Eastern Oregon Holiness Meet Held At Cove

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent)
COVE, Ore. (Special)—The Eastern Oregon Holiness association met at Cove Tuesday, April 15. There was a large attendance with representatives from Baker, Wallowa, Joseph, North Powder, Telocuset and La Grande. The Rev. Judson T. Perkins, superintendent of the missionary district at Hyderabad, India, preached in the morning from the 15th chapter of John. The Rev. W. A. Winters and Mrs. Winters, from Baker, were here and contributed some very lovely music for the program. There were several other musical numbers and some readings. A part of the program was in the afternoon and also in the evening. The Rev. and Mrs. Perkins and two daughters appeared in Indian costume in the evening and gave some very interesting details of the life of a missionary among the people of India.

Gordon Mills, who is attending Harvard university, has written to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mills, that he has been listed among the honor students. His parents and his many friends here feel very proud of his achievement. Gordon was graduated from the Cove High school in the summer of 1925 and after graduation spent a year in California where he attended Occidental college. He went east in 1928 and entered Harvard in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Peck returned a few days ago from Salt Lake City where they attended the centenary celebration of the L. D. S. church. They went with Bishop and Mrs. Kohler, of Union, going by car. The trip took two days, spending the next night at Brigham City, where Mrs. Peck has a brother. Several other people from Union went with them, making a party of ten. Mrs. Peck is most enthusiastic over the wonderful event. The program and the many beautiful things that made up the program for this anniversary. While there Mr. and Mrs. Peck visited their daughter, Mrs. Arlene Ross, and their son, Ray, who with their families make their home in Salt Lake City. They also have several other relatives there as it is their home town where Mr. Peck was born and reared and Mrs. Peck was born quite near. They both resided there until coming west 29 years ago.

V. A. Laird has moved his barbershop into the building next to the post office. His new quarters are more attractive than the old and are also in a better location, he believes.

Grover Simmons moved his household goods Tuesday into the Mat Mitchell house where the family will make their home.

E. M. Laird is making some improvements in the Simmons house and will be ready to move in a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Landers, of La Grande, who have purchased a home in Cove, are making daily trips over. They are having some repairs and improvements made in their home here and expect to move over soon.

SMALL ELECTRIC "EYE" CONTROLS LARGE SIGN

SCHEMATICALLY, N. Y. (AP)—Electric eyes—the photo-electric cell—are not very big. Some of them in use here are not much larger than a human eye, somewhat resembling the radio tube.

One of these tiny mechanical eyes controls a new electric sign on top of a laboratory building of the General Electric company.

It turns the sign on and off according to the amount of daylight.

Chemical Strengthens Tires (CINCINNATI, N. Y. (AP)—Phenylenediamines, which are synthetic organic chemicals, are important to motorists because they aid in strengthening rubber in tires. They are just one of a long list of chemicals that in the last 12 years have helped to increase life of tires.

New Observatory Considered (BIRMINGHAM, AP)—Erection of a German astronomical observatory at Windhoek, Southwest Africa is under consideration by the Prussian Academy of Science. Professor Paul Guthnick, director of the Berlin-Babelsberg observatory, recently investigated the feasibility of the project.

Chicago spent more than $1,000,000 in removing the record-breaking snowfall—19 inches—of March 25 and 26.

"Lantern In Her Hand" Scheduled For Union Club

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrall (Observer Correspondent)

Numbered among the successful fishermen reported this early in the fishing season are the three youthful sons of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Conklin. They came in from the Mill pond at 8 a. m. Tuesday with something over 40 fine trout. Dan Marx, of Portland, who came to Union in 1872 and who later made his home for a time at the Levy house, spent a couple of days this week visiting old scenes and friends. He also visited in La Grande where he had formerly lived.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nelson and family are moving over from Enterprise this week and will make their home with his sister, Mrs. Nettie Rich, this summer.
Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Smith and Mrs. George Baird are planning to drive to Gooding today to visit Jane and help her celebrate her birthday.
Attorney I. F. Allen, of Wallowa, was in the city yesterday making pleasant calls on the business men and others interested in the coming election. His interest is centered in the office of the representatives for which he is a candidate.
Two local citizens attended the noonday lunch of the Union chamber of commerce held at Tolson city Tuesday at which Henry Corbett, candidate for governor, was a speaker. They report a conversative, progressive talk given by Mr. Corbett. And the dinner served to the Presbyterian Ladies Aid must have been a feast cooking from their expressions of approval.

Mrs. T. N. Kerr has been quite ill the past few days but is much improved at present. Her daughter, Mrs. Claude Houghton, drove from Klamath Falls Monday evening.
Willie Davis, Mrs. Viola Parkler and L. Z. Terrall were business visitors in Baker on Wednesday.
Miss Bethene Miller was given a good deal of prominence by Senator Norris in a recent production staged by the Cornish school of music and art. She is a pupil of Miss Soelberg and has also taken work in the Hoff school studies.

SENATE FLOOR INVADED BY GIRL SECRETARIES (WASHINGTON, AP)—Girl checks and stenographers have broken into the sacred precincts of the senate floor.
For the first time in history feminine members of the senators' official families have appeared on the floor to supply ammunition for fervent speeches.
Doris Swayze, secretary to Senator Frederick Steiwer of Oregon, supplied him with facts about lumber during one of his recent speeches demanding a duty on the product.
Ruth Elder, 23, stenographer in the office of Senator Norris of Nebraska, came warily upon the senate floor in response to the senator's request for a certain file. She went out again quickly, but Miss Swayze stood her ground, surrounded by a formidable stack of papers, books and documents relating to the lumber industry.

Whenever Senator Steiwer wanted any of them for reference a page started back to the girl secretary. Miss Swayze is an Oregon girl and is thoroughly familiar with the lumber industry.
COLLEGE GIRLS LIKE STUDIES
NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP)—Smith college students here have dealt a blow to the theory that women students prefer social activities to studies. Although only seven nights off the campus are allowed each semester, less than a third of the girls have taken the maximum number.
Thirty-one women students of the University of Illinois had perfect scholastic averages during the first semester.
