Dillon Winner In Fight With Cerkan

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 12 (AP)—Piling up a lead with impressive ease and weakening his opponent with left jabs to a badly swollen eye, Harry Dillon, Winesap, beat George Cerkan, a 10-round decision over Duke Cerkan, 12 to 11. Dillon, bigger than last night, Cerkan delivered several telling blows in the middle of the early rounds. It was a fast bout.

BRAVES ARE OUT AFTER THE PUNCH

Bill McKechnie Starts Four-Year Contract with Campaign for Clouters.

By Alan Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor) ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Mar. 12 (AP)—Acting on the theory that he has everything to gain and nothing to lose, Gray-haired Bill McKechnie has begun his four-year term as manager of the Boston Braves by putting a premium on the old-fashioned wallop.

As a result of this policy of brute force in practice, the natives and tourists on the outskirts of Waterfront park have daily been sent scurrying to cover by the long-distance clouds of the 1930 crop of Braves. The club uniform, with the flaming emblem of an Indian in the center of the shirt, contributes to the terrifying effect of the boys from Boston, Beaverton, Oregon; Beaumont, Texas; and Cleveland, Pa.

Neither is McKechnie particular what position his players occupy, so long as they can hit. The star recruit in camp, big ringer Walter Berger, who hit forty home runs for Los Angeles in the Pacific coast league last season, came east as an outfielder but was shifted to first base.

Needle Good Catcher—What the club needs more than anything else at present is a first-string, capable catcher. A Spohrer, a knockout victim of Ari Kures during the winter, is willing to sell perhaps a little punch.

Bank Gowdy, bearing 40, probably can do a better job behind the bat than any backstop in camp but Hank's future is behind him.

With Berger slated for third and Hollins for second, McKechnie has two war-horses to complete his regular infield—the ubiquitous Rabbit Maravelli at short and George Sisler, still a great hitter and in the condition at first. The 31 year old Maravelli will start most of the games, even if Bob James finishes them. Sisler, even though 34, is not likely to experience difficulty keeping his job in competition with the clever-fielding Johnny Neun or the burlly Pat Flaherty, a slapper who played end with the New York football giants last year.

The pitching staff is well equipped with experienced talent of the right handed variety. In Bob Smith, Bruce Cunningham, Percy Jones, Ben Cantwell and Johnny Cooney, Cantwell has looked especially good. Two of the best new prospects are...

posters. Bob Brown, of Hull, Mass., who came up from semi-pro ranks, and Altona Smith of Seaside, Maine, purchased from Providence. The only pennant contender on hand is Ed Brand, 40, Tracy Hart, who pitched against the Yankees Saturday, may stick as a part timer.

HAD YOU KNOW THAT—

Frank (Gandy) Hogan, 200-pound Glendale catcher, established a new high jump record in San Antonio's 88. Anthony hit the other day... he put his hand on something heavy right after a lengthy discussion about matrimony. Those long-haired, far-eyesed, boisterous spiders... Hal Welch, York coach and son of the famous Ed Welch, is the image of his dad... his favorite topic of conversation is the great granddaddy "Big Ed" used to throw... The thicket's prime source so high after he smashed the Boston first home run that Coach Otto Miller bragged him off the job for the day... Boss McCarthy to learn for himself whether Gandy Hogan's arm was okay, took second base and requested the Bruin catcher to throw to him... Gandy threw four balls right over the sock... the first he hit McCarthy on the right wrist... the second hit him on the left one... and the next two pegs whizzed by the base so fast he didn't even touch them.

DOCKEY THE POSSIBLE

SEATTLE, Wash., Mar. 12 (AP)—With only six more games yet to be played this season, the Pacific coast hockey league race evolved into a possible tie between Vancouver and Portland for the 1930 championship when the latter trounced the Victoria Cubs, 2 to 0, here last night.
