Butter And Egg Prices Remain Same in Oregon

PORTLAND, Ore., Apr. 17 (AP)—Butter and egg prices remained steady and unchanged today.

In the vegetable field, retailers demands for potatoes on the wholesale market, have shown greater activity during the last day or two than has existed in many weeks. Growers' home storage stocks are now very light, thereby necessitating retailers obtaining their supplies from jobbers' stocks. Good local Burbanks advanced to $3.00. Total U. S. shipments continue light, with firm market tone prevailing at all potato shipping points, and at most terminal markets.

The season's first car of asparagus from Oregon was loaded at The Dalles for eastern shipment. Some "crans" from the north side of the Columbia was included in the car. This shipment removed a threatened oversupply from the Portland market, and prices strengthened slightly, to $1.35 to $1.50 per dozen bunches.

California strawberries continue to arrive in liberal volume, but movement is slow, probably due to cool weather. Slight price declines occurred, especially on "hold-overs" from previous arrivals.

Tomato supplies are light, and demand is fairly good; consequently, prices advanced 5c to 75c per lb. for both original packs, and re-packs.

California beets and turnips are arriving in mixed cars, shipped in bulk. These bulk receipts show very fine quality.

been "put on the spot and taken for a ride."

Pierson went to Nashville, Tenn., March 20 to audit the book of the convention office there. He left there Tuesday evening for Columbus, O., intending to stop first at Louisville, his secretary said.

In Nashville, the secretary, Alvin Overton, said the auditor charged with him a report of the condition of the Nashville office of the convention. Roy Darden, of the Tennessee attorney general's office, said Pierson had found that a loan of $82,000 to the Nashville office had been "judged," and that he was preparing to report this to the general of-

Central road from 1917 to 1923 and prior to that time had been Southern Pacific division superintendent at Oakland and San Francisco; Union Pacific superintendent at Ogden, general superintendent of the Oregon Short Line at Pocatello, Idaho, and vice president of the Sumpter Valley railroad in Oregon.

He leaves a widow and son, Fred, at Salt Lake City.

files of the convention in Chicago.

Scottsburg is on a main Louisville-Indianapolis highway. It is believed by Chicago police that Pierson's enemies "put him on the spot" in Louisville and then headed north in an automobile.

A man and two boys, inspecting their fish lines, found Pierson in the river near the highway bridge.

His brief case, in which his wife said he always carried his auditing reports, was missing.

Library Chats

OBSERVE POETRY WEEK

The week of April 14 having been set aside as Poetry week in La Grande, the library is having a special exhibit of interesting bits of verse on its new display tables just inside the entrance. One tables bears the inscription "Spring Garland of Verse" and here one finds old favorites and interesting anthologies of both English and American poetry. The second table is devoted to Oregon poets. Readers interested in becoming familiar with some of Oregon's literature will find these titles to select from: "White Peaks and Green," Ethel B. Fuller.

"Walkers," Hazel Hall.
"Gold Gated West," Sam Simpson.
"Windy Leaf," Frances Gill.
"Pastels and Silhouettes," Maule Parsons.
"Skyline Trail," Mary Caroline Davies.
"Scarlet Torch and Blade," Anthony Baxter.
"Poems," Joaquin Miller.
"Patchwork," Grace Hill.
