GRANGE HALL (Special)—The Countywomen's club entertained the Parkdale club Friday afternoon at a delightful luncheon and program at the La Grande hotel. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and was attractively arranged with centerpieces of spring flowers and covers laid for 14. The program composed of speeches, dances, songs and stunts was presented in the gold room. Miss Virginia Conquette dressed in a ballet costume gave a couple of feature dances accompanied at the piano by Miss Clara Norris. Miss Minnie Holman, president of the Countywomen's club, expressed a few words of greeting and Mrs. Clyde Webb, president of the Parkdale club, spoke a few words in response. Miss Norris gave two piano numbers followed by a vocal solo, "The Blush Rose" by Miss Edna Hawley, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. T. R. Maxwell. Miss Hawley's encore number was "The False Prophet." Miss Verelle Bond dressed in an appropriate costume and accompanied at the piano by Miss Norris presented a dance, "Naughty Anne O'Clock." Miss Bond playing her own accompaniment on the guitar sang "The Old Fashioned Locket" and for an encore she whistled "I Listen to the Mocking Bird." For the song stunts the entire group was divided into six units and one unit at a time sang a specified song. Mrs. Edith Gekeler acting as judge pronounced group four the best singers and group three the worst.

DR. PACKARD IS SPEAKER AT CHURCH HERE

A large Monday evening audience heard Dr. Paul Henry Packard, evangelist, at the Christian church at home of the Packard & Neelys. In his characteristic semi-humorous manner he held his hearers interested to the close as he spoke on "The Secret of a Great Revival." He used the example of Nehemiah rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem, following the Babylonian captivity of Israel, in spite of every obstacle because the "people had a mind to work." "Work," declared the evangelist, "is the secret of a great revival." In speaking of present day obstacles to a spiritual revival in the church he mentioned spiritual indifference within the church, and said, "You can talk about infidelity, atheism and modernism being obstacles to modern evangelism, but I tell you it is not those I fear, but I am fearful of the infidelity in the pew."

Tonight at 6 o'clock Dr. Packard will speak to the workers of the church following a potluck luncheon at the church. The official board members and their wives are to be guests at the evening.

Hardware Store Entered, Robbed Saturday Night

(Observer Correspondent)
WALLOWA, Ore., (Special)—The H. B. Halstine Hardware store, which was recently purchased by S. Friend, of Portland, was broken into Saturday night and articles amounting to several hundred dollars were stolen. They consisted of firearms, ammunition, flashlights, pocket knives, fishing outfits and compasses, supplies. Entrance to the building was made by breaking the glass in a window in the back of the store and is thought to have been done about 11 o'clock as a nearby resident heard a crash at that hour. So far, no clue to the robbers has been found.

The junior-senior banquet was given by the Women's club in the high school building last Friday evening, with 50 in attendance. Mrs. C. W. Mumford was chairman of the banquet committee.

Mrs. T. T. Shell was removed to her home Sunday after being in the Wallowa hospital for a month following a major operation. Her many friends are glad to know that she is now improving rapidly. Her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Bushman, of Eugene, is still with her and expects to remain in Wallowa another week.

H. E. Conledge was in town on business Wednesday and was a guest at the home of Bruce Cox while here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Halstine and Mrs. Schaffer motored to Pendleton Saturday for a weekend trip. The picnic which was to have been held Thursday evening, at the head of Wallowa canyon, by Jossia Chapter, O. E. S. was postponed until a later date on account of the rainy weather.

Mrs. C. T. McDaniels has gone to California where she expects to make an extended visit in different sections of the state.

Word has been received from Mrs. Margaret McDonald by friends here that she is engaged in selling real estate in the city of Los Angeles and has recently disposed of her residence in Portland.

"THE SHADOW which pursues us all"
(John Greenleaf Whittier, 1807-1892)

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence, if you would maintain the modern figure of fashion

Women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—men who would keep that trim, proper form, eat healthfully but not immoderately; Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky Strike instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain the lithe, youthful, modern figure.

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette a man ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough.

*Be Moderate! . . . Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quick "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.
