turned in, all from boxes, and asked the commission for authority to remove four of the alarm boxes. He stated that the majority of fire calls are turned in over the telephone. Medford is already following this plan and finds it successful, he said. An investigation will be made before further action is taken.

Cherry Trees Set Out
Commissioner Charles Playle reported that the work of setting out cherry trees on the city property at the sewage disposal plant has been completed, and praised Street Commissioner Orville Wright for his work in this connection. A total of 241 cherry trees, Royal Annes, Bing and a few May Dukes, have been set out. Mr. Playle supervised the project. Mr. Thomas and his class of high school students were interested spectators at the meeting.
