WHAT'LL THEY DO?

TROUTDALE, Ore., Apr. 28 (AP)—A carless switch engine shipped a box car containing six railroad workers across the town limits here and altered the population of Troutdale.

The rural district claimed the six men, who already had been listed in Troutdale census, but Mrs. George T. Geringer, census enumerator, said representatives of the rural district and the town of Troutdale would be given a hearing.

STEED TO TESTIFY

SALEM, Ore., Apr. 28 (AP)—The state board of control expects, in a few days, to hear the testimony of J. Lyman Steed, superintendent of the state school for deaf, who is the target of complaints lodged with the board by the state association of the deaf and by some pupils at the school and their parents.

The testimony of the complainants was heard Friday.

NEW CELL TO CONTINUE

SALEM, Ore., Apr. 28 (AP)—Plans for the construction of a new cell wing at the state penitentiary as a temporary expedient to take care of the congested population cannot be held back even though there is a possibility that the most legislative body in the state will authorize a new penitentiary. Superintendent Henry W. Meyers said today. Re-creation has already begun for the new wing which was authorized at a recent meeting of the state emergency board. It will cost about $85,000.

WILL NAME MANAGER

MOSCOW, Ida., Apr. 28 (AP)—Addressing 75 North Idaho bankers attending an agricultural short course at the University of Idaho here, E. J. Wilmer, president of the North Pacific Grain Growers Inc., northwest regional co-operative marketing unit said a manager for the organization would be named "within a day." Although he would not elaborate on the statement, it was interpreted to mean the manager would be named soon. Wilmer gave no intimation as to who was being considered for the office.

Eloquent Inscription

In Turner, Maine, is a Bible with a flyleaf that bears this inscription: "Mary L. Beckley merited and received this Bible for committing to memory 5,305 verses in the Bible from April, 1850, to April, 1860. May the truth she learned comfort and sustain her in this life and she hear the Savior say in the better land, 'Well done, good and faithful servant.' M. H. Sargent, librarian Sabbath School Library, Boston, Mass., April 4, 1890."
