Have Operation—
Mrs. Frank Hopkins, pastor of the South Methodist church, is expected to be visiting fairly well at the Veterans hospital in Portland. Mr. Hopkins was sent to the hospital after an illness of several weeks. Since his presence at the hospital he has undergone 12 examinations, six of which were X-rays, and the doctors have found necessary for an operation within the next three or four days. Hopkins is suffering from a tumor complex, pathological, and by the tropic dysentery and longed malarial fever while in army in the Philippines during the insurrection.

Have Simple Service—
Members of the Epworth League of the First Methodist church are planning their plans for a sunrise service Sunday morning. The national exercises to be followed by their annual fellowship breakfast. If the weather permits the service will be held at Gangloff camp, but if the weather is unfavorable, the service and the breakfast will be held at the church.

Peavey in Portland—
So far as known, there is only one man in Oregon who invariably wears a boutonniere. He is not a politician, but a jeweler and he is J. H. Peavey, of La Grande, registered at the Grand Hotel. Some men sport buttons, but no matter what the weather, Peavey is always in the Peavey buttonhole. It may be an old Spanish custom, or maybe a custom of his county, but anyway it is a thing with "Jack."

The Oregonian—
Mrs. L. C. Henderson is remaining in La Grande this week after her children. Beatrice and twin boys, Guy and Glen have returned to their studies in Portland. Miss Peterson is a student at the North Pacific school of pharmacy at Portland. Mrs. Henderson's home here, but she is in Portland with the children attend school.

Alarm—
The fire department was called on another false alarm last night at 8:55 o'clock. The alarm was turned in from box 35.

Wives to Baker—
Mrs. B. Appleby drove to Baker yesterday to speak before the juvenile club. He was accompanied by Mrs. Appleby and Mrs. Rose Bohmkamp, who visited her mother in Baker.

Stopped Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Simpson and daughter, of the Boise Park store, stopped in La Grande on their return home from Spokane where they spent the last weekend on business.

Here Yesterday—
Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Coburn, of Walla Walla, who were residents of this city about two years ago were house guests at the Hal Bohmkamp home yesterday.

From Portland—
Mrs. Arch Bacon and Mrs. Marjorie Frances left this morning for Portland. Mrs. Frances is improving after a recent illness.

From Wallawa—
Mrs. Edan Hall, of Wallawa, is in La Grande this week receiving medical treatment.

Home From Hermiston—
Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waller and family, Jean have returned from Hermiston, Ore., where they spent several days visiting.

Improving—
Mrs. Fred Eames, who has been quite ill for several months, is now able to be up and around.

Visiting in La Grande—
Mrs. G. H. Rumbroun, of Portland, is visiting with Mrs. Howard Evans for a few days.

Visitors Hospital—
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fitzgerald have gone to Portland where Mr. Fitzgerald will enter the government hospital. Mrs. Fitzgerald will remain in Portland for the present.

Go to Hot Lake—
Mrs. William Pallow is taking her son, Guy, to Hot Lake today for examination and treatments.

Visiting Grandmother—
Maxine and Phyllis McNeil, formerly of La Grande, but now living in Portland are visiting this week in La Grande with their grandmother, Mrs. Lyman.

Children's Matinee—
"The King of Kings," a picture which was shown here once before and which is recommended by both the schools and churches, will be shown at the Arcade theater Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. So many children may attend. The

Leaving Tonight—
Miss Helen Williams is leaving tonight for Portland where she will visit friends and attend an annual Alpha Xi Delta dinner. She will probably return in about a week.

President Hoover's Leadership Views Published In Yale Daily

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Apr. 16.—(AP)—President Hoover's views on leadership were published here in an article he wrote for the Yale Daily News, an undergraduate publication.

The article follows:
"Leadership is a quality of the individual. It is the individual who can function in the world of intellect and in the field of leadership. If democracy is to secure its authorities in morals, religion, and statesmanship, it must stimulate leadership from its own ranks."
"Human leadership cannot be replaced by selection like queen bees, by divine right, or by accident. It is the individual who can function in the world of intellect and in the field of leadership. If democracy is to secure its authorities in morals, religion, and statesmanship, it must stimulate leadership from its own ranks."

"I AM YOUR FATHER," SAID JUDGE McINGLENOK
"No, no," cried Oleomargerine from the prisoner's dock. "I will remember the cracked tones of my father's voice as he drove poor mother and me out into the snow."
"But, dear, OLD GOLDS have put this clear, smooth tone in my voice."
They fell into each other's arms. The lawyer, the prosecutor, and the jury all smiled through their tears and reached for an OLD GOLD. Not a cough in a carload.
