

LOCAL BRIEFS

At the Hotels—The following are registered at the hotels: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas, Caldwell; Mrs. Elmer Stoddard, Baker; M. I. Klane, Spokane; E. Haug and wife, Wallawa; Mr. and Mrs. T. Thompson, Boise; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Nolond, Walla Walla; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marschat, Boardman; Francis M. Spilke, Boardman; G. M. Dickman, Portland; Adie C. Wood, Joseph; Earl Schuyler, Joseph; J. Campbell, Walla Walla; W. F. Matthes, Maxville; Leonard Hammeck, Wallawa; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Caldwell, Caldwell; R. L. Rogers, Portland; W. A. Adams, Weiser; H. E. Lambert and wife, Walla Walla; L. Miller, William Thomas, Roseburg; Ed McCullough, McManville; A. W. Adamson, Portland; E. A. Mackey, The Dalles; and Paul O. Mauro, Minam.

Returned From Portland—Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Kistler and John returned from Portland last night where they spent last week on business and pleasure.

Returned to Pilot Rock—George Harnden accompanied by his brother, William drove to Pilot Rock yesterday after visiting here for the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Della Harnden. After spending the day at the Lowell Rugg ranch where his brother is employed, William returned home last night.

Stopped Here—Mrs. Bessie Lambie and daughter Dorothy, sons Stanley and Harold of Cascade, Ida., were overnight guests at the F. E. Piper home on Cedar street leaving this morning for Seattle where they will visit with friends.

In Walla Walla—W. C. Becktel has returned from a weekend spent in Walla Walla.

Returned from Portland—Miss Joan Denham returned this morning from Portland where she visited her sister, Mrs. C. W. Snider, during the spring vacation from her studies at the Eastern Oregon Normal school.

Baby Boy—Mr. and Mrs. Noah E. Mathews at 1414 V avenue are the parents of a baby boy born yesterday. The new arrival weighs nine pounds.

Returned from Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reuter and son Bobby have returned from Portland where they visited Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rowen, formerly of this city, for several days. They also went on business.

Secures School—Margaret Baker, who is to graduate at the Normal school this June has secured a school at Weston, Ore., where she will start teaching next fall.

Went to Wisconsin—Mrs. M. Porter left Friday for Wisconsin where she will visit her sister during the spring and summer, expecting to be away for several months.

Left This Morning—W. H. Fitzgerald left this morning after spending the weekend visiting his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paddock.

See Crew Race—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roehn returned yesterday from Seattle where they visited with their son Eugene, a student at the University of Washington. While there they saw the Washington-California crew races, with the Huskies making a clean sweep in the events. They made the trip by automobile.

Marriage License—A marriage license was issued Saturday afternoon to Marcus W. May, of Summerville, and Minnie Crooks, of Seattle.

Attend Commandery—Mr. and Mrs. George T. Cochran left Saturday night for Carvalls where they will attend the grand commandery of Knights Templar. They will visit friends in Portland and return the last of the week. Mr. Cochran is a grand officer.

In Enterprise—Colon R. Eberhard is in Enterprise and Joseph today on legal business.

Attorney from Pendleton—A. S. Cooley, attorney of Pendleton, was in La Grande today on business.

Returned Home—Len and Bob Ward returned home Saturday night from Salt Lake City where they visited their sister and attended the centennial celebration of the L. D. S. church, seeing the pagant depicting the rise and progress of the church, and attending several conference sessions.

Dinner Tomorrow—All members of the Neighborhood club who desire to meet Bess Foster Smith, Idaho poetess who will attend the club meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, are invited to the club dinner to be given at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening in the La Grande hotel. Those who desire to go may make their reservations with Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp.

Students Return—Among the normal school girls who live at the Andrews home and who have returned to La Grande after a week away are Miss Leonard Fink, who visited at Baker, and Miss Lillian Chadwick, who went to Ontario, Miss Mary Hendricks, who also resides at Mrs. Andrews' home is yet in The Dalles.

Returned from Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Andrews have returned from Pasco and Portland where they visited for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Stringham and daughter, Janet, of Pasco, drove to La Grande with the Andrews' and visited over the weekend with Mr. Stringham's parents and many of his friends.

Visits Portland—Miss Ida McMeekin returned home this morning from Portland where she has been since Friday.

Seriously Ill—Mrs. Bert White, sister of Mrs. J. D. Akeley, on North R street, is seriously ill.

Returned Home—J. R. Adams returned from Portland on Friday, where he has been for the past week in the interests of the O-W shop employees' work.

Visit in Washington—Mrs. R. C. Alexander and children, Robert and Frances, visited their aunt in Washington during the past week.

Yesterday at Elgin—Mrs. Willie Thomas and Mrs. Huffman visited in Elgin yesterday.

Terminates Visit—Mrs. J. C. Alexander, of Granite, Ore., left yesterday for her home after visiting here for two weeks with her sister, Mrs. W. Thomas.

Harvey McDonald came in Sunday from La Grande and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. McDonald. L. S. McDonald is still confined to his home with rheumatism.

Charlie Moore and Maurice Teel brought in a load of seed grain the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lindsey and children, of La Grande, came in Sunday and are visiting Mrs. Lindsey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carper. Frank is also helping with the farm work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Swearingen and son, John were picnicking at the creek Sunday.

Charles Kestorby, who has been quite ill, is able to be out again.

Mrs. Arthur Wallace was taken quite ill Sunday evening. Mrs. Smith stayed with her until Thursday. Mrs. Wallace is convalescing but owing to her illness there is no school this week at the normal school house.

Gustav Harlow, of Summit Mountain, is taking the census in Promiseland this week. He spent Tuesday night with John Carper and Wednesday night with C. P. Carper's family. P. G. Potter is taking the census on Pasowatka and Maxville.

Mrs. Bertha Carper and Frank Lindsey were trading in Maxville Wednesday.

SIGURD ISEBN DIES—EIGHTEENING, Germany, Apr. 11 (AP)—Sigurd Isebn, former Norwegian premier and son of the great playwright, Henrik Ibsen, died today, aged 71.

Too Deep for Him—"I've been planting rhubarb roots and sweet potato roots and strawberry roots for well onto forty years," grumbled Farmer Jones, "but consarn if I know them Greek and Latin roots that fool boy, John, writes home from college about."—Pathfinder Magazine.

Defining Air Travel—"The term 'aeronautics' covers the entire science and art of flying machines; aviation is that branch of aeronautics covering airplanes and other heavier than air craft; while astronautics is the branch covering balloons and other craft lighter than air."

LONDON—With a hammer King George had smited and theoretic's by smashed the old great seal of England. A new one emitting mention of Ireland is now in use.

MODEST MAIDENS

Trade Mark Registration Applied For U. S. Patent Office

"If you don't study, what do you expect to be when you grow up." "A flag-pole sitter."

amusement beside her mother and her husband, who preceded her in death a number of years ago.

Road Supervisor Directing Work In Promise Area

By Mrs. Bertha Carper (Observer Correspondent) PROMISE, Ore. (Special)—John Carper, the new road supervisor, had a force of men working the road last week. The started in at C. E. Gorbett's working that part first. The roads are still quite rough.

The last few days have been quite warm and the farmers are all busy plowing. Some are seeding and making garden.

Mrs. Bertha Carper accompanied Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carper to Wallawa recently. Mr. Carper and Mrs. Bertha Carper returned the same evening. Mrs. Dora Ballard, of Enterprise, returned with them and is staying at the home of W. W. Carper. Mrs. W. W. Carper remained at the Wallawa hospital.

Miss Lola Gorbett visited at the home of Mrs. W. W. Carper. Harvey McDonald visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carper Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wallace visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trump and Mrs. Julia Sanner.

Andrew Young is staying at the Maurice Teel home.

P. G. Potter went to Enterprise Thursday on business connected with taking the census.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carper April 3, 1930 at the Wallawa hospital. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Ralph Carper, who is working for George Brooks on Pasowatka, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carper.

Harvey McDonald came in Sunday from La Grande and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. McDonald. L. S. McDonald is still confined to his home with rheumatism.

Charlie Moore and Maurice Teel brought in a load of seed grain the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lindsey and children, of La Grande, came in Sunday and are visiting Mrs. Lindsey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Carper. Frank is also helping with the farm work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Swearingen and son, John were picnicking at the creek Sunday.

Charles Kestorby, who has been quite ill, is able to be out again.

Mrs. Arthur Wallace was taken quite ill Sunday evening. Mrs. Smith stayed with her until Thursday. Mrs. Wallace is convalescing but owing to her illness there is no school this week at the normal school house.

Gustav Harlow, of Summit Mountain, is taking the census in Promiseland this week. He spent Tuesday night with John Carper and Wednesday night with C. P. Carper's family. P. G. Potter is taking the census on Pasowatka and Maxville.

Mrs. Bertha Carper and Frank Lindsey were trading in Maxville Wednesday.

SIGURD ISEBN DIES—EIGHTEENING, Germany, Apr. 11 (AP)—Sigurd Isebn, former Norwegian premier and son of the great playwright, Henrik Ibsen, died today, aged 71.

Too Deep for Him—"I've been planting rhubarb roots and sweet potato roots and strawberry roots for well onto forty years," grumbled Farmer Jones, "but consarn if I know them Greek and Latin roots that fool boy, John, writes home from college about."—Pathfinder Magazine.

Defining Air Travel—"The term 'aeronautics' covers the entire science and art of flying machines; aviation is that branch of aeronautics covering airplanes and other heavier than air craft; while astronautics is the branch covering balloons and other craft lighter than air."

LONDON—With a hammer King George had smited and theoretic's by smashed the old great seal of England. A new one emitting mention of Ireland is now in use.

Pendleton Senior Team Wins Meet

PENDLETON, Ore., Apr. 14 (AP)—Scoring 93 points, senior track men of Pendleton high school won the annual interclass meet here Saturday. The seniors took 13 first places.

Next Saturday Pendleton, La Grande and McLoughlin high schools will meet here in a triangular track meet.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tordice, who have been living on the Arney farm, have moved back to Enterprise. Mr. Arney now has Mr. and Mrs. Avery-Ralf helping on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Tompleton and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Leonard.

Miss Bertha Downs and M. Gaudin, of Wallawa, attended the opera in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Loyd have moved to the Ben Kelley farm the first of the week. They have been living in Mrs. Plessner's property.

Mrs. Mark Crow entertained the neighborhood club on Thursday afternoon. The club is planning a dinner at the church basement for Thursday evening.

Croft Hunter and son, of Joseph Creek, were LOSTINE visitors on Thursday, returning home on Friday.

County Agent N. C. Donaldson drove over to Baker Friday morning to attend a conference under the direction of an O. A. C. professor. The subject for discussion was "Publicity for Extension and County Agent Work."

Geo. Craig, who sold his banking interests some time ago, has decided to enter the banking business again and has acquired a large stock in the Enterprise State bank and was elected to the board of directors.

Mrs. Dora Becker, of Portland, is in Enterprise visiting a son and daughter. She is staying with Mrs. Burleigh, her daughter.

The Black Marble and Lime Co. is steadily operating its plant under new management with orders coming in every day.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wiggins and daughter, Doris, Wiggins, Wiggins of Baker, and Mrs. Roy Morris and daughter, Gwendolyn, of Imbler, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wiggins on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Childers and Mrs. Maxine Nichols visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allen on Friday.

The play that Raskel Pat put on by the Rebekah lodge at the school house on Saturday evening was a decided success.

EX-SHERIFF SUSPECTED OF SLAYING

(Continued from Page One)

The basement stairs. He staggered to Mrs. Price's side and collapsed. Wright was the principal witness in the trial of Price and accused the prosecutor of having accepted "protection money" from operators of a monster still at Kibitzer. Wick

The still was raided last fall under the leadership of "Priet" Wright, trial testified this was because Price had not paid back the money he demanded. Price denied the charge and said his former colleague was activated by malice. The jury accepted his statement.

Since the raid and trial Price told police he had received a number of anonymous threatening letters, apparently from disgruntled bootleggers. More than once he expressed fear that he would be attacked.

A vigorous prosecutor, Price began his attack on illicit distillers last year, doing single-handed in his county what the state had done before its enforcement was repealed by popular vote. Wright was first to encounter difficulties. Gov. Fred E. Zimmerman removing him for misconduct in office. Later, when the 20-year-old former sheriff was charged with conspiracy he implicated Price.

The first district attorney ever slain in Wisconsin, Price had gained prominence in state political circles. He was a member of the La Follette progressive faction of the republican party and eight years ago was the group's candidate for attorney general. He was 48 years old and had no children.

Mrs. Sadie Hall, Mrs. Carl Thomas and Wm. Womack went to see an eye specialist.

Mrs. Dean Crow and daughter, Vernon Goldberry, of Turlock, Cal., and Norman Gray spent Thursday in Joseph with Mr. Albert Dandley and eight seeing at Wallawa Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cook and baby of Camp 10 spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Mat Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Can Robinson have moved back to Enterprise where Mr. Robinson will be near his work.

Geo. Wain had the uniform of a cutting his hand quite badly with an axe. He was taken to Enterprise to a doctor and it required seven stitches to close the wound.

Mrs. Geo. Dodge had as her guest at a Sunday dinner, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Leonard and family.

Mrs. Effie Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cook visited Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Cook.

Mrs. N. Westfall, Mrs. Ashley and daughters, Miss Gena and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Peley were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Felton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Crow and Miss Claudine Gerth attended the teachers meeting in La Grande Saturday. They also attended the play, "Hickles" given by the La Grande high school. This play was given by the LOSTINE school during the winter.

Harley Courtney and Frank Bradley spent the weekend on the Innaha. Mrs. Courtney, who had been visiting friends here, returned to her home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cooper went to Enterprise for a few days visit before leaving for Idaho where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. J. L. Hammock and daughter Bessie Robinson attended the Mission church service in Enterprise Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Redinger and daughter, Mildred, Mrs. Leslie Ripplinger and Mrs. Earl Allen were La Grande visitors Monday.

Hugh Davis, of Enterprise stopped in LOSTINE to attend to business. He was en route to Imbler to take some pictures and visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin, of Weston, drove over Friday for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hunter. Mrs. Martin was Marion Hunter.

Mrs. Lilley Hill and sons, Willie and Loyd Cook spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Cook.

Gall Crow of Hurricane Creek, visited friends in LOSTINE Tuesday. Eugene Hobling, of Joseph, is suffering from a badly infected hand. He came to Enterprise where an operation was performed to relieve the infection.

ARCADE Today Tuesday With JOHN BOLES "The Star of 'The Desert Song' and 'Rio Rita.'" "A Thrilling Romance of the Early West!" Plus Two select Vitaphone acts. Fables in Sound. Pathe Sound News.

Ruth America's premier dramatic actress CHATTERTON with Fredric MARCH "SARAH AND SON" STARTING TUESDAY Also Talking Comedy Mickey Mouse Cartoon Sound News NOW "The Kibitzer."

Cabbage, cauliflower and tomatoes, dahlias, roses and flowering shrub, petunias and pansies READY NOW Choice delphinium and baby breath clumps. SPECIAL THIS WEEK AT 25c Bedding plants of all sorts. Asters, ageratum, alendulas, geraniums, zinnias, petunias, snapdragons, marigold, salvia, salphglosis, daisies, forget-me-nots, lobelia and sweet alyssum. PORCH BOXES, WINDOW BOXES, TUBS AND URNS BEING MADE UP NOW Mail and phone orders promptly taken care of. FREE DELIVERY ROHAN'S GREENHOUSES Phone 676-W

FREE LECTURE on CHRISTIAN SCIENCE by Paul A. Harsch, C. S. B. of Toledo, Ohio Member of the Board of Lecture ship of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ Scientist, in Boston Mass. in the SACAJAWEA BALL ROOM Tuesday Evening, April 15 at 8 o'clock The Public is Cordially Invited to Attend.

2nd Annual Dance APRIL 16 ZUBER HALL Spanish War Vets

DEPT. STORES C.J. Breier Co. IN THE WEST

YOUR Easter Bonnet IS READY $2.98 Delightful models combining all features to enhance the Easter ensemble.

71 MAIN, for anything that is to be printed, Rush orders taken and finished on time. NELSON Opposite Post Office

I am a happy fourteen-year-old school boy — just one of several who are proud to say that they work for the Observer. In fulfilling my duties as your carrier I aim to be prompt, courteous and responsive to your desires. I know that by doing small things well I will gain the confidence to do greater things by and by. If you trust the payment of your monthly paper bills with me it will help me grow in confidence, and I pledge myself to accuracy and honesty when allowed to be agent between you and my employer.

THE EVENING OBSERVER Circulation Department