Rangers Seek Site For House At Kamela, Ore.

By Mrs. C. E. Thornburg (Observer Correspondent) — Mr. Clanton, government forest ranger who was stationed in Kamela last summer was in Kamela on Wednesday. He and another government man were trying to find a site for a government house here. Last year they rented some of the Nestor houses, but evidently now plan on erecting a permanent forest ranger house. Several O-W building inspectors were in Kamela for a short time on Wednesday.

The mud has not all quite dried up in Kamela yet and several cars have been stuck going past the school where the mud is worst, and also on the incline by the depot. The days are still warm and sunny, although on Thursday evening it turned somewhat colder and rained some.

The highway, being torn up in so many places for surfacing, is not very pleasant to travel over at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hawes were called to La Grande Tuesday on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Hawes' mother, Mrs. J. Oliver. Mrs. Oliver has not been well for some time and was taken on Tuesday to the Grande Ronde hospital to undergo a major operation. Mr. and Mrs. Hawes returned on Tuesday, but Mr. Hawes expected to return later to be with his mother.

C. Hudson, operator on second shift in Kamela, accompanied by Buster Linsley, of Hild, Idaho, who has been visiting in Kamela for several days, drove to Elgin to get Mr. Hudson's mother, also of Hild, Idaho, who has been at the bedside of her father, Mr. Garner, who is ill. Mrs. Hudson, senior, and Mr. Linsley expect to return to Idaho soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Kloostera, of Elgin, stopped in Kamela on Tuesday on their way home from Pendleton to visit Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. O'Neil here for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kennison, of Moschawa, passed through Kamela on Wednesday. They visited Mrs. F. P. Brooks and then continued to Elgin accompanied by Mrs. Kennison's little daughter, Tom Brooks.

Mr. Kennison, who is a government trapper, went to Elgin to look over his trapper's place.

Mrs. Harry Phares, of La Grande, was in Kamela on business on Wednesday. She visited her friend, Mrs. P. Biever while here. Mrs. Phares was seriously ill recently, but has recovered considerably.

Mrs. Ward Smith and Mrs. Pieper, of La Grande, drove to Kamela Wednesday with Mrs. Phares. They visited several friends here, among them were Miss Alta Smith, Mrs. P. Biever and Mrs. R. Hawes. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Pieper had not seen Mrs. Hawes for several years and enjoyed renewing acquaintances with her.

John Heath, of Kamela, is a business visitor in La Grande on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thornburg and son, Ian, were guests over night Thursday at the A. Milne home in La Grande. They attended the high school opera which they enjoyed very much. Mrs. Thornburg expects to return to Kamela Saturday.

Louise Hawes was unable to go to school Wednesday on account of a slight indisposition.
