UNION (Special)—Major R. R. Huron, of La Grande, was in Union Tuesday evening to attend the regular meeting of the local guard company. His main reason for being present at the guard drill was to present the prize which he gives each year to the highest individual score in the company which qualifies the largest percentage of members in marksmanship during the year. Headquarters company of Union qualified 14 out of 20 enrolled men and Sergeant Murray Jensen made an average score of 214 out of a possible 250 points. Major Huron presented him with a ten-dollar bill for his record. There will be a special meeting of the local guard company Thursday which will be the twelfth drill of the quarter.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hurn, two sons, Ward and Clair, and little daughter, Georgine, returned home the last of the week from a visit in western Washington. They spent a week visiting with relatives and friends in and near Aberdeen. An older son, Rufus, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bonney made the trip to the coast with them and are staying for a longer visit.

With the Union Odd Fellows and Rebekahs as hosts to the Delegation from La Grande, Blith, Cove and Summerville, the March meeting of the Union county association was held by Tuesday evening. A general program was given, including two playlets, one by the Rebekahs and one by Odd Fellows.

Snow Is Nearly Gone This Week At Kamela, Ore.

By Mrs. C. E. Thornburg (Observer Correspondent)

KAMELA (Special)—After having quite a lot of rain and some snow during the weekend, Monday seemed a little more spring-like. The snow is almost all gone and the air is fresh and balmy. Due to the recent rains the highway was rather slippery Saturday. One high car overturned a few miles east of Blithard. Fortunately it is quite level there and the car only turned on its side and no one was injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tameris spent the weekend visiting in Blith at the home of Mrs. Tameris' parents Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Glasson.

Bill Glasson, of Blith, spent from Thursday until Saturday visiting at the home of his sister Mrs. Guy Tameris.

Paul Robbins, of Meacham, passed through Kamela on Sunday on his way to La Grande where he expected to undergo a
