RING CALL STAYS IN THEIR BLOOD

Most Old-Time Fighters Unable to Resist Lure of Fistic World.

By Russell J. Newland
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

SAN FRANCISCO—The call of the ring is something your old time fighters rarely are able to resist. Most of them continue in the racket although not on the punch trading basis.

They seem to be about evenly divided between managing fighters and refereeing fights. Former champions can be found in either group.

Willie Ritchie, one time lightweight title holder, is the most prominent of these westerners who are active as third man in the ring. James J. Jeffries, former heavyweight champion, and Al McCoy, who once ruled the middleweight division, dabble in the game as managers. Each man has a heavyweight prospect.

Refereeing in northern California rings today are the following prominent former pugilists: "One Round" Hogan, "Oakland" Frankie Burns, Toby Irwin, Billy Smallbane, Eddie Burns, Benny Wagner, Jack Downey, Harry Atwood. In the southern California sector are Joe Rivers, great lightweight contender of years ago, and Benny Whitman. Dick Hyland, good lightweight in the old days, is a boxing inspector around Fresno.

Many Are Managers

The managerial end of the business has attracted such former notables as Kid Herman, who fought Joe Gans; Aurelio Herrera, Young Corbett and such: Frank Tabor, George Shade, Walter Cofee, Willie Beattie, Mike McGuire, George Brown, Johnny Frayne, Bob McAllister and George Likus, all of the San Francisco bay region; Tom Kennedy and Jack Root, former heavyweight title contenders; Teddy McFarland, Les Moor, all stationed around Los Angeles; Biddy Bishop, in Seattle and Eddie Marino, now located in Tacoma.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, training at Paso Robles for the forthcoming 1930 National league campaign, have "gone modern" on trained ideas. Instead of the old-fashioned trainer, they have engaged the services of Dr. Charles A. Jorgensen, who gave up a 14-year practice at Columbus, Ohio, for the nomadic life of the follower of baseball. Manager Jewell Ens of the Pirates says results count and that as long as he is at the helm he will have a trainer of this qualification. The St. Louis Cardinals also have a regular doctor as their trainer.

Mike Fisher, owner of the Tacoma baseball club in 1904, says the most persistent fellow he ever knew worked in a lumber yard that backed up against the ball park. The workman piled up lumber high enough to look over the fence and watch the games. Mike built his fence higher. The wood pile went up again. So did the fence.

"After I got that fence up around 30 feet," says Mike, "I decided not to argue with this fellow any longer. So we boarded up all the knot holes around the park and boosted the gate receipts a little."

Oregon Baseball Season to Open

EUGENE, Ore., Mar. 28 (AP)—The baseball season at the University of Oregon will open next week with games against Pacific here April 1 and 2. Except for vacant dates April 15 and 18, the Duck schedule is complete, according to R. H. Robnett, assistant graduate manager, who is arranging the baseball games.

Willamette will come here for a two-game series April 11 and 12, with a double header scheduled for April 12.

The conference season opens April 25 with a game against Oregon State at Corvallis. The following day Oregon meets the Aggies in Eugene. The Ducks end their season against Oregon State at Corvallis May 31.

The Important Reason

FATS and oils are not digested like starches or proteins, they must first be emulsified in the body before they can be utilized as nourishment.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is pure cod-liver oil scientifically emulsified—prepared for easy and rapid digestion, just as Nature provides emulsified fat in milk.

This is the important reason why the cod-liver oil you take—should be emulsified—should be Scott's Emulsion.

Guarantees In Discard Now At Chicago Stadium

CHICAGO, Mar. 28 (AP)—No more guarantees will be paid boxers for plying their trade in the Chicago stadium. Henceforth the boys, if they wish to fight, must gamble on a percentage basis.

Sheldon Clark, president of the stadium corporation, announced this change in policy today.

"We have reached the conclusion that boxing must be conducted on a business-like basis," Clark explained.

"We found it necessary to call a halt in paying these boxers what they thought they were worth. Their demands were exorbitant. If they are so confident they can draw such big gates, why not let them gamble, accepting a liberal percentage instead of demanding guarantees. In the future, they will be paid in accordance to their drawing power, and not a cent more.

"The evil of this guarantee business is shown in a recent experience in which one contest drew $46,000, and the stadium got only $2000 as its share. The boxers got the rest."

President Clark revealed that when he took over the presidency three months ago the stadium had a deficit of $450,000, and under his management, $200,000 of that amount has been wiped off the books. He plans to retire soon, to devote more time to the interests of the Sinclair Refining corporation, of which he is vice president. He indicated that John F. Bowman, general manager of the stadium, possibly would be elected as his successor.

SHAUN GOILIN WINS AINTREE STEEPLECHASE

AINTREE, Mar. 28 (AP)—Shaun Goilin, the Irish owned jumper, today won the grand national steeplechase over the Aintree course.

William Mason's Melleray's Belle ran second with John H. Whitney's American owned Sir Lindsay third. The winner carried the silks of W. H. Midwood. Forty one ran.

Shaun Goilin, sire unknown, from Galdinway, went to the post at one of the fifteen-to-one favorites; Rhyderman, owned by Gordon Selfridge of the United States, fell, failing to finish the course. The other two American-owned horses, Sandy Hook and Grand Arch II, finished unplaced.

Vancouver Lions Win Second Game

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 28 (AP)—Vancouver's Lions were homeward bound today with two victories in the Pacific coast hockey league championship series to their credit and needing only one more win over the Portland Buckaroos to clinch the title. The bomb and British Columbians will clash Monday at Vancouver in the third contest of the title series.

Vancouver took the second game here last night 2 to 1. The Lions won the first on their home ice by the same score Monday.

Jimmy McLarnin Fights Thompson

NEW YORK, Mar. 28 (AP)—Two of the finest welterweights in the business, Jimmy McLarnin, of Vancouver, and Young Jack Thompson, San Francisco negro, are matched in the main ten rounder at Madison Square Garden tonight.

McLarnin, possibly the hardest puncher for his weight in the game, rules a 2 to 1 favorite. Thompson has never been knocked out in a ring career that has included 258 bouts.

Lacoste's Wedding Again Postponed

PARIS, Mar. 28 (AP)—Rene Lacoste, French tennis star, has postponed his wedding to Mlle. Simone Thion de la Chaume, golf champion, for a second time, this time indefinitely.

The wedding originally was set for January 16, but was postponed first until April. A siege of ill health which began when Lacoste caught a bad cold in last May's French hard court finals match with Jean Borotra was given as reason for the delay.

The cold spread to Lacoste's bronchial tubes, necessitating withdrawal from tennis and retirement to the Basque country near Biarritz.

ED WALSH COMFORTABLE

MERIDEN, Conn., Mar. 28 (AP)—The condition of "Big" Ed Walsh, former Chicago White Sox pitching ace, was reported today at the Meriden hospital as "fairly comfortable." Hospital officials announced that following an operation for appendicitis and peritonitis, the famous pitcher had spent a "rather comfortable" night.

SISLER STILL HITS

FORT MYERS, Fla., Mar. 28 (AP)—George Sisler, veteran first baseman with the Boston Braves, whose hitting still makes him a valuable player although his fielding last season was not what it used to be, has been tried out. Yesterday he garnered a double and single, scored two runs and showed ability in playing for the batters, making four putouts in the outer garden.

Chats With Parents

LIMITED

Clara's mother is deaf and sixyear-old Clark is a docile, loving child. Her mother has taken great pains in her training and she is obedient and happy.

She has been taught to do all sorts of clever things with her hands. She can cut out pictures and paint surprisingly well. She models with clay together and sews and weaves.

She and her mother spend hours together quietly occupied with these things which give them both so much pleasure.

It does not occur to her mother that her little girl's training has been one sided. A six-year-old should not sit for hours busy with fine hand work. She should be out running and jumping and using the large muscles of her body in all the ways that children find to do when they are encouraged to free outdoor play.

She should be skating and jumping rope and riding on her scooter. She should be shouting and play[illegible] with other children through most of the sunny hours of the day.

But Clara's mother is deaf and she, more than most mothers, would be left out of her child's life were she allowed her to find the world outside. [illegible] Without being aware of our motives we are all in danger of doing just this to our children in one way or another. Always we need to keep them about with our own special limitations and to keep them from experiences [illegible] take them away from us.

Beat the egg and add the flour, sugar, salt and pepper. Add the fruit juices and water. Cook slowly in a double boiler until it thickens. Stir frequently to prevent lumping. Beat for one minute. Cool and fold in the cream. Serve on fruit or fruit gelatin salads.

Coconut Cream Pie, Pecan

1 baked pie shell, ½ cup sugar, 1 cup coconut, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1-2 cup flour, 2 cups milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla, ¼ teaspoon lemon extract, 2 tablespoons raspberry jam.

Beat the egg yolks and add the sugar, salt and flour. Mix well and add the milk and cook until a custard-like mixture forms. Stir constantly during the cooking and cool over a low fire. Add the vanilla and lemon extract and pour into the baked shell. Spread with the jam and cover with the meringue.

Meringue

2 egg whites, 4 tablespoons confectioners' sugar.

Beat the egg whites until stiff. Add the sugar and beat until creamy. Roughly spread on top the pie and bake for 12 minutes in a slow oven. Cool and serve.

Ginger Drop Cakes (16)

1-2 cup fat, 1-2 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1-2 cup molasses, 1 teaspoon ginger, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon cloves, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1-2 cup milk, 2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon soda, ½ teaspoon baking powder.

Cream the fat and sugar. Add the rest of the ingredients and beat for two minutes. Half fill greased muffin pans and bake for 15 minutes in a moderate oven.
