

INDIANS DEFEAT OAKLAND 4 TO 3

Los Angeles Continues to Win—Sacs Whip Ducks in Two-hit Game.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—(AP)—In the best game played in the Pacific coast league yesterday the Seattle Indians nosed out Oakland club at Emeryville 4 to 3 in ten innings. Trailing 3 to 2 at the start of the ninth, the Indians tied the score with the help of Uhl's double back of third base and went on to win in the extra inning when Johnson, Holland and Palk combined hits. Johnson and Hanson pitched for the winners; Howard Craghead for the O's.

The Los Angeles, Mission and Sacramento clubs had little trouble smashing out victories in their other games on the coast yesterday. Led by Carl Dittmar, the Angels unloosed a barrage of 21 hits against the Hollywood shells to score as they pleased, 11 to 4. Dittmar hit four for four. Warren, Shatterson and Delaney each lined out three singles. Delaney hurled for the Angels, with E. W. Izal and Turner tending for the Stars.

Scals Defeated
Bunching hits in the second, third, eighth and ninth innings, the Mission club defeated the Seals here 8 to 5. Bert Cole, the Mission's leading chucker last season, tolled throughout the afternoon for the winners. Nick Williams started Alvin Montgomery, a southpaw, but a volley of base hits drove him to cover in the seventh and Knight and Turpin had to be called upon to finish the contest. Boone and Rosenberg hit homers for the Seals.

The Senators made it two straight over the Portland Beavers in the game at Sacramento, Beatas holding the visiting club to two hits. The final score was 2 to 2. A home run by Walters behind a walk to Johnson gave the Beavers their two runs in the second inning. Poesdel and Woodruff pitched for Portland.

HANSEN GETS SECOND FALL FROM CHAMP

PORTLAND, Ore., April 17.—(AP)—While Charley Hansen, Seattle heavyweight wrestler, lost his match to Dynamite Gus Sonnenberg, generally recognized heavyweight champion, here last night, to have the crowd thrill when he broke the champion's string of straight falls by pinning Sonnenberg for the second fall of the match. After taking the first fall in 25 minutes 20 seconds with rabbit punches and flying tackles Sonnenberg came back prepared to end the match in short order. He divided for the rugged Swede, who sidestepped and dealt the champion a wicked rabbit punch behind the ear. Sonnenberg dropped with Hansen on top and while partly stunned Hansen rolled him over with a crotch hold for the fall. It all happened in 14 seconds. Sonnenberg took the final fall with a reverse wind-up in seven minutes after a terrific struggle in which Hansen was the aggressor.

Weather Halts Five Games In Major Leagues

By Hugh S. Fullerton Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)
Old Man Weather, who has a habit of disrupting early season schedules, has delivered his first severe blow of the baseball year.

Mr. Weather, in the form of rain and cold, wiped off five games from yesterday's major league program, leaving but two contests in the National league and one in the American. And the Chicago White Sox and Cleveland Indians still are trying to stage their opening at Chicago, hopeful of getting it done today before the Indians have to move on.

It might have been better for the National league champions, the Chicago Cubs, if the rainy area had extended as far as St. Louis. Playing their second game here, the Cubs took a 12 to 2 beating from the rampant Cardinals. Starting in the first inning, the Cards collected 26 hits, six of them doubles and one a home run by Jim Bottomley.

The other National league game gave Cincinnati an even break in two games against the Pittsburgh Pirates with a 3 to 1 triumph. Pete Donohue of Cincinnati engaged in a duel of right handers against Ervin Frame and came out ahead because of the fine support he received. The Reds snatched a pair of their seven hits off Frame for two runs and Walker provided a third with a home run in the seventh.

In the American league, Washington's Senators became the first team to win two games by losing out the Boston Red Sox, 5 to 4 on the strength of two home runs in the early innings. Sam West, the first man up, got one, then Ossie Bluege cracked out another with two on base.

It wasn't for the well known fact that the American professional golfer, no matter how often they may have taken it on the chin from him, have never yet dared a chance to try conclusions with Bobby Jones, suspicion might be aroused by their almost unanimous withdrawal from a journey abroad with the Atlanta amateur this spring for the British open championship.

Horton Smith and Leo Diegel will join Jones at Hoylake for the climax of the British campaign but Walter Hagen, Johnny Farrell and Gene Sarazen, among others, have decided that further sea voyages will not agree with their health.

Hagen, Farrell and Sarazen have dominated the field in the British open for the past two years, with Hagen leading the field each time. Farrell was runner-up last year and Sarazen in 1928. Leo Diegel had a great chance to crash through last year, leading at the halfway mark with 148, but Larry Hupman blew up on the third round.

"Jones is playing greater golf than ever," Johnny Farrell told me on his return from a winter in the south, where the great Georgian broke even in two tussles with the professional stars. "Bobby is hitting his mushie nibble shots sure than I have ever seen him. There has ever been a weakness in his game. It was with this club but he seems to have it under perfect control now."

Farrell regrets his inability to go abroad again as well as that of Hagen, because, he said, "The club always seems to be at his best abroad and would give Jones a good contest."

"In England now, I think Hagen is even more popular than he is at home," added Johnny. "He draws the crowds and has always given a good show. And he seems to play better golf over there than at home."

The switch of Burtleigh Grimes from Pittsburgh to Boston, almost on the eve of the National league opening, may force considerable revision of prominent prospects. It isn't he was hurt. Grimes was the most potent individual factor in the Pirates' battle for 1929 leadership and the most effective right-hander in either league. By no stretch of the imagination can Percy Lee Jones be considered an adequate replacement for Grimes, counting the latter to be in good health and condition.

Grimes, Pie Traynor and Lloyd Waner were the Big Three so far as the Pirates were concerned last year. With the big right-hander gone and the other two on the casualty list for the time being, Pittsburgh's prospects reflect no rosy hues.

It will take more than Grimes to make a pennant contender out of the Pirates but at least it indicates how seriously the Boston club has gone about the big job of dragging itself out of the depths. When he is right, Grimes will win a lot of ball games for Pittsburgh's prospects reflect no rosy hues.
