Worth Their Cost
Tradition is not a bad thing. Woe to the activist in which tradition is not the subject of an exercise in and violent scrap. And dignity, purity and wholesomeness are not bad things either. All four are worth fighting for and fighting against.—Arnold Bennett.

Shows Stars' Distance
A parsec is a unit of length used in expressing the distance of stars. One parsec is almost exactly 30,000 times the mean distance of the earth from the sun. A star is at a distance of one parsec from the earth if its annual parallax amounts to one second of arc.

The Sucker Lists
The ordinary citizen feels a bit relieved when he learns that even men gifted with much business acumen are on "sucker lists."—Des Moines Tribune Capitalist.

Not Always Fatal
According to hospital records of the World War, there are some interesting cases in which soldiers died with bullets in their hearts. One soldier lived two months with a bullet in the interior of his heart.

Famous Trees
The famous Lonesome Pine, celebrated in song and story, stands on top of Big Black mountain, near Big Stone gap, where the Trail of the Lonesome Pine connects with Kentucky.

Need for Diligence
Our success depends upon the strength of our purpose; and if we would make much progress, we must use diligence.—Thomas a Kempis.

Colorful Sails
From Herodotus we learn that some of the sails of early Egyptian vessels were made of papyrus. Beautifully ornamented colored linen sails were early in use.

Uncle Eben
"A hoss race," said Uncle Eben, "makes a winner take credit for being smart. Ten he proceeds to use his imaginary intellect to spoil his dumb luck."—Washington Star.

Ninety-eight men were hurt during the razing of two buildings in New York.

Prevent Rugs Slipping
Rugs will not slip or curl if you cut small pieces from an old inner tube and sew one on each of the four corners with strong thread matching the rug color as near as possible.

Building Trouble
Most men worry all through their work about that which is to come. The thing they are going to do, the money they are going to get.—American Magazine.

Power of High Thought
The contemplation of celestial things will make a man both think and speak sublimely and magnificently when he descends to human affairs.—Cicero.

Must Prove Fitness
It is not fit that the public trusts should be lodged in the hands of any, till they are first proved and found fit for the business they are to be entrusted with.—Matthew Henry (1692-1714).

Fatigue Flight
A man who has been eight times round the world has just been married, which, the Regina Leader points out, just shows how impossible it is to escape.—Toronto Globe.

The engine of a long train on a railroad in the Tehachapi mountains passes over the rear end of the train on a loop which is a complete circle.

Wouldn't it?
Nature knows best, but it would be nice if some of those imported insect pests like dandelions.—San Francisco Chronicle.

He Gets It
The little man wants here below is a little more than his neighbor has.—Chicago News.

The Going's Good
None of us knows where the younger generation is heading. But we all must admit it seems to be enjoying the trip.—London Tit-Bits.

Pleaty and Enjoyment
Pleaty, wrote Carlyle, does not mean that a man should make a sour face about things and refuse to enjoy in moderation what the Maker has given.

To Be Avoided
Rallery is a mode of speaking in favor of one's wit at the expense of one's better nature.—Monte-queux.

but with the moderate engine speed which means long life!

The New Series Pontiac Big Six is so fast that you will seldom use its high-speed gears. Yet when you do, you will notice a remarkable ease about its performance. Pontiac attains top speeds easily because of the size of its 200-cubic-inch engine, the largest in any six of its price. It develops 60 horsepower and top road speed at very moderate engine speed. That means exceptional dependability, long life and economy. New bodies by Fisher accentuate the length and lowness of this car, expressing its swift speed and pick-up. And these bodies are more beautiful, as well as sturdier than ever. Come in. We believe we can prove that selection of a Pontiac is a move you will never regret.
