1930 GLOVES ARE DIFFERENT

It's off with the old gloves, on with the new. And they are certainly new, or we might say old time gloves staging a come-back. For even lace mitts are quite the thing for formal wear. They will do wonders for not-so-new things that need a refreshing touch. And you can afford many pairs. For they will not be extravagance at these low prices.

Club Women Hold Business Session During Afternoon

A brief business session was held Tuesday afternoon at the meeting of the La Grande Neighborhood club with Mrs. Charles Dwyer, vice-president, presiding in the absence of Dr. Margaret Logie, who with Mrs. R. E. Murphy, Mrs. B. E. Westenhaver, Mrs. A. T. Mill, Mrs. C. R. Eberhard, Mrs. E. D. Towler and Mrs. Donald Parize are delegates at the convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs in Salem.

Several matters were discussed for the future including the budget system for finances and club attendance.

Mrs. Julius Roesch, from the American Legion auxiliary, announced the annual poppy sale and urged that club members buy poppies.

The program of the Ladies' Guild choir under the direction of Mrs. Alfred L. Richardson will be presented Wednesday May 21 at the La Grande High school with an invitation extended to the public to attend.

Mothers, Daughters Meet At Banquet

The second annual Mothers and Daughters banquet of the Pukwana Camp Fire group was held last evening at the M. E. church with about 15 girls and their mothers present. Dinner was served at tables arranged in an L-shape with the girls seated across from their mothers. Decorations were in a color scheme of four pastel shades, yellow, pink, blue and lavender featured in a miniature Maypole.

An entertaining program was presented with Miss Alys Cook, assistant guardian, presiding as toastmistress. Pretty essays were presented to each of the mothers. Miss Lenora Hendley played a piano solo, responding with an essay. This was followed by a reading by Miss Margaret Dixon, "The Minister's Mistake," a little play, was presented by Miss Barbara Coolidge, the minister; Miss Joan McKennon, Mrs. Smith and Miss Margaret Davy, the maid. A piano solo by Miss Janet Binger concluded the program.

Mothers present were: Mrs. H. E. Dixon, Mrs. C. C. Headley, Mrs. Marguire, Mrs. E. Hollister, Mrs. Blank, Mrs. H. E. Coolidge, Mrs. J. J. Broomfield, Mrs. Benwick, Clark, Mrs. Charles Binger, Mrs. E. F. Wilcock, Mrs. J. D. McKennon, Mrs. J. R. Davy and Mrs. Agnield. Mrs. George Birnie, assistant guardian of the group, Miss Blanche Clark and Miss Alice Boylen were also present. Girls attending were: Janet Binger, Alta Blank, Fern Broomfield, Lyda Mae Hollister, Ruth Maguire, Clarice Taylor, Leola Wilcock, Barbara Coolidge, Jean McKennon, Lenora Headley, Margaret Davy, Margaret Dixon, and Helen Armfield.

Mrs. R. F. Tyler is guardian of the group and assisting her in preparing for the banquet were Miss Alta Lillie, Miss Alice Klippel and Miss Mabel Morton, members of Y. W. E. A. the association sponsoring the Pukwana Camp Fire girls.

Monday Bridge Club Entertained

At a charming bridge-luncheon Mrs. Peter McDonald was hostess to the Monday Bridge club at her country home. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with places laid for 12. A pretty bowl of tulips in pastel shades centered the table and lovely bouquets of spring flowers were arranged about the room.

Honors for high tally were won by Mrs. W. H. Safford, club prize, and Mrs. H. O'Brien, guest prize. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Safford.

Wistaria Bridge Club Entertained

Members of the Wistaria Bridge club were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Clyde Hoppel at their home last night at a delightful evening of cards with three tables at play. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hanson won the prize for high score. A dainty two-course luncheon was served. A pretty color scheme of red and white, was unusual because of the red lilacs used. Other flowers were white lilacs and tulips. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Hanson in two weeks.

Herbert—Would you marry an idiot for the sake of his money?
Rose—Oh, this is so sudden.
Auntie—And were you a very good little girl at church this morning?
Sally—Oh, yes, aunty. A man offered me a big plate full of money, and I said, "No, thank you."

Declining a Party Invitation
Clay Mudd is very sorry that he will be unable to accept the kind invitation of Mrs. Hedron Seam for the night of May first. He wishes to state that there may be any of several reasons that prevent his being present on that date. But they in no way relate to the merits of the party being given by Mrs. Seam. Prompt consideration will always be given to invitations accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelopes. Mr. Mudd is always glad to receive such invitations, and thanks you for your interest in him.
