

Kamela People Unable To See Eclipse of Sun

Mrs. C. E. Thornburg (Observer Correspondent) KAMELA, Ore. (Special)—Kamela people were disappointed in not being able to get a glimpse of the sun during the solar eclipse on Monday. Heavy clouds covered the sky all morning and not until afternoon did the sun shine through and then only momentarily.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, of Meacham, and family were visitors for a short time on Friday at the G. Burton home here.

Miss Alta Smith has left the Grande Bluffs hospital and is convalescing at the home of a relative in La Grande. She left the hospital on Sunday and when she is able to travel, she will go to the home of her parents in Pilot Rock until she is strong enough to resume her duties in Kamela grocery store. Miss Smith has made a very satisfactory recovery and her Kamela friends hope to see her here again before very long.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Johnson, of La Grande, drove to Kamela on Saturday and remained until Sunday evening visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Lane here. Their daughter, Clara accompanied them, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Lane are sisters. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Lane and their guests drove to the canyon and returned to Kamela on Sunday night. They had a very successful trip and were able to find any fish.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Schubert and daughter, Lillian, spent Saturday in La Grande. While there they paid a visit to Miss Smith at the hospital and Miss Lillian renewed her acquaintance with some of the nurses. She was a patient there for some time last winter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Tanageris spent the weekend in Elgin, visiting relatives there.

Mrs. H. Horstman returned to Kamela on Sunday evening after a few days visiting in La Grande with her mother, Mrs. T. E. Pearson.

Jack Horstman joined his mother in La Grande on Saturday and returned home with her on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kelley, who spent most of last winter in Kamela, while Mr. Kelley was employed on the highway, were here here last Wednesday night. They spent the night at the Horstman home and continued to La Grande on Thursday, where they spent a few days visiting Mrs. Kenney's mother, Mrs. T. E. Pearson. Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. Horstman are sisters. Mr. Kelley is going to work in Pine Valley for a short time and expects to return soon from Lakeview where they went for a few days.

Mrs. Kennison and daughter, Jean Brooks spent a short time in La Grande on Monday.

Billy Weiss, who is in Kamela finishing school, spent the week-end in La Grande with his mother, Mr. Weiss works in Kamela at present, but expects to go to La Grande to live before very long, and Billy will go there when school is over.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

By Oscar Hitt

R. Higgins, who was recently employed at Westland, is now with his family in Kamela and expects to go to work on May 1.

Leota Horstman, of La Grande, who is remodeling one of the Norden houses in Kamela spent last weekend in La Grande.

Mrs. R. H. Echine and children, John and Lorraine, arrived Tuesday to spend a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Heath.

J. J. Brown, of Baker, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting at the T. Burton home here. Mrs. Brown, who had been a Kamela visitor for a few days returned home with him. Mrs. Brown is Mr. Burton's sister. T. Burton and his guest, Mr. Brown, of Baker, went to Duane on Sunday to fish and gather mushrooms.

Mr. and Mrs. John Heath drove to Pendleton on Sunday taking a load of household goods with them, as they expect to go there on Saturday to make their home.

As a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. John Heath, Kamela residents are going to spend Thursday evening together in the community hall here.

Several friends of Mr. and Mrs. Heath from La Grande are coming, including the Rev. and Mrs. Carlson, who will precede the affair with a religious service. Mrs. Heath has been active in Sunday school work here. After the service refreshments will be served and later games and merry making enjoyed.

A. Kennison, of Meacham, passed through Kamela on his way to Cove on Tuesday.

H. Horstman, of Kamela, made a business trip to Pendleton on Saturday evening.

Mrs. C. E. Thornburg and son Ian, were in La Grande on Saturday. Mr. Thornburg returned home with them but had to return to work in La Grande on Sunday night. He still works on the local freight between La Grande and Joseph.

Herbert Castrol, of Kamela grocery store, went to Meacham to visit relatives on Monday evening.

Mrs. G. Pinnas, of Kamela, returned home on Monday after a pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. C. E. Simonds, of Walla Walla, Wash. Mrs. Pinnas says the flowers are beautiful in Walla Walla now.

While playing on Monday afternoon two little four-year-old boys had an accident, which fortunately was not as serious as it could have been. They had found an old rusty cleaver lying outside somewhere and one was chopping the ground with it, when the other little foot came in the way and the foot was chopped right through the shoe, which happened to be a heavy one, preventing a worse cut. The boy who was hurt was Ian Thornburg and the little fellow who did the chopping was his chum Bobby Hawes. The cut is on the left big toe just below the nail and quite deep, serious enough to keep him off his feet for a few days but healing nicely.

Mrs. F. Barnes and daughters Betty and Melody, accompanied by Mrs. Barnes' mother, Mrs. Chelf spent some time shopping in La Grande on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hawes and family drove to Meacham on Sunday to visit Mrs. Hawes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Casey.

MRS. HAUGSTEN WINS PORTLAND, Apr. 30 (AP)—Leading a field of more than one hundred, Mrs. Mary G. Haugsten of the Portland Golf club won the third women's title of the Oregon Women's Golf association tournament played here yesterday. She turned in the winning round of 96, finishing one stroke ahead of Miss Jean Plageman, Malinomi, who had a 91.

Poverty is no disgrace—but that's about all you can say for it. There are compensations for all things. For example, the fool and his money were lucky to have got together in the first place. The early bird gets his own breakfast. Another bit of good advice is to never start anything you can't stop.

Wallowa County Farmers Greet Soaking Rains

By G. C. Meek (Observer Correspondent)

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—The general trend of farm work has gone forward at a very satisfactory pace in this community during the past few weeks. There has been no interruption from stormy weather until the past week when a fairly heavy rain fell over portions of the county. The soil was too wet in most fields to allow working on Thursday, but on Friday all farmers were busy plowing and doing other field work, only to be stopped by a heavy rain which commenced falling early Saturday morning and has continued at intervals up to the first of this week. The moisture appears to have gone into the soil to a depth of several inches and in the opinion of many will be worth many thousands of dollars to the county. A considerable amount of summerfallow plowing has been going on in many parts of the community during the past ten days, and some of the men report the soil becoming quite dry in places, making plowing difficult. However, with the large amount of moisture this trouble will be eliminated for awhile at least. The woods and volunteer grain have made a good start on the most of the land which was in crop last year and much of it is being killed in plowing, according to reports from farmers and in nearly all instances the grain is reported to be germinating and coming up very good. Much garden planting has been done during the past two weeks and this stuff is looking very well in early gardens. Stockmen say that it has been a number of years since they have seen forage conditions as good as they are at present. The early bunchgrass on the foothills has reached a height of four and five feet and has not been pastured to where it has been pastured to heavily and the valleys are growing nicely and providing excellent pasture for dairy herds and other stock held on the irrigated farms.

A number of the sheep owners of this community have experienced much difficulty in keeping the maggots from doing serious damage in their flocks. In some instances light losses have been suffered from this cause. Many of the ewes were tagged at lambing time and the exceptionally warm weather conditions which has brought flies at a much earlier time than is usual for this community is said to be responsible for this condition. Flies have also proved a serious menace to the docking of late lambs and a close watch is being maintained on many flocks of lambs in order to keep them from becoming infested. Sheep flocks in general are said to be doing exceptionally well. Many of the lambs came during the latter part of February and early March and with good range conditions which has resulted in the ewes remaining in good flesh and giving plenty of milk has allowed the lambs to make a fine growth. Lambing in some of the flocks which were lambing during the early part of March look as though they would weigh 50 pounds and possibly more each. Part of the cattle this community have been moved to summer ranges where the grass is said to be well started. Many heads have been treated with sheep dip as a preventative from tick infestation.

Many people from various parts of the county have been visitors here during the past week to attend the sale of bankrupt stock at the H. B. Harsten & Co. Inc., which is being closed out. Many of the smaller articles offered for sale as well as various kinds of furniture and fixtures have been a good sale, according to those in charge. Farm machinery and larger articles have not come out so rapidly. On Saturday Clyde Broxson, who farms extensively in the Chapman district, was a visitor in town and purchased a new brain binder at the sale. Joseph Peagins, of Lepp, was a business visitor in town last week. He reports a soaking rain in that community on Saturday and that crops of all kinds are looking well. A large supply of ground squirrels are reported from nearly all parts of this community. The young rodents have started making their appearance. Some of the farmers state that they have been doing some poisoning since the first appearance of the old squirrels in February, but have not been able to get any large number of them with the poison. Many reports very effective results from the use of poison gas and a large amount of this has been used on some of the large farms in the hill farming sections. Crin Hudson who recently leased a tract of farming land in the Diamond prairie section has been seeding the ground to oats. He reports finishing his seeding just before the rains. He expects to move his team and plow to the Dry creek section in a few days to start plowing summerfallow on a farm which they have rented there. Ed Bell, who farms the C. A. Hunter hill ranches, was a business visitor in town the last of the week. Mr. Bell states he has finished his spring seeding at the farm and is ready to start plowing summerfallow as soon as the weather becomes settled. George Cussins and Roy Gastin were Joseph business visitors the latter part of the week. Mrs. Harry Hearing, of Evans, and Miss Ann Murphy, who teaches the school in district No. 49, were visitors in town the latter part of the week. Kenneth Keeler recently commenced work for Mr. W. Weatly, of Middle valley. H. D. Bechtel has been on the sick list for the past several days. He is reported to be somewhat improved. Guy Downing, who lives on a small place in the Bear creek district, reports the sale of a considerable number of baby chicks, which they have hatched with in this spring. The chicks are pure bred Buff Orpingtons, and have come ready sale at 20 cents each. T. O. Fearnis was a business visitor in town the last of the week from his home in the North woods. He reports roads drying and grass starting well in that section.

Imbler School Stands High In F. F. A. Contest

Leitha Cleaver (Observer Correspondent)

IMBLER, Ore. (Special)—Out of 33 schools, Imbler has been chosen twice to compete in the F. F. A. contest at O. S. C. Three boys went from here this year. They were Clifford Cornted, Elford Smith, Virgil Chubb, and sixth grade girl, $168 each; Dorothy Crouser and Dorothy West, second, 50 cents each. The two winning posters will be sent to the state contest with a chance at the $500 prize. This contest is sponsored by the auxiliary. The following are the ones to enter posters for the contest: Neta Wilson, Alice Westenskow, Ruth Hale, Jane Wright, Ruth Conklin, Marjorie Howell, Donna Watson, Doris Keenan, Doratha West, Dorothy Crouser, Farrell Skilling, Emma Cox, Neil Martin, Verna Graybeals, Melba Westenskow, Donald Keefe and Elva Richardson. These are from the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Dorothy Harold Wise of the seventh and eighth grades, also entered. Many good posters were entered making it difficult to choose the best. A special meeting of the members of the auxiliary was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ruth Westenskow. Plans were made for Mother's Day, remembering the fathers of mothers were present at the meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Ray West had as their Sunday dinner guest, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lanman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanderson of Summerville. The afternoon was spent in visiting. Mrs. Roy Buoy and Mrs. Ray West have been on the sick list this week. Both have been reported much better. Maude McCreary was among the students who took the trip to the Columbia River basin. Maude remained at Irigoin visiting relatives. Many little chicks have been ordered by the farmers around Imbler. Otis Golding, who runs a small chicken farm near Imbler has received 1,023 chicks and expects to order more. Don Rickman, of Starbuck has ordered over 2,000. Several of the boys in the Smith-Hughes department in the high school have ordered chicks for their years projects. These range from 100 to 500 to the project.

Chas. Cleaver left Tuesday morning for Wallowa lake where he will remain until about September. Mrs. Cleaver plans to join him later when the resort opens. He is helping to get the lake in order for the summer. Wm. Rollins and Mrs. Rose Garms, fox farmers, had some bad luck before the other day. Mr. Rollins lost ten pups out of two litters which would amount to several hundred dollars. These were blue foxes. Until this happened, Mr. Rollins has been very fortunate in not losing pups. Mrs. Garms lost several silver fox pups this year. She has just started her farm, raising blue and silver fox.

Two eggs, well beaten. Four and one-half cups flour. Crumble yeast, add lukewarm water and soak until well softened. Add milk, butter, sugar, salt, eggs. 2 cups flour. Beat four minutes. Add rest of flour and place in greased bowl. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Roll out on floured board until dough is one-fourth inch thick. Use sharp knife and cut in lengths 4 1/2 inches long and one-third inch wide. Spread with melted butter and twist each roll. Place on greased inch apart on greased baking sheets. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Spread tops with warm milk, bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. Asparagus Salad in Gelatin (1 package lemon flavored gelatin mixture) One and three-fourths cups boiling water. Two tablespoons lemon juice. One-half teaspoon salt. One-fourth teaspoon pepper. One teaspoon sugar. One cup diced celery. One cup sliced, cooked or canned asparagus. Three tablespoons chopped pimientos. Two tablespoons finely chopped green pepper. One tablespoon finely chopped onions. Four water over gelatin mixture and stir until dissolved. Add lemon juice, salt, pepper, sugar. Allow to cool. Add other ingredients, pour into individual molds, rinse out with cold water. Set in cold place to stiffen. Unmold and serve on nests of shredded lettuce. Remove one teaspoon of gelatin from top of each mold and place one tablespoon of mayonnaise in each indentation. Insert tiny wires to resemble handles of baskets and intertwine the "handles" with fine greenery.

Basket Dessert Eight individual angel food cakes. One quart orange sherbet. One cup whipped cream. One cup variegated gum drops. Eight strips angelica. Bake angel food cakes in deep muffin pans. The cakes should be one day old before used. Remove crumbs from cakes, leaving cases. Place cases on light green paper doilies and fill with orange sherbet. Sprinkle tops with gum drops and insert angelica strips for handles. Little Fellow to next door neighbor—Say, mister, are you the man who gave my brother a dog last week? Neighbor—Yes. Little Fellow—Well, ma says to come and take them all back. Henry—How gracefully Cashman seems to eat corn on the cob. Joseph—He ought to. He's a piece o' playah.

Gardener (applying for a job)—I see you asked for a married man, madame. Is that because you have some work for my wife? Madame—Oh no, I want a married man to be sure he is used to taking orders from women.
