The following program took place in the auditorium: a vocal solo by Miss Virginia Bramwell, accompanied by Lenore McCorkle; a piano solo by Jean McKennon; a reading by Ruth Aldrich; and a skit on dress standards, prepared by the standards committee for the benefit of the guests. The final number was a waltz dance in the gym by sixteen girls.

Central P.-T. A. Concludes Season

The last meeting of the Central P.-T. A. for this school year took place yesterday afternoon at the school with the usual rush of business. An interesting subject "Snakes" was chosen by Elmo Stevenson, of the Eastern Oregon Normal school biology department, for the principal talk. Stating that many of the stories of the harmfulness of snakes are based on nothing but superstition and wrong ideas, he compared it to an organization, that would prosper and function smoothly if all the conflicting thoughts and superstitions were omitted and the workers strove together in harmony. An interesting account and historical record of the Central P.T. A. since 1924 was given by Mrs. Stella Ingle. Officers for the coming year were elected and installed by the past president Mrs. H. R. Hanna. Mrs. R. F. Tyler is president, Mrs. N. W. Freese, vice president; Mrs. George N. Knapp, second vice president; Mrs. J. P. Hogenson, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Eakin, secretary; Mrs. Alfred Cook, historian; Mrs. H. E. Dixon, auditor. A song and dance was given by 14 girls of the school when both the retiring and the new officers were presented with corsages.

Miss Catherine Scully Played Several Viola Numbers Accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Evans

A chorus from the opera to be given by the grade schools, May 1 and 2, was sung by the upper grades of the school accompanied by Mrs. Carolyn Carroll. Miss Melva Shepherd played two piano solos. At the art exhibit, May 9 the association will hold a silver tea on the upper floor of the school from 2 to 5 o'clock. Mrs. W. P. Ballard is chairman for this event. A cooked food sale is planned for the near future.

One of the prettiest A. G. S. social events of the year was a spring party held Friday afternoon at the high school honoring the eighth grade girls who will enter L. H. S. next fall.

The following program took place in the auditorium: a vocal solo by Miss Virginia Bramwell, accompanied by Lenore McCorkle; a piano solo by Jean McKennon; a reading by Ruth Aldrich; and a skit on dress standards, prepared by the standards committee for the benefit of the guests. The final number was a waltz dance in the gym by sixteen girls. During the dancing following the program punch was served by Miss Ruby Fiek and several assistants. The following girls were in charge: Miss Jacqueline O'Brien, general arrangements; Miss Judd Blakland, program; Miss Julia Smith, hospitality; Miss Theilma Stearns, standards; Miss Lenore Hendley, programs; Miss Caroline Gray, decorations; Miss Lenore McCorkle played for the dancing.

Do-Nut Club In Pleasant Meeting

P.-T. Association Elects Officers

A large number attended the meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of the Ackerman Training school at the normal school Thursday evening. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Homer Wilson, president; Paul Cook, vice president; R. Z. Baxter, treasurer; Mrs. L. L. Hungerford, secretary. Miss Madeline Larson, of the normal faculty, spoke on worthwhile summer vacation activities and discussed improvised play for children during the summer. She also suggested practical means for securing places to play. Little used back yards or a few blocks roped off on such streets where traffic is light, may be converted into supervised play grounds in the absence of better facilities, she said. Miss Katherine Wisler sang two numbers and Mrs. A. T. Patten discussed the pre-school clinic to be held in La Grande, May 1. Those children to attend the training school next year may go to Dr. C. S. Moore's office any time during the morning on that date. Mrs. P. M. Kennedy of the Riveria school gave an interesting and expressive address of the study club that has been in existence during the last two years. The third grade, taught by Miss Lulla Grace Allen, sang four clever songs and gave a puppet play "The House in the Woods" in which the tiny characters were designed, made and manipulated by the children. This play is a favored old fairy tale coming to light in a very delightful manner. Invitations have been sent to mothers of University of Oregon students from La Grande including Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Mrs. H. J. Ritchey, Mrs. I. B. Jenkins, Mrs.

Light Good for Them
Columbines thrive best in light well-drained, fertile sandy soil in a sheltered position that is not deprived entirely of sunlight, says Nature Magazine. Columbines do well massed in clumps in exposed borders as well as at the edge of wooded areas and in the shade of trees.

Wild Life Not Dying
A great many kinds of wild animals are increasing in the United States. Antelopes, black and brown bear, deer, elk, mountain goats and mountain sheep, and beavers, all show a steady increase in numbers. The grizzly bear, however, faces extinction.

From the Greek
Arctic is from the Greek arctos, a bear, the reference being to the northern constellation of the Great Bear. Antarctic means "opposed to Arctic."

Fills Intermission
An intermezzo is a song in the form of a short burlesque ballet, or a play or opera.

The La Grande Neighborhood club will meet in the La Grande hotel Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. J. E. Ravenscroft, chairman of the public welfare and community service committee, is program chairman for "Community Day," and is presenting a Rathbone, Lella Hyams, Roland Young, Alec B. Francis and a number of others.

The new all-talking murder drama, adapted by Lenore J. Coffey from the S. S. Van Dine best seller, and filmed under the joint direction of Nick Grinde and David Burton is reported to be by far the best all-around mystery-film as yet to come out of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios in Culver City.

Advance reports indicate that particular care was taken to give the new thriller a number of original twists and sequences which keep the audience on its toes while confusing it as to the identity of the real murderer.

The plot concerns a series of murders done by a person who leaves a black chess bishop beside each victim and sends feering notes in "Mother Goose" rhymes to his pursuers, notably, Philo Vance, the popular detective of the Van Dine tales.
