the great spirit whose name graced your first anniversary."

The boy, with his sister, the president said, in the most precious possession of the American home, "the problem of our times and the hope of the nation."

Tearing the boy scout movement one by which parents in a period of complex civilization might solve the problem of filling the leisure time of their sons, Mr. Hoover advised that the boy's leisure time should be given to directing his interests to constructive, joy instead of destructive, give.

Scout work, the president said, opened the portals of adventure for the boy, taught him the joys of nature, the value of discipline, sportsmanship and the democracy of play.
