Baccalaureate Services Held Sunday Evening

(Observer Correspondent)
IMBLES (Special)—Baccalaureate services were held in the Wade hall at 8 o'clock Sunday evening. The procession was played by Gladys Billings, song by the audience, "Onward, Christian Soldiers," invocation, Bishop I. B. Billings, song by audience, "Make the World Brighter," address, Rev. E. C. Lee, of Union, song, "God Be With You" and Benediction. Rev. L. A. Greybeal, a large number attended the service.

Marietta Johnson has been having some trouble with her teeth. The dentist is treating them and believes Mr. Johnson will soon be able to return to his work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Endicott and son, Billie are here visiting from Walla Walla. Mr. Endicott is a brother of Mrs. William Rockman. They had their dinner with their niece, Mrs. Ray Hayes last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Chaver spent the weekend at their home in Imbler. They returned to Wallowa Lake where Mr. Chaver is working Monday evening.

The Henry Bros. Animal circus was held Sunday evening instead of Saturday as was posted. One of their wagons upset causing the delay. Being on the same evening as the baccalaureate services, only a small crowd attended.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Conrad and family were the dinner guests of Elmer Conrad, a brother and family on Sunday. The men spent most of the day at the Gun club meet held at the Isaac Walton club grounds, near La Grande. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Conrad make their home in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Johnson, of Walla Walla, were Imbler visitors Sunday and Monday. Their son, Harry G. Johnson, is a teacher in the Imbler high school.

Lyle Ledbetter was unable to play on the ball team Saturday due to illness. No word has been heard from him today.

A minstrel entertainment will be given by "Cal and Charlie," traveling comedians Tuesday evening at the Wade hall at 8 o'clock.

The final examinations are being taken in high school this week. This will finish up the terms work for the students. Commencement exercises will be held Thursday evening at the Wade hall at 8 o'clock.

The annual P. T. A. picnic given on the last day of school will be held Friday on the school grounds. Everybody is welcome to this picnic and all are asked to bring something for lunch and your own dishes.

A miscellaneous shower was given Mrs. Warren Beem last Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Oscar Howell. The colors, white and yellow were carried out in the refreshments and in the decorations of the home. Mrs. D. McCallahan, of Elgin, sent a large bouquet of pink tulips, which was used as a centerpiece on a small table from which refreshments ascended to the ceiling, making a very pretty center for the room.

The bouquet was later given to Mrs. Beem. Mrs. Beem, who was formerly Miss Gail Tucker, has lived here many years and has a large circle of friends, of whom 22 were present at the shower.

They were: Mrs. Jay Beem, Mrs. Leonard Pitt, Miss Lydia Cleaver, Mrs. James King, Mrs. C. C. Conrad, Mrs. Clayton Fox and daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. Jet Gaskill, Mrs. Otis Buchanan, of Albee, Mrs. Geo. Crouser, Mrs. Keith Glen, Mrs. Thos. Kastner, both of La Grande, Mrs. Henry McGoldrick, Mrs. Josie Day and daughter, Frances, of La Grande, Mrs. Ted Conklin, Miss Ruby Rollins, Mrs. Oscar Howell, of La Grande, Mrs. Maude Tucker, Mrs. Warren Beem and the hostess Mrs. Jean Berrie and Mrs. Oscar Howell. Miss Frances Day gave vocal selections, playing her own accompaniment on the piano.

Dainty refreshments were served by Dorothy Crouser and Marjorie Howell. They wore dresses of white with yellow aprons and caps. Mrs. Beem also wore a yellow dress. She received many beautiful and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Beem will make their home at Imbler at the present.

Mrs. Ruth Rollins and Mrs. Minnie Hardy left for Portland Saturday morning. They went as delegates from the Jewel Rebekah lodge to the Rebekah assembly in Portland, May 20, 21, 22. They will visit with Mrs. Rollins' sister, Mrs. Maggie Golden White there. Mrs. John Wagner, captain of the Jewell Lodge team left Saturday evening and will visit with friends in Portland, until the assembly. Mrs. Wagner will spend some of the tableaux, taken from their work in the lodge, next Wednesday afternoon before the assembly.

The ball game between Enterprise and Imbler, which was to have been played on the La Grande field at 10:30 a. m. Saturday was played that afternoon on the Imbler field, due to some trouble in the Enterprise team. Imbler won the game, this making them champions of Wallowa and Union counties. This was the boys' last scheduled game.

"Welcome to the Old Home Town" was a three-act comedy presented by the senior class at the Wade hall last Friday evening.

The cast was as follows (in the order of appearance) "Top Whipple," factotum at the Lovel house, Harry Munsen; Tety Tibbs, the hotel maid and Ted's ladylove, Gladys Crouser; Con Conover, presumably a returned prodigal, Lyle Ledbetter; Solomon Pepper, an old timer with plenty of pep, William Fries; Lara Lovel, mistress of the Lovel house, Doshia Greybeal; Wayne Nodgett, son of Nathan Nodgett, old whylock himself, Clifford Conrad; and Mrs. J. Courtland Jones, mineral water authority, May Prior. Production staff: director, Harry G. Johnson; stage manager, Virgil Choate and stage technician, Leo Munsen. The play was enjoyed by a large audience and the senior class wishes to thank those, who have so generously cooperated with them.

The high school students sold tickets to the senior play for about a week before the play was given. The one who sold the largest number will have expenses paid to the students on a trip after the seniors are taking after school. May Prior, a senior, was the lucky one, selling 54 tickets. Mr. Johnson, one of the teachers in the high school, gave the prize. He will take the students on their trip.

Harvey Crouser cut his foot with an axe last Saturday while cutting car stakes for Claude Hale. He was taken to a physician immediately where three stitches were taken in his foot. He is able to be around although he cannot use his foot.

FOREIGNERS WOULD STEAL SPEED CROWN FROM U. S. INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Foreign drivers will challenge America's supremacy in the 500-mile Indianapolis speedway classic May 30. Italy has entered the fastest car in Europe, a 16-cylinder racer with a record of 152.85 miles an hour. Two crack drivers, Racon Borzacchini and Ernesto Haseerati, will attempt to beat the wheel in an effort to better Peter DePaolo's 1925 record of 101.13 miles an hour for the course.

South America, entering the race for the first time since 1923, will send its racing champion, Juan A. Gaudino, with the car in which he won Argentina's main speed event.

Detroit Tigers Win Two Games From St. Louis

By Orlo Robertson (Associated Press Sports Writer)

If the Detroit Tigers could play the St. Louis Browns all the time, they might be champions of the American league. But as it is, they are perched in seventh position after stretching their winning streak to four straight games with a double header victory over the Browns yesterday in the only games played in either of the major leagues. Rain and cold weather wiped out all other scheduled contests.

The 5 to 4 victory in ten innings and the 4 to 2 triumph in the nightcap marked three high spots in Detroit's 1930 campaign. By taking the twin bill, the Tigers not only made it five out of eight starts against the Browns but bettered their season's consecutive games record by two games. The double triumph also served to lift the Tigers into seventh place in the standings and above St. Louis in the cellar.

With the Tigers' double victory over the Browns, the second division of the National league circuit today had the aspect of a separate pennant race, only two games separating Detroit from the Chicago White Sox, who head the quartet. While ranking seventh in the percentage column, the Tigers actually trail the Browns by one-half game, having played five more games and won only two more. Here is how the second division looks:

Chicago	11	14	409
Boston	12	16	429
Detroit	12	19	337
St. Louis	10	16	357

As rain and cold weather took their toll of National league games the chances of the race remained unchanged. Pittsburgh, holding down fifth place, is only one game out of first position, occupied by the Brooklyn Dodgers.

I FEAR YOU OVERESTIMATE MY ABILITY, BUT I'LL DO MY BEST — I'VE AVOIDED YOU TO HEAR THE PROBLEM.

THEY SAY YOU'RE A GREAT HUNTER. I'VE HEARD THAT YOU'VE BEEN IN THOSE MOUNTAIN STATES AND PROVED THAT THE VALLEY TO THEIR HUNTING GROUNDS — AND THE TRAILS STILL REMAIN — JUST WERE OFF BY THE MINUTE BEARING MESSAGES BETWEEN THE GREAT TRIBES. THE HUNTERS OFTEN STOPPED TO TRADE WITH MY FATHER — FURS, HIS BEADS, BANNERS, GUNS, AND AMMUNITION — EVEN AS A BOY, I CAME TO KNOW MANY FAMOUS CHIEFS AND BRAVES. AS TIME WENT ON THEY CAME LESS FREQUENTLY, BUT THEY LIKED ME ANYWAY, FOR THEY NAMED ME WHITE-TURNING-DEER.

I'VE BEEN THINKING ABOUT YOU SINCE YOUR FIRST DATE TO THE COUNTRY. THERE'S CERTAINLY NO ROOM HERE FOR ANY "HEAVENLY" DANCING, IS THERE?

NO — IT'S SO CROWDED WE'VE GOT TO DRAG OUR FEET LIKE A BUNCH OF TIRED DANCING SOLES.

THIS MUST BE NEW YORK'S NIGHT SHIFT I'VE HEARD SO MUCH ABOUT.

MR. BROWN'S STORY

By John C. Terry

I EXPLAINED TO HIM IN SIGNS AS BEST I COULD THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE YELLOW METAL — ALTHOUGH I WAS "ECCENTRIC" OF MY SOURCE — I CONFESS I VISIONED A MURDERER.

HE HAD PROMISED TO SHOW ME WHERE HE HAD PROMISED IT — FOR WHICH FAULT I PROMISED A REWARD OF MANY BEADS.

THIS HE AGREED TO DO, PROVIDED I'D GO ALONE. I ACCEPTED THE ARRANGEMENT FOR THE MORROW, BUT NATURALLY WITH SOME FOREBODDING FOR THIS OWN INDIAN EITHER TRUSTED ME FULLY, OR HAD SEEN MY SUSPICION AND HAD MURDERED HIS HEART.
