THOMPSON WINS FROM CHAMPION

Welterweight Title Changes Hands—Fields Game in His Defeat.

By Charles W. Dunkley (Associated Press Sports Writer) DETROIT, May 10 (AP)—For the first time in 23 years a negro...

Fields, who won the championship from Detroit just ten months ago, went down to crushing defeat in his first defense of the honor.

Thompson battered Fields from pillar to post, winning so convincingly that referee E. J. (Slim) McKeand threatened to stop Thompson's fight.

When the referee shoved Thompson's weary arm into the air in victory, the Oakland lad became the first negro welterweight champion since Joe Wolcott won the title from Babe Forns in Port Erie, Ont., in 1901.

The passing of Fields was spectacular and at times pathetic. He was hammered into a corner and might have fallen a victim to a knockout punch after the tenth round.

Fields left the ring with his spirit crushed and tears streaming down his face.

"I'll never be champion again," he moaned, as he sat on his right hand in his dressing room.

Between tears Fields pulled himself together and lauded his conqueror.

"I tried my best, but lost to a better man than all I can say," he said.

Thompson was jubilant over his victory. He was 10 years old at his father's birthday. He received his triumph as a birthday present to his dad.

Thompson in Danger Once The new champion came dangerously near being knocked out in the second round when he staggered for an instant from right-hand punches to the chin.

Fields, in defeat, received $27,500, the amount guaranteed him, while Thompson got exactly $2500 for his victory.

DETROIT, May 10 (AP)—Young Jack Thompson who won the world's welterweight championship from Jackie Fields in a 15-round bout last night, was given hospital treatment this morning for nasal hemorrhages.

DETROIT, May 10 (AP)—The 1930 five-man Northwest International Bowling championship goes to the Raina Metallic Packing company of Spokane, with a score of 2475.

SEATTLE WITHIN ONE GAME OF WIN

Three Straight Victories Over Portland Put Series Almost on Ice.

By the Associated Press A slugging and two pitchers' duels featured play in the Coast League yesterday, which saw the team in first and second position in the standings defeated while San Francisco, in third place, edged closer to the top notch by virtue of a 9 to 23 victory over Hollywood at Los Angeles.

The pitchers' duels were fought at Portland, where Seattle defeated the Beavers-Ducks 3 to 2, making it three straight in the present series. And at Oakland, where a relief hurler held the Sacramento Senators to four scattered hits to give the A's a 2 to 1 win.

Seattle Bunches Hits There was little to choose between Orman and Hanson, moundmen respectively for Portland and Seattle. Both allowed seven hits, while Hanson collected four strikeouts against Orman's three.

Bob Hurst, usually a relief pitcher, went the entire route, for the Oaks while Louie Vinel, a product of the same state, lasted seven innings on the mound for Sacramento. He was relieved by Alan Gould. Vinel was credited with the defeat since all six of Oakland's hits were made off him.

The Mission and Angels played ranged baseball at San Francisco, the local nine finally emerging from the contest, which saw 35 hits of which 4 were home runs and eleven doubles on the long end of a 17 to 12 score. Ted Pinette, Mission pitcher, was the star of the game. Pinch hitting for Christensen in the eighth, he eluded a homer with the bases full.

Seals Win Again The San Francisco Seals made it four straight over the Hollywood Stars at Los Angeles, besting the movie city team 5 to 2, Jerry Donovan, with four singles, and Jimmy Cavaney with two doubles and a single, led the assault which netted the Seals 16 hits.

At Portland: R. H. E. Seattle 3 7 0 Portland 2 7 2 Hanson and Borroni; Orman and Woodall.

At Oakland: R. H. E. Sacramento 1 4 2 Oakland 2 6 1 Vinel, Gould and Wirt; Hurst and Reed.

At Los Angeles: R. H. E. San Francisco 9 14 1 Hollywood 3 7 1 Zinn and Gaston; Hollerson, Yde and Busler.

At San Francisco: R. H. E. Los Angeles 12 17 1 Missions 17 12 0 Baecht, Walsh, Holding, Peters and Hannah; Warren; Custer Nelson and Hartmann.

Chicago Takes First Place In National League

By Hutch S. Fullerton Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer) So far this season, the American League has been reversing the usual order of things and producing a large number of pitching leaders while the National League sluggers have held the upper hand.

Cincinnati engaged in its fourth successive close game yesterday, losing the series opened to Philadelphia, 3 to 1, through one costly error. Joe Stripp's bid throw to first in the second inning paved the way for two Philadelphia runners and Ray Henge held the upper hand on the mound through the rest of the game while Jake May did about as well.

Cubs in First Place Through all the rest of the National League, only one other pitcher went the route. Hal Carlson lasted nine innings while the Chicago Cubs took first place away from the New York Giants by leading them, 6 to 5, but he maver 14 hits. The Cubs got only 11, but they bunched the longer ones for three runs off Hal Pratt in the eighth inning.

Highly Criticized lost his chance to do something for the Boston Braves by being too polite in umpiring Mike Lombus. After protesting several decisions, Glittenford one hit and his exaggerated thanks earned him a trip to the showers. Wee Willie Shorrel finally earned the Cardinals a 10 to 6 victory over the Braves when he stepped in after Boston's five out rally in the third and pitched off the long St. Louis lead.

Bill Clark of Brooklyn and Jess Peely of Pittsburgh opened in a five round duel for seven innings but both departed suddenly in each team scored four runs in the eighth. Brooklyn won the game, 7 to 4.

Legend Brown of Washington and Bob Grove of Philadelphia went to the top of the American League pitchers as they each won game No. 2 with no defeats. Brown had a rather rocky time against the Chicago White Sox, giving 13 hits, but the Senators hit even harder and won by a 14 to 3 margin. Grove was effective after his usual bad first inning and the Athletics took the American League lead by beating Cleveland, 9 to 4. Grove added four strikeouts to his league leading total, making it 29.

George Uhle did somewhat better in the strifeful line against the New York Yankees, who count him as something of a jinx. He pitched eight as Detroit won a 5 to 1 victory and checked all the Yankee hitters except Earl Genco, who drove in all of New York's runs with a homer and a double.

Danny MacFayden took his turn in combining pitching prowess with Tom Oliver's hitting to give the Boston Red Sox their third successive victory. He held the St. Louis Browns to six hits for a 5 to 2 triumph while he took one outfielder made two no hits to make it 13 consecutive games in which he has hit safely.

HEROES FOR A DAY

By Oscar Hitt

Don Moe Leading Field Today On Sandwich Links

SANDWICH, Ene., May 10 (AP)—Don Moe, youthful member of the American Walker Cup team from Portland, Ore., burned up the Sandwich course with a 71 today as the St. George's challenge cup competition got under way. George Voight, of New York, was right behind with a 72.

Moe's fine 71 gave him a tie for the lead with the Hon. Michael Scott, British amateur, with most of the 18-hole scores in. Both Moe and Scott played brilliantly all the way to get their 71's.

George Van Elm, Detroit, and Dr. G. E. Willing, Portland, Ore., to the other two members of the invading team to enter this 26-hole medal play event for the most prized of British amateur stroke competition trophies, turned in 73's.

The first round scores also included a 75 by Douglas Grant, former Californian.

T. A. Torrance, of the British Walker Cup team, turned in a 74. Dr. Willing had a good chance to score better. Dan Torrance until he was handicapped on the fifteenth and needed a six.

British Walker Cup team absentees today are Robert Harri who is recovering from a recent minor operation; J. A. Stout, who blistered a hand practicing last week; and Cyril Tolley, who has been trying his shots on French courses since his return from the United States.

Some of the other contestants could come up to the performance of Moe and Scott in the opening round and they began the final 18 holes at the head of the pack.

Moe's 71 and Voigt's 72 were considered the more remarkable because of the fact that they were playing the difficult St. George's course for the first time in competition. Both were named for Walker Cup play this year for the first time and Moe is the baby of the team.

Huskies Defeat Oregon State In Dual Track Meet

SEATTLE, Wash., May 10 (AP)—The Pacific Coast conference and track season was officially opened in the Pacific Northwest on the University of Washington field yesterday when the Washington Huskies trounced the Oregon State college team 76 1-2 to 52 1-2.

Although no records were broken Paul Jessup, 6 foot 6 inch Husky weightman, gave the spectators a thrill with a 51 foot 5 inch shot put throw. The performance did not count, however, as Jessup fouled on the toss. His next best was 49 feet 4 1/2 inches which won the event. Washington captured 11 first places and Oregon State three. The high jump was a triple tie with the Beavers placing two men and Washington one.

Oregon State capped the half mile run, javelin and pole vault events.

Young won the half in one minute 26.4 seconds. Eller the javelin with a toss of 173 feet 4 1/2 inches and McLean the pole vault with a leap of 12 feet.

Crosby Pendleton garnered both the sprints for the Huskies. Jessup captured the discus and shot put and Captain Anderson won both hurdles races.

The best performance of the meet was turned in by Talbot Huxley, Washington quarter miler when he won 11 1/2 mile relay for his team in a Garrison finish. He trailed Kirk, O. S. U. anchor man at the last exchange of the baton by ten feet and beat him to the tape with a brilliant sprint.

course for the first time in competition. Both were named for Walker Cup play this year for the first time and Moe is the baby of the team.

LYMAN SCORES Richard "Moss" Lyman, La Grande member of the O. S. U. team, scored a number of the points for his college in the dual meet with Washington yesterday. He vaulted 11 feet 6 inches to tie for second place with two others, and leaped 5 feet 10 inches to enter a triple tie for first place in the high jump.

CAGLE QUILTS THE ARMY TO BE GRID COACH

WEST POINTE, N. Y., May 10 (AP)—Christian Kormor Cagle, one of Army's greatest football stars, has decided to submit his resignation immediately after his graduation June 12 from the military academy in order to accept a coaching position at Mississippi A. and M. He also will work for "a large commercial house."

Cagle's plans were announced yesterday by Major Phillip D. Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at the military academy, because of Cagle's prominence in the athletic world. Major General William R. Smith authorized the cadet to make a statement in his own behalf.

"It is with considerable regret," Cagle said, "that I shall submit my resignation to the war department after graduation, in order to accept two positions in civil life, one as football coach at Mississippi A. and M. and the other with a large commercial house. The combined salary is considerably more than the pay of a major.

RUPTURE

Don't submit to avoidable operations of the use of antineurotic trusses, as they all set where the lump is and not where the opening is. The opening is seldom larger than a dime (no matter the size of the rupture), and all cases can be retained with the aid of a heat pencil.

"The Spermatic Shield-Complex in combination with the Retainer-Simplex (Pat. No. 747247 and other patents pending) is a scientific achievement in a highly specialized art. It will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Infinitely superior to any instrument method or operation and producing results in no other way obtainable. All cases are secured a lifetime as against further trouble or expense. Large or difficult cases or incisional ruptures (following operations) especially solicited. This instrument received the only award in England and in Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatments or prescriptions, with distinguished personal patrons of all nations.

Sport Slants

by ALAN J. GOULD

The Kentucky Derby always has been among the most colorful of American sports events. It is one of the few that retains the rich flavor of tradition, for the old harnessmen of the Blue Grass regard this race as their own and conduct it accordingly, even though airplanes and special cars bring in annually their quota of wealthy turfmen from all parts of the country.

This year England's Earl of Derby, descendant of the man for whom the original Epsom race was named, will witness Kentucky's classic but America's Earl—non-official than the great rider, Earl Sande—will be the focus of all eyes. If he sprints a come-back stride Gallant Fox, the Holsh Stude's favorite and winner of the Baltimore Breakers Friday.

Sande's career has been one of dramatic episodes. He was America's premier jockey when he rode Zev to triumph over the English Derby winner Papyrus in the 1909-1910 international race at Belmont park in 1923. Zev won the Kentucky Derby that year and in 1925 Sande was up on another Derby winner, Clifford Cochran's Flying Ebony.

Sande was nearly killed in an accident at Saratoga. He has owned his own stable. He was disbarred for rough riding in Maryland and reinstated. And now he is back to the races, riding with all the daring and skillful judgment of pace that made him so famous. Kentucky will give him a cheer and a big one at Churchill Downs on May 17.

Public links golf, now a $7,000,000 enterprise annually for some 275 courses scattered about the country, first attracted notice when a municipal tournament was held at Van Cortlandt Park, New York, in November, 1896. In contrast with the present high-powered national championship for public parks' players, the U. S. G. A. recalls that 25 contestants finished the first tournament and that the medal was won by C. M. Hamilton with a 39 for 18 holes. Ninth on the list was Walter J. Travis, later another champion of both the United States and Great Britain, who used an artificial rubber tee and compiled a score of 119.

The late William Howard Taft was a strong early advocate of using public parks for athletic purposes, particularly golf, which he once told interviewers "is the least injurious of outdoor games to the landscape features of our parks."
