Old Trees Are Being Removed; To Plant More

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrill (Observer Correspondent)

UNION (Special)—An uneasiness for the coming of spring is in evidence about town. Several are expressing this unrest by pulling up trees that have apparently outlived their usefulness to make room for a newer and more profitable generation. In South Union John Green and Frank Reber are taking out their apple trees and will replace them with orchards to serve the family needs. Mr. Brooks is planning to replace the old fruit trees on the Glover place with cherry trees for commercial purposes. Others who have taken out fruit trees are the Rosewells, and Roy Wheeler on the place purchased from Dr. Gilmore. Dora Hutchison is having her old prune orchard on the Cove road converted into a cherry and pear orchard. She plans to have 700 cherry trees of the Bing and Royal Anne varieties and 200 pears set out within the next few weeks.

Several members of the Woman's club sponsored a dance Friday night to entertain tournament visitors and others. A large crowd attended and passed a very pleasant evening. The following evening Mr. and Mrs. Tex Knight and Dr. and Mrs. George Hoffman took charge of the regular Saturday night dance for the young people and are being well attended.

The Misses Ariadean Johnson and Marva Lyman came over from La Grande Friday to attend the tournament and visit at the Geortson home. They returned Sunday morning.

Mrs. Alex Slater and her daughter, Mrs. Thora Green, left for Portland Saturday. Mrs. Slater plans to visit her daughters there and in Seattle before returning to Union. Mrs. Green plans to remain in Portland for sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Miller and family and Mrs. Emma Green, of Tacoma, who is visiting them this week, were invited to a dinner celebrating the birthday of Gearhart Stackland at Cove on Sunday.

Vivian Smith who came from Boise to attend the tournament is remaining a few days to visit her father, Ralph Smith, and Union friends.

Del Irvin has been doing chores for Don Gale while the latter has been recovering from the effects of having a tooth extracted. After attending the tournament Mrs. Cora Bloom, of Cove, remained over to spend a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Don Gale.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McConnell spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday visiting at the Winship home. After visiting several days with Dr. and Mrs. Merrill at Boise, Mrs. Louis Bideler returned home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay deMillan returned over from La Grande to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Cline. Their daughter, Doris, returned home with them in the evening after taking in the tournament and spending the weekend with Lois Cline.

Eldon Hibbert is spending a few days this week in Portland. Mrs. Orr Cline enjoyed a visit with her cousin, Neldon Holmes, of Salt Lake City, one day last week. He went on to Portland to visit Elmer Binham who will have to remain in the hospital a couple of months longer, following an operation on his spine, sometimes ago.

The steelheads over in the Wallowa river refused to nibble Sunday but J. E. Hutchinson and son, Ted, enjoyed their day's outing nevertheless.

Mrs. Bideler left Sunday evening for Kennewick, Wash., where she will visit her sister for some time.

Mrs. Sarah Casper was a Union visitor on Monday. Max Jensen, who was in quarantine for diphtheria, is out again. He came home from Sumpter to recuperate from the outbreak.

Under the influence of the fresh spring air the minister had said in his Sunday sermon, "In each blade of grass there is a sermon."

Not long afterwards, Mr. Knackow, who disliked the minister's long sermons, happened just the passage while the parson was mowing the lawn.

"Ah," said Mr. Knackow, his face beaming with pleasure, "I am glad to see that you are engaged in cutting your sermons short."

LET'S SEE NOW: A ROE, A SPADE, A RAKE, 8 PACKAGES OF SEED AND—OH, YES, A BACK PLASTER!

Boxing instructor (after first lesson)—Now, have you any questions to ask?
Beginner (dazed)—Yes; how much in your correspondence course?

It seems quite possible to educate for the intelligence out of a person.
First Mother (reading letter from collegiate son)—Dick's letters always send me to the dictionary.
Second Mother (triumphantly)—My Tom's letters always send me to the bank.

Some men are born peculiar and some cultivate sideburns themselves.

Lawyer (to witness in railway accident)—Did you take any precaution before you crossed the track?

Witness—Just a little, not more than two or three swallows.

WHAT A QUIET WORLD IT WOULD BE IF THOSE WHO HAD NOTHING TO SAY REMAINED SILENT.

A night hawk catches lots of chickens.

Boxing instructor (after first lesson)—Now, have you any questions to ask?

Poultry School To Be At Imbler

By Mrs. C. M. Hale (Observer Correspondent)

IMBLER (Special)—Prof. Dan Stewart, of the Imbler High school will be in charge of another poultry school to open at Allot post Monday working jointly with county agent, Harry G. Avery. The school will follow the plan which Mr. Stewart used in the successful course here a few months ago.

If Reed of Blgin, was in town on Business Monday. He says he does not expect to start his sawmill at Blgin until about the first of May.

C. M. Hale has been busy plowing a few gardens in town. Very few have yet planted any, while a few have put in some early stuff.

Kay West has rented the Leo Stein property and expects to raise a large garden this year.
