Chats With Parents

CONFIDANTE
By Alice Judson Peate
From the day Hester was born her mother had fought an up-hill fight against illness, hard times and personal unhappiness, and to the little girl she poured out all her troubles.

By the time that she was six Hester knew entirely too much about bills and mortgages, the unreliability of men and human infirmities in general.

She was a queen over serious things who kept indoors and soberly helped her mother dry the dishes and dust the furniture. She never tore a hole in her stocking climbing over a neighbor's fence or took apples from the pantry shelf. She spoke little and what went on behind her eyes could only be guessed, but it is likely that her thoughts were not the usual thoughts of childhood.

Unhappy parents have no business taking their children into their confidence. The problems of grown ups have nothing to do with reality as they touch the child's small world. His parents owe him the fundamental security of love and world, the problems of growing up, protection and a stable home. Good are enough for any child.

"THE SHADOW

which pursues us all"
(John Greenleaf Whittier, 1807-1892)

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence, if you would maintain the modern figure of fashion

Women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—men who would keep that trim, proper form, eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky Strike instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain the lithe, youthful, modern figure.

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette a man ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough.

*Be Moderate! . . . Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.
