Union Churches Pay Tribute To Mothers Sunday

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrall (Observer Correspondent)

UNION (Special)—Mother's day will be observed in the Union churches with appropriate exercises Sunday morning. At the Methodist church there will be special music and the Rev. H. C. Lee will give an address entitled "Your Mother and Mine." In the evening Mr. Lee will deliver the baccalaureate address and has chosen for his subject, "Mother's Day." There will be special music by the junior choir and Mrs. Edith Phyllis will sing a solo. The church decorations for the morning services will be under the able supervision of Mrs. E. E. Miller who devotes much time to the selection and arrangement of flowers for Sunday services.

The morning services at the L. H. S. church will be devoted to a program of exercises by the Sunday school classes with special music.

Gene Simpson, state superintendent of the same department accompanied by his son John came in from Corvallis yesterday with a load of equipment for the game pens that are to be constructed on Sunday. Sportsmen are requested not to forget their hammers, saws, spades and above all something to use as filler at noon. Lunch will be eaten at the club house at noon.

Canon Warden (Cornell, Eugene and Follans and Oscar Pouch, president of the La Grande Gun club, are planning to come on Sunday. Mr. Cornell and Richard Bonney Jr. will go to Pendleton today to bring over the remainder of the pheasant eggs.

H. H. Bonney took a load of tiny rainbow trout to the Enterprise hatchery on Tuesday. On Friday he was accompanied to Halfway by Doc Follans where they released a load of rainbow trout in the North Pine creek.

Louis Biderer drove to Amity last Tuesday to bring Mrs. Mary Townley to Union where she will visit for sometime with her daughter, Mrs. Biderer. They are expected this evening.

Mrs. Louis Biderer returned the first of the week from Nampa where she had been visiting. Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Merrill whom they visit frequently in Boise have gone to Boston to attend a medical convention and visit his parents. While there Dr. Merrill will take a six weeks medical course.

The American Legion and auxiliary held their business meeting Monday night at the Women's club house. Following their business meetings they had a joint social meeting. Pincush was indulged in until time for refreshments which were served by the women.

A special request has been extended to all members of the American Legion and auxiliary to attend the Sunday morning services in honor of the gold star mothers.

Mrs. Ada Jolley, of Portland, who is state president of the W. C. T. U., addressed the members of that organization at a meeting held at the Christian church in Union on Thursday. A covered lunch dinner was served at the church at noon and was followed by a meeting. Another meeting was held in the evening.

The Presbyterian Aid and Missionary society held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Viola Parker on Friday afternoon. Rows

The Wesley Adkins family moved this week to the property bought recently from Mrs. Alta McMillan. Mrs. and Mrs. Adkins moved to the house owned by the Adkins family and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Niles of Haines moved to the S. E. Miller house.

The committee chosen by the commercial club to make plans for the highway cleanup work on Saturday was composed of Grant Tucker, Jacob Kohler and T. D. Smith. This committee conferred with the committee chosen by the Women's club and American Legion auxiliary and it was planned to get forces out to aid in a general cleanup along the highway. It was announced that a dinner would be served by the women of the club on Saturday to those doing the work. But after visiting property owners along the highway it was decided that it would be unnecessary to solicit outside aid in this work, as they willingly consented to clean up their own premises bordering the highway.

Friends of Miss Louna Rosewell will be interested to hear of her marriage recently to Bert Tucker of Walla Walla. The wedding took place at the Christian church in Wenatchee on the evening of April 6 in the presence of numerous friends. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Edith Rosewell of Union and the bridegroom a son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Tucker of Walla. Mrs. Tucker will complete her term of school in the Wenatchee grades and will then go to Walla Walla to join her husband, who is district horticultural for Eastern Washington. Both young people have a large circle of friends whose good wishes attend them in this new venture.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Fox were hosts to the bridge club on Wednesday and a jolly evening was passed in playing "mayonnaise bridge." Some high scores resulted with Mr. and Mrs. William Vogel carrying off the honors. Consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Mary Hutchinson and E. P. Hutchinson. The hostesses served a tasty two-course lunch after the scores were counted.

The Methodist Missionary society held its regular monthly meeting at the church on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Halsey presiding at the business session. Mrs. Flora Kiehlbeck led the devotional during which Mrs. Viola Parker gave a very interesting reading. The subject for the afternoon was "Child Welfare" and several took part in the program with a solo by Mrs. Edith Phyllis on a special feature. A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Phyllis. The members voted to send resolutions of sympathy to Mrs. Winters in her recent deep bereavement. Rev. Winters was pastor in the Methodist church of Union several years ago and both he and Mrs. Winters made many friends here.

Mrs. William H. Nelson who moved to Union from Enterprise a few weeks ago hoping the change might benefit her health passed away at Hot Lake at 6 o'clock Thursday morning. She was taken over in the afternoon of the preceding day. Besides her husband and her sister, Mrs. Nettie (Rich) six children survive her. Two of them, Fern and Irene are in school here and she leaves a small niece, Dorothy whom she was raising. Because of the distance some of the relatives will have to come the funeral will not be held until Monday. Rev. E. C. Lee will conduct the services from the Cook Undertaking parlor.

The Levys lost their valuable Australian parrot this week. Aside from his value the bird had won a place of deep affection during the four years they had kept him.

17 To Graduate From Wallowa High This Year

By Edna Renfrow Hunter (Observer Correspondent)

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—Seventeen pupils are to graduate from high school this year, and commencement exercises will be held at the gymnasium on Monday, May 19th. Those receiving diplomas are: Helen Brooks, Marjorie Martin, Mae Itopp, Inez Roberts, Dorothy Johnson, Bernice Bartlow, Judith McGraw, Lydia Lane, Helen Allen, Harold McKinzie, Clarence Mumford, Jack Gault, Melville Pines, Ross Johnson, Walter Johnson, James Loundagin and David Couch.

C. E. Hood, who has spent the past six months in Wallowa at the home of his son, Ross, left Wednesday for Salem, where he expects to locate.

C. A. Hunter met with a painful accident last Monday when he was working on a head gate on one of his farms and caught the middle finger of his left hand between a 2 by 12 plank and the cement head gate, mashing the finger so badly that the nail had to be removed and the injured member dressed at the Wallowa hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. O'Brien, of La Grande, were in town Thursday on business and calling on old friends here. The O'Briens are former residents here, having lived in Wallowa many years before moving to La Grande.

Mrs. Geo. Coleman of Powhatka, who has been spending a month with her daughter, Mrs. Lawton McDaniel, returned to her home Thursday.

Fred Rich, manager of the local MacMarr store for the past year has been transferred to Joseph and will move his family there as soon as school is out. Orville Adley, of Enterprise is the new manager of the store here. Mrs. Adey and baby son arrived in Wallowa to make their home.

Wallowa county has one war mother, who expects to visit her son's grave in France early in July. She is Mrs. Anna Nolan, of Lostine, and has received her transportation from the government to France. Her son, Albert Edwards is buried there.

The announcement in the assembly of the Wallowa High school Wednesday morning by Gordon McGinnis, that there was a married couple in school, disclosed a secret that had been carefully guarded by Clarence Mumford, and Elsie Hubler, two high school students, since holiday time. The young couple were duly showered with rice and given a charivari in the evening by their school associates. Clarence is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mumford of this city and a senior in the high school. Miss Hubler's home is at Maxville. She is a sophomore student. Their many friends are wishing them success and happiness in their married life.

A number of Wallowa women motored to La Grande Friday to attend the Pythian State convention in session there. Among those going were: Mrs. Bruce Cox, Mrs. Geo. Dale, Mrs. O. F. Campbell, Mrs. Ora McKinzie, Mrs. Hugh Daugherty, Mrs. L. E. Allen and Mrs. John Bratton.

Herbert Jones, of the Wallowa Sun office, went to Eugene Thursday to attend the Junior weekend at the University of Oregon. Ray Griffin of La Grande joined him there and the young men drove through together. Both are members of Psi Kappa fraternity at Oregon.

Richard Dix Comes to State Starting Sunday

In a role he chose himself from among all available dramatic material, Richard Dix comes to the screen of the State theater Sunday. As the hero-novelist of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," Dix begins his new career as a star of radio pictures. It is an auspicious start, giving Dix a part he had long longed to play, and fulfilling his promise to top the best of his brilliant career.

The talking screen drama presents Dix as a writer who encounters an amazing night of adventure in a deserted inn.

Two veterans of the Broadway stage presentation, Joseph Allen and Carleton Macey, re-enact their parts in support of Dix. Others in the cast are Miriam Seegar, De Witt Jennings, Lucien Littlefield, Nella Walker, Joseph Herbert, Allen Roscoe, Harvey Clark and Edith Yorke.

A bigger Problem than PROHIBITION

WASHDAY DRUDGERY MUST BE REPEALED

Women of La Grande Overwhelmingly Favor Freedom!

Whether you vote "wet" or "dry" on the Prohibition question—whether you favor repeal, modification or strict enforcement of the 18th Amendment—you must decide at once a far more vital problem:

"What shall be done about washday in the home?"

Your family's health and happiness are at stake. For washday drudgery not only is robbing millions of women of their youth, their charm, their ability to enjoy life to the full. But it is also depriving children of that precious companionship and guidance which is their birthright.

Washday does not belong in modern life. Its back-ache and bother, its drain on energy, its thievery of golden leisure hours—are relics of the Dark Ages when women worked in the fields. For the home's sake—for our community's sake—let's abolish washday and clothesline drudgery forever!

3 Million Families Know How

We have made a business of washday. Our scientific standards now assure safe, gentle care for your weekly washing. Rainsoft water in every suds and rinse gives cleaner, longer-lived clothes. Our prompt, efficient service is offered to you—at real thrift prices! No wonder so many families in this community "Let the Laundry do it."

Declare your sentiments on the appropriate ballot. Then phone us today for service. Vote the Laundry Ticket every week and repeal old-fashioned washday in your home!
