THE SPIRIT, NOT THE LETTER—He is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; but he is a Jew which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.—Romans 2:28, 29.

Numerous prominent persons have testified before the prohibition hearing at Washington to the effect that young people drink less than they did twelve years ago. That's encouraging, but what the country needs is a suggestion on how to make the drink less than they do now.

The lumber tariff will be a big benefit to manufacturers who have been in competition with Canadian and Soviet mills. It will not be received so happily by interests who operate mills on both sides of the line and look to this country for a profitable market. That has been one of the troubles in the past—the lumbermen could not agree on a definite tariff program. And when the duty was voted down in the senate previously some lumber politicians in western Oregon started out to get Senator McNary's scalp. The tariff now voted puts a crimp in that opposition. It will help the industry and it will help McNary in the coming election—both of them being deserving.

The state chamber of commerce has just issued a new "Oregon" booklet extremely attractive in appearance and better than average in copy content. Each county receives a page of space on which are printed various facts of interest to prospective new residents. As is usually the case, some mistakes have been made, some antiquated information included. In the front of the book a state map shows the annual rainfall of various sections, with Union county presented again as an arid area with "less than 15 inches." Yet on the page devoted to Union county the rainfall is listed as 20 inches annually. And under "Main Crops" we learn that beets are very important in this valley. Well, such are the tribulations of chambers of commerce. The book as a whole is a good piece of advertising literature. It cannot, due to lack of space, be specific in the presentation of crop costs and crop profits as might be desired by a prospective settler. Unfortunately this specific information is not usually presented in county literature, either, and the prospect must come and investigate for himself.

CITY PEOPLE

Establishment in a New York municipal hospital of a department of free plastic surgery suggested to a Canadian editorial writer that perhaps it is a waste of public funds to spend millions for monumental buildings and beautiful parks only to have them disfigured and marred by association with human beings nature has seen fit to mold in ugly patterns.

It is true that life in the city is made less pleasant and beautiful by the human derelicts and monstrosities attracted there and that more handsome features would heighten the joys of routine existence.

But wouldn't that be wasted money also without a little "brain surgery" to beautify the urban intellect? While it is true that beautiful parks and public buildings and handsome faces help to elevate the mind, there is room for some direct elevating.

Cities are the true centers of culture because of their libraries, museums, concerts and leaders in the fields of thought and art, yet it is not their culture that is their chief attraction either to the natives or to visitors. With every cultural advantage at their command the metropolitans do not attain a culture much higher than that of the small town citizen. It has been said with a high degree of truth that the native New Yorker is the most provincial person in the country.

Granite, trees and music are not always outward evidences of urban culture. Museums have been built, parks laid out, and symphony orchestras and civic operas supported by public subscriptions, not because of a genuine taste for these better things of life, but because it was considered the proper thing to do and because other cities have them.

Imbler Volley Ball Team Wins Championship

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrill
(Observer Correspondent)

UNION, Ore. (Special)—The La Grande, Imbler and Imbler volleyball teams met at Union on Thursday evening to play off their title from the regular season. It was decided that each team should play the other a series of three games in an elimination contest and the victor be declared from the two winners. La Grande first played Imbler and won two games out of three; La Grande then played Elgin and won two games out of three, thus definitely placing La Grande in the play-off. In the game between Elgin and Imbler, Elgin was eliminated in two straight games. In the play-off between Imbler and La Grande, Imbler won in three straight games, thus establishing Imbler as the champion. Some very good volleyball was displayed by all of the teams and the three teams are very closely matched. Baker has challenged the winner of this play-off and sometime this next week Imbler and Baker will play on the Union floor for the Eastern Oregon championship.

Members of the Union basketball team, which reached the finals in the district tournament here last week, were entertained by the Commercial club during its regular luncheon in the Union hotel Wednesday evening. The boys present were: Gilkison, Parent, Dobbins, Conklin, Crossland, Baum, Davis and Zaugg. Two visitors from Pendleton were also in attendance.

J. A. Wright enjoyed a visit on Thursday with Representative Arthur Swift and Sheriff Henry McKinney, of Baker, who were business visitors in Union.

T. D. Smith plans to drive to Gooding Sunday to take his daughter, Jane, to Vernie, Clark and Louise Leighton, of La Grande, back to their school work after their spring vacation.

Mrs. T. N. Kerr complimented Jane Smith at a dinner party at the Union hotel Thursday evening. The other guests were Mae Shanks, Leona Spray and Clara Van Houten. After a delicious dinner in a charming setting the girls visited until time to go to the Woman's club dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook entertained very delightfully at bridge on Wednesday evening. Besides the regular club members Mr. and Mrs. Tex Knight, Sam Benson, Leonard Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cook and the Misses Eria Clark and Alice Patterson were guests. Honors for the evening were awarded to Mrs. P. N. Fox, Mrs. Tex Knight and J. P. Hutchinson with consolation falling to the lot of Mrs. George Winship. The hostess served an elaborate lunch at the close of the score counting.

Jane Smith's "gang" had a jolly get-together meeting at the home of her parents on Tuesday evening. Eight girls spent a few pleasant hours at pinocchle and followed them up with a hearty lunch. A prize was awarded to Erma Puckett for high score and to Mildred Gauthier for the low.

The sunny days early this week suddenly revived interest in tennis, and raquets were taken from the shelves where they have lain for the past few months. Players thranged the courts during the late afternoon hours until the rains came to drench their ardor. With the continued rainfall M. O. H. Earth is becoming quite water soaked.

A very interesting program was given at the regular meeting of the Woman's club Thursday afternoon with Miss Moor, of the Eastern Oregon Normal school, as speaker. Her talk was a biographical review of several interesting personalities based on the following books: Pierre Marquette, Agnes Repplier, Herman Melville, Lewis Mumford, Life and Letters of Stuart Sherman, and Franklin by Bernard Fay. Her charm as a speaker coupled with thorough knowledge of her subject made all who heard her anxious to know more about the lives and work of these interesting authors. Following her talk several musical selections were given. The girls sang two songs followed by two piano selections by Miss Eria Clark. The hostesses, Mesdames Burwell, A. Jensen and Kuhn, served dainty refreshments after the program.

W. H. Morrison, field representative for state treasurer, was a business visitor in Union Wednesday.

News comes from Eugene that Mrs. Belle Wright and Mrs. Edith May are planning to leave soon for Palo Alto to visit Mrs. Wright's daughter, Mrs. Sidney Townley, who has been quite ill.

Sydney Dobbins arrived home Friday from Eugene to spend his spring vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dobbins.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Martens moved to their home this week. Mrs. E. J. Murphy, of Pendleton, has been visiting since Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. George Hoffman. Mr. Murphy plans to drive down for her this coming Sunday.

Mrs. T. D. Smith and daughter Jane, Mrs. George Baird and Mrs. Irvin Hess spent a pleasant day in La Grande on Thursday.
